

NU Tankers Fall 43-41 To Sooners

Oklahoma's tankers led all the way in the 400-yard freestyle relay to manage a 43 to 41 decision over the Nebraska swim crew. The Huskers, sweeping three events, led by two points, 37 to 35, with one event remaining.

Marvin Grimm led the Huskers with two firsts and anchored the freestyle relay. Grimm won the 220-yard freestyle in 2:30 and the 100-yard freestyle in :56.1. Ed Craren and Fig Flagg came through to sweep the diving for the Cornhuskers.

OUTSTANDING swimmer for the Sooners was McClusky, who won the 150-yard backstroke with the fast time of 1:43.6. McClusky also anchored the winning freestyle relay team. Dave Womble touched out Husker Jack Campbell for second place in the backstroke event.

Earl Jones of Oklahoma won the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:35.7. This is the fastest clocking in the Big Seven this year over the 25-yard course. Jones had a time of 2:29 Friday at Lawrence against Kansas University. Conrad King of Nebraska came second behind Jones.

OKLAHOMA'S distance duo of Driehorst and Clegern came in one and two in the 440-yard freestyle with Driehorst winning in 5:31.

IM Cagers to Poll All-Star Teams

The University Intramural department will sponsor an All-Star Basketball team poll following the playoff series this year. The plan has been changed somewhat from that used in the football selections. All managers should acquaint their groups with the following procedure: (1) Each team or group should discuss the merits of all the players together. Managers should then turn in their composite opinion on the official forms which will be sent out about Feb. 18.

(2) All games should be considered, including the entire playoff series. Each group will select first, second and third team choices, omitting their own players. Players from any league may be nominated. Both All-Star independent and fraternity teams will be selected.

All first team choices will score 3 points; second team will score 2 points; third team, 1 point. Players are urged to make every effort to study all players so that the honor award will be significant.

HOLIDAY

An Adventure in Good Smoking

Husker Matmen Topple Sooners By 22-5 Count

Coach Pat Patterson's Husker matmen gave out advance notice Saturday night that they were the team to beat for the Big Seven wrestling championships March 4 and 5 at Ames as they ran up a 22 to 5 victory over Oklahoma's 1948 Big Seven champions.

Louis Caniglia started things rolling for the Huskers as he took a close decision from Jack Blubaugh. Caniglia had an extra two points time advantage that proved to be the winning margin.

LAST YEAR'S 128-pound champion from Oklahoma, Orville Wise, found the going a little too tough as he dropped a 3 to 1 verdict to Bob Yambor. Yambor is defending champion in the 121-pound class.

In the 136-pound class, Mickey Sparano took a close 6 to 5 decision from Charles Keiter of Oklahoma.

JACK TAMAI OF Nebraska scored the only fall of the evening as he straightened Aubry Kelle of Oklahoma in 2 minutes, 10 seconds, of the second round. Tamai wrestled at 145 pounds this match.

OKLAHOMA finally broke the scoring column in the 155 pound class as Leonard Marcotte decided Bob Russell, 11 to 3. Marcotte picked up the Sooners' only victory against the Oklahoma Aggies earlier in the season.

The Huskers took the next two bouts as Earl Schneider won by 1 point advantage and Herb Reese copped a decision, 1 to 0.

Mike DiBiase fought to a draw with Henry Schreiner of Oklahoma in the heavyweight class to finish out the meet.

- Summary:
- 121 pounds: Caniglia (N) decided Blubaugh (O), 2 pt. Time Advantage.
  - 128 pounds: Yambor (N) decided Wise (O), 3-1.
  - 136 pounds: Sparano (N) decided Keiter (O), 6-5.
  - 145 pounds: Tamai (N) pinned Kelle (O), 2 minutes 10 seconds, Round 2.
  - 155 pounds: Marcotte (O) decided Russell (N), 11-3.
  - 165 pounds: Schneider (N) decided Rambo (O), 1 pt. Time Advantage.
  - 175 pounds: Reese (N) decided Robertson (O), 1-0.
  - Heavyweight: DiBiase (N) and Schreiner (O) drew, 1-1.

TASSELS
Tassels will meet at the union at 5 p.m. Monday for regular business meeting.

Glassford Welcomed At N Club Luncheon

By Cub Clem
Managing Editor

James W. "Biff" Glassford, Nebraska's new football coach, met the University Friday noon at a luncheon sponsored by the N club in the Union ballroom.

Athletic Director "Potsy" Clark, alumni, N club members, organized house presidents, members of the Innocents society and student leaders responded enthusiastically when Glassford said he planned to be here "a long, long time."

THE NEW GRID mentor said a lifetime goal had been reached in his appointment to the Husker post vacated last fall by Clark. Glassford's words were, "Ever since I decided to go into the coaching profession, I knew my goal would be to reach either the head coaching jobs at Pittsburgh, my alma mater, or at Nebraska."

Glassford was an All-American selection in his senior year at Pitt in 1936 and well remembers the hard fought games he played against Nebraska, then led by Sam Francis and Lloyd Cardwell.

THE AFFABLE COACH closed his remarks by saying, "I like you, and I hope that you like me." It was evident that the crowd of over 250 did.

After the lunch, "Potsy" Clark opened the program by introducing Dean of Faculties Carl Borgmann, who in turn introduced members of the Board of Regents and the Athletic board.

FRED METHENY, former Husker quarterback and now a student in the Law college, made a short introductory speech saying that a winning team needs three things: a squad of players with outstanding natural ability, an abundance of student spirit and a good coach who knows how to lead players and how to instruct them in the fundamentals of the game.

Ex-Persian Titlist UN Paddle King

Chassem Resai, former table tennis champion of Iran, eliminated all competitors to win the individual championship of the University this week.

In the final round of the student competition, Resai won over Bruce Rosen of Omaha. Other victims of Resai were: Paul Versch of Atwood, Kas.; Charles Mohrman and Harry Erckert of Lincoln; John O'Neal of Columbus; John Christiansen of Pilger and Dick Thomas, Custer, S. D.
