

NU Grapplers Win Big 7 Championship

THE 1949 INDIVIDUAL swimming champions line up for a parting shot. Iowa State claimed 7 top places to 4 for Oklahoma and 1 for Nebraska.

Cyclones Cop Swim Title; Tankers Set Seven Marks

Oklahoma University's tankers showed the rest of the conference that they are becoming a power to be reckoned with as they nearly pulled the upset of the year, losing out to heavily favored Iowa State by 16 points in the Big Seven swimming championships. The Cyclones garnered 88 points to 72 for Oklahoma, 31 for Nebraska, 15 for Colorado and 14 for Kansas.

Don McCloskey, sensational Sooner sophomore, won two individual races and swam backstroke on the winning relay team for the Sooners to share top honors with the Cyclone's ace distance man Roger Watts.

BOTH THE 150-YARD backstroke and the 150-yard individual medley went to the stubby Oklahoman. Then to show he had plenty left he swam a leg 'on their winning relay.

Watts again defended his two titles in the 220 and 440-yard events and added the 1,500-meter swim to his collection. His 220 and 440 times set new conference records and he established a record in the longer race.

Iowa State had two other record breakers in Ed LeBerge and Malcolm Schmidt. LeBerge won the 50-yard freestyle and in the prelims he set a new pool and Big Seven records as he was timed in :23.9.

SCHMIDT LED ALL the way to take the 100-yard event with a record breaking time of :54.2. This is a new conference record but does not beat the pool record of :54 flat held by Marvin Grimm.

Ed Craren gathered in Nebraska's only first place ribbon as he dove to an easy victory in the high board diving event. Craren placed fourth in the low board event in Friday's competition.

Iowa State ended Friday night's competition with a record breaking relay in the 400-yard distance. The Cyclones were clocked in 3:40.1, which is a new pool and Big Seven record.

Earl Jones of Oklahoma picked up the last first for his team as he won the 200-yard breaststroke event in 2:34.2. Jones stayed in the second position until the last length and then turned on the steam and won going away.

Four Huskers Win Verdicts

Nebraska's wrestlers Saturday grabbed the Big Seven championship at Ames, Ia., scoring 32 points to runnerup Oklahoma's 24 points.

Bob Yambor, 121-pound, Mickey Sparano, 136 pound, Herb Reese, 175 pound, and Mike DiBiase, heavyweight, all won their class titles for Nebraska.

The final standing of the teams was: Nebraska, 32; Oklahoma, 24; Iowa State, 22; Kansas State, 18; Colorado, 16.

Huskers . . .

ers beat Missouri at Columbia Monday and Colorado takes the Sooners at Norman, Nebraska will have its first undisputed Big Seven title. If both win, the race will end in a two-way tie between the Scarlet and Oklahoma. If they lose and Kansas State wins its last game, a three-way tie will result.

Paul Courty, Oklahoma's all-conference candidate, led the evening's scoring parade with 15 points. Claude Retherford potted 12 and Bob Pierce hit for 11 to lead Nebraska. The latter played a great brand of ball after Bus Whitehead fouled out midway in the final period.

In a preliminary game, Nebraska's B team trounced York "B" 86-58, to complete an undefeated season. Jim Walsh with 23, Paul Kipper with 18, Darrel Brandenburg with 13 and Mel Schneider with 10 led a strong Nubbin attack. Walsh and Brandenburg, the B team's court-general, stood out in particular.

HUSKY BOB CERV goes high into the air to grab a rebound from Oklahoma's Bill Waters. Standing by are Sooners Ken Pryor (29) and Wayne Glasgow (43), and Husker Bob Pierce (5). The action took place in the second half of Saturday's game, when Oklahoma took a 56-49 overtime victory to move into a tie for the Big Seven leadership.

Husker Gridders To Begin Training

University of Nebraska gridders will settle down to some hard toil Monday when spring football practice gets into full swing.

Coach Bill Glassford has issued invitations to 81 men to participate in the six-weeks session. Of the 81 men, approximately 30 are lettermen. A large number of freshman prospects have received bids along with some players moved up from the "B" squad.

The weather man is proving to be a good ally to the Husker forces and predicts that ideal weather conditions will prevail over the start of spring practice.

All players not on the list invited to work out Monday are asked by Coach Glassford to see him in his office at the Coliseum.

NU Receives Britannica Film Tuition Grants

Nebraska University is one of fifteen colleges and universities that has been awarded an Encyclopedia Britannica Films tuition scholarship for summer study this year.

These scholarships have been awarded for the past 20 years and provides funds to cover the tuition expenses of school teachers and administrators who wish to take advanced study in audio-visual instruction materials.

James W. Taylor, director of audio-visual instruction, will be in charge of selecting the scholars for this summer's program at the university. Interested applicants may apply directly to the University and are chosen on the basis of their experience, record and activities in the field of audio-visual information.
