Also seen together that night will be Ted Gunderson and Jody Loder, Bill Norton and Susie Leninger.

Pledges of Farm House will go all out for their St. Patrick's party Friday night. Their special entertainment for the evening will be Gene Robinson, ventriloquist, and Berl Izes and Phil Acoff who will charm the crowd with their magic guitars in wild-western, Irish fashion. Tom Chilvers and Charlene Eggert, Dick Walsh and Jean Plaha will also be wearing the shamrock that night.

More Engagements.

This week will indeed be one of great social events. As expected, Dan Cupid has been doing his part. Jane Linn and Bob Schleiger, and Janet Zlomke and Gene Wiedmaier have joined the ranks of the steadies.

Norma Grothe finally passed candy to announce her engagement to Ron Rosenau while Norma Shalla is seen wearing the Theta Xi pin of Dale Young.

Thus ends the social roster for the weekend. May the luck of the Irish be with ye and may ye not kiss the Blarney Stone too often.

Party to Honor Faculty Favorites

Faculty "favorites" will be entertained!

That's the plan of a party being held at International House Friday evening at 8 p. m.

Residents of the house will invite their favorite instructor to the party. Plans call for about 60 faculty members and their wives to be entertained.

A program of International House talent is planned for the party. Included will be a song by Jo Pokorski, Florentine Crawford at the piano, and a pantomime act by four girls. Everyone will "get into the act" with the group singing planned for after the program.

The committee planning the party is made up of Bonnie Busse, Linda Jonaitis and Marie Malicky.

Dri-Nite Club Will Spotlight Marian Crook

The couple who danced the Harlem number, "Along Lenox Avenue" at the Skyline Scandals will also be presented. These personalities are better known as "A Lady of the Evening," Lois McGlashow, and "A Cat Out for a Stroll," Gilbert Haase.

Gene Moyer's orchestra will furnish music for the night club atmosphere. Dancing will be from nine until twelve, the floor show being presented at 10 p. m. Out-state students attending the basketball tournament are invited to attend.

Sport Splashes

Top interest this weekend on the campus is centered around the state high school basketball tourney. Finals in four leagues will be played tomorrow morning and evening.

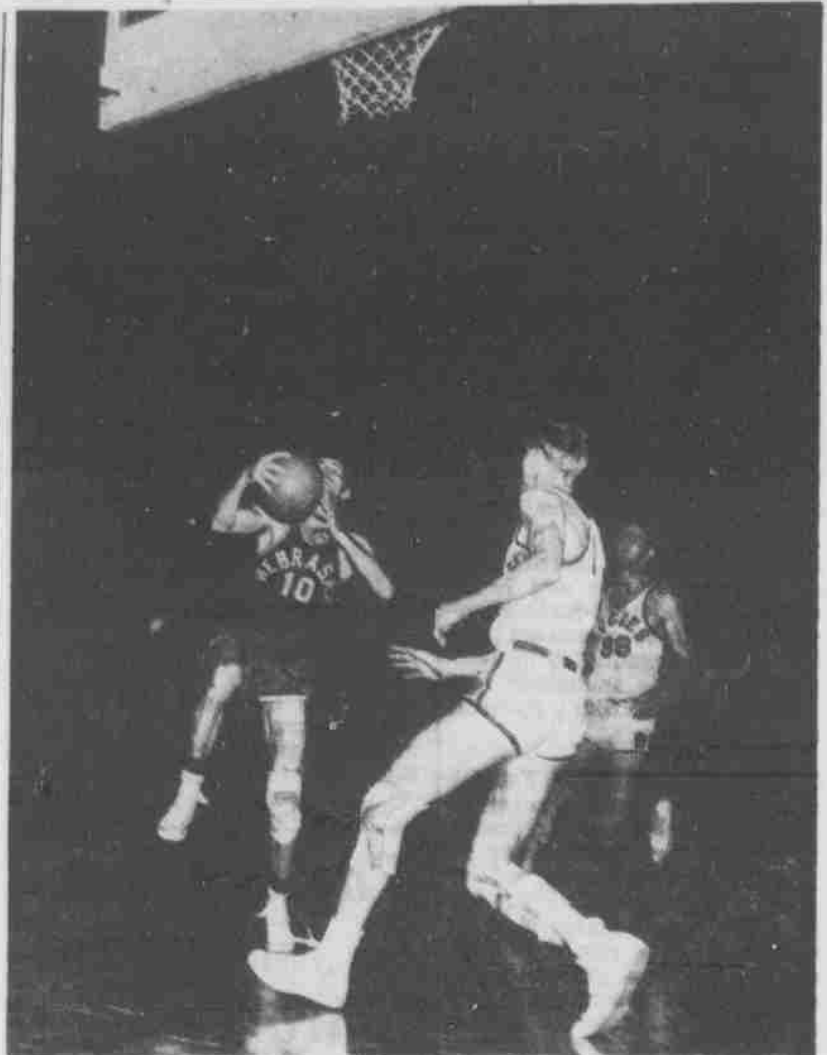

The Student Foundation hit the right mark Thursday with their high school dance in the Union ballroom. This is the one time in the year that all the top athletes of the state are gathered in Lincoln and advantage should be taken of it.

A few of the basketball team members gave short speeches during the program, with Retherford pulling a couple out of the bag.

WEDNESDAY'S game with the Oklahoma Aggies brings to a close one of the greatest basketball seasons in the history of the school. Three boys will not be back to help keep up the pace as Rod Cox, Kenny Anderson and Claude Retherford hang up their suits for the last time.

Rumors from the east coast tell of a Nebraska boy who is making good. Fritz Davis, all-stater from Northeast and Husker frosh last year, is making a name for himself at the Naval Academy. Davis is throwing the shot over 50 feet and he is leading scorer and starting center on the Navy frosh basketball team. He could be used around here.

A NEW feeling is growing around the conference that has been awaited for a long time here on campus. They are saying that Nebraska is climbing. A Kansas City sports writer stated that he predicted that the Huskers would be back on the top of the conference in three years. We hope it will be sooner than that, but those things take time.

CLAUDE RETHERFORD and "Big" Bob Harris of Oklahoma A. & M. vie for the tip-off. The Aggies must cop one more win to be eligible for western championship play.

The Huskers will be favored in two other sports this year, basketball and outdoor track. The golf team may also come up with a title, as Oklahoma's defending champs have lost the services of their ace linksman, Charlie Coe, via graduation. Coe was the best collegiate golfer in the country last year.

The Army and Navy Academies grabbed another pair of top prep athletes as Roland Rivers of Seward and Duane Heuneke both received appointments to the military schools.

Palladian Fems Take Limelight

Palladian gals will take the limelight Friday night when they present their annual girls' program in Palladian Hall.

Talent will be running around in various forms and sizes. Little blond Mary Forell is to voice an opinion of men from a girls' viewpoint. A description in song of the difficulties of a typical college girl will be presented by "Senior" Mary Boylston.

Dreamy-eyed Nancy Koehler will give her rendition of a torchy love song. The remaining feminine skills are to be combined in skits and songs.

Lincoln Quints Take Victories In Class A Play

Lincoln Northeast and Lincoln High won their intracity "duel" with Omaha North and Creighton Prep as the Class A teams opened tourney play Thursday.

Northeast avenged an earlier loss to the Junior Jays from Creighton, taking a 41-39 victory. Prep led at half time 23-18, but Northeast took over in the third quarter, entered the final period with a three point edge and were never headed. Paul Fredstrom paced the Rockets with 11 points, while Omaha's Jack Cannon notched 12.

THE DEADLY long range firing of Gus Lebscock and Joe Good gave Lincoln High a 46-36 win over Omaha North. Lebscock hit 11 points in the first half, four of his field goals coming on long one handers. The Linx led 25-17 at intermission.

Defending champion Grand Island rolled to an easy 43-27 win over Scottsbluff. The Islanders raced to a 16-0 lead before Mohr opened Scottsbluff scoring with a free throw with 1:45 to go in the first period. All-stater Bob Reynolds led GI with 16 points, 11 coming in the first half.

Hastings made a ten point first quarter lead stand up the rest of the way as they eliminated North Platte 44-37. The Tigers held a 15-5 edge going into the second quarter, but were weakened when Charlie Stickle racked up four fouls and had to be used sparingly the rest of the way.
