Farm House, ATOs Pace All-IM Team

The All-University Champion, Farm House and ATO dominated the All-Star Basketball selections Thursday with 2 each on the first team.

Denker and Carroll, ATO were chosen at the guards while Heiss and Vrbka, Farm House, were at forward and center, respectively. Rounding out the first team at the other forward was Means of Beta Theta Pi. Bill Denker, sharp-shooting guard was chosen outstanding player of the year as he copped the highest total in the All-Star balloting. Darrell Heiss, Farm House wizard was runner-up.

The second team consisted of Simpson, Phi Psi, and T. Loisel,

Whites Win Intrasquad Meet, Red Trackmen Dropped 57-37

The White track team proved too strong for their Red opponents last night. They emerged victorious in the two-day, intra-squad, Freshmen meet, 57-37.

Good times were turned in for all events and the Frosh performed very well in their first meet. These results were also sent to Iowa State. Nebraska was competing in a postal meet with the Cyclone Freshmen.

Sig Ep at forwards; Robinson, ATO and Millikin, Phi Psi at guards; and Schleiger, Phi Gam at center.

Third team selections were Cady, Phi Delt, and Sharp, DTD, at forwards; Michalek, DU, and Busskohl, ATO, at guards; and Rice, ATO, at the center spot.

Honorable Mention was given to the following:

Badminton Teams Notch IM Wins

Phi Delta Theta scored a 9-0 win over Zeta Beta Tau in an Intramural Badminton competition Wednesday. The Phi Delt teams of Curran and Martin, Shea and Brownlee and Lyle and Allen each blanked their opponents, 3-0. In the only other badminton game Beta Sigma Psi won 9-0 over Beta Theta Pi by default.

to take up the matter with Dean Thompson who in turn referred it to the faculty committee on student organizations and social functions.

More time elapsed until the faculty turned thumbs down on the entire project because of its "commercial aspects." Officials from the Stuart Theater, Twentieth Century and The Daily Nebraskan attempted to straighten out the matter but with no success.

THE EDITOR appealed the issue to the Student Council.

Exhausted Daily editors finally unearthed a solution to the problem. The Rag decided to choose its own queen in a purely non-commercial manner.

The announcement was made and a host of freshman beauties descended on the Rag office to file for the honor. Monday night was pure joy, when staff members rated some 34 freshman women for their beauty.

The six finalists were selected on a 1 to 10 scale rating. Their pictures were published, a poll was taken and now The Daily Nebraskan, like every other campus club, has a sweetheart.
