

NU Stretches Big 7 Lead To Full Game

BIG SEVEN STANDINGS

	W	L
Nebraska	7	1
Oklahoma	6	2
Kansas State	5	4
Missouri	4	4
Kansas U.	3	5
Colorado	3	5
Iowa State	1	8

Monday night's squeeze past Missouri enabled Nebraska to move a full game ahead of the Seven basketball race.

The schedule shows both teams in the same position, one game remaining at home and three on the road. The Huskers have an additional advantage on the Sooners in the fact that the final game at the Coliseum is with Oklahoma. Husker road opponents are: Colorado, Kansas State and Missouri in that order.

Oklahoma, dropping from first place Saturday night due to a 51-45 loss to Kansas State, entertain Colorado but must travel to Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

The rest of the conference fives, with the exception of Iowa State are in a battle for third behind the leaders. Kansas State is in second following Missouri's loss to NU.

They hold a half game edge over the Tigers with Missouri having played one less game. Trailing the Missourians by a full game are Kansas and Colorado who are deadlocked for fifth place.

Games in the conference battle this week have Kansas and Kansas State meeting in their traditional battle at Manhattan, Oklahoma invading Columbia where they meet the Missouri gang, and the Huskers travel to Boulder for a game with Colorado. Missouri took a 49-48 win from the Buffs in the western state Saturday night.

IM-Badminton Matches Begin First of Month

Badminton competition will start the first of March, the Intramural department announced today. There will be two tournaments this year, a singles and a doubles competition. The event is open to all men on the campus and faculty as well.

Last year 22 organizations competed in badminton. All matches will be played in the new P. E. building at 5 p. m. daily. Rackets and shuttlecocks will be furnished for all matches at the P. E. building cage.

This is a Jack Best sport. Entries are due at 102 P. E. building not later than Tuesday, March 1, at 5 p. m. Each match will consist of three doubles only and each team of two men will play three games each match. Standings will be computed on games won and lost, not by matches won. No new man may be added to the squad after the second scheduled match has been played.

Each team must file a seeded list of players just before the first match. Doubles teams will then be formed from singles seeding with 1-2 forming No. 1 team, etc.

In the interdenominational competition, four singles games will be played in each match. The same rule for seeding will apply. Any two independent men may form a team. Round-robin leagues will be scheduled and playoffs will be held at the end of the season.

Close Games Feature IM Cage Playoffs

The first round of intramural playoffs were completed Monday afternoon with more of the same terrific battles that highlighted the opening two days.

The Sig Eps fell before a fighting Delta Tau Delta team in a Class A game that saw the lead change hands nine times, before the Deltas went ahead to stay and win 29-28.

The Newman Club pulled one of the biggest upsets of the playoffs in downing favored AGR by a score of 28-26. It was close all the way, but Newman's B. Griffin supplied the extra scoring punch in the form of 15 points.

The DU's battled the Phi Psi's on even terms for 24 minutes before the roof caved in. The Phi Psi's ran away with the game in the last minutes to win, 36-26.

Reformatory Guards suffered their first defeat of the season in an overtime game, losing to Phi Gamma Epsilon by a score of 22-21. No more than 3 points ever separated the two teams.

A close game failed to materialize as the Farm House ran over the Christians, 41-25, despite the Christians' Rogers who scored 15 points. Heiss of the Farm House netted 14.

Catholics to See Slides on Mexico

Colored slides on Mexico will be shown during the monthly business meeting of the Newman club Sunday at 4 p. m. in the Knights of Columbus hall.
