No Room???

As of Tuesday, five organizations on the campus had definitely promised to provide board and room for a displaced person next fall. Five out of a possible fifty-three.

The average can stand improvement. Though many other organizations are expected to join in the movement, they have been reluctant to commit themselves.

Why?

One of the most popular arguments used is "no room." The excuse does not stand up. Five houses have promised room and board. If Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, Beta Theta Pi and Kappa Sigma can find room, surely the other houses can too.

Another argument put forth is that there are many in the United States who need aid. Why not help them? Our answer is this: at least the young people of the United States have an opportunity to work their way through school. The many students working their way through the University of Nebraska give ample proof of this. DP students in Europe often have no place to study, even though they may find a way to earn the money for their education. All they want is an opportunity to earn their way.

A number of worthy plans are in the embryo stage. The YW has tentative plans for setting up a co-operative library of reference and text books for use by the students. Other organizations plan to give money to provide other expenses of the students. The problem lies in putting these well meaning plans into action.

Nebraska students have a chance to give some DP students a "new lease on life," the opportunity to learn so they may help rebuild their own countries. Our reward will be a sense of really doing something to help the people who may be less fortunate than we.

As I Was Saying...

BY ARDATH WILCOX

Parties, pinnings, steady deals and mutual greetings have been crowding the calendar this past weekend. Everyone seems to be suffering from that dread disease called "Spring Fever."

The parties are first on the list so here is the scoop on some of the gala affairs that took place last weekend. The Sig-Alphas' Bowery Ball proved to be a huge success. The alumni were there as was Sy Johnson with Marcia Pratt. Bob Boeckel came with Diana Thomas and Tom Ludwick with Jane Bail.

Carter Co-op had a strictly stag party Saturday night and from all reports a good time was had by all. Just ask Jack Carroll, Paul Leuth and Paul Carothers.

A few of the Brown Palace fellas are going to initiate Cris Beefies' roommates' car Saturday night by going to the Pike to listen to Johnny Long and his orchestra. Incidentally two new steady deals in the house are Tom Coerber and Phyllis Teater. The other is Cris' roommate Wall Schnert and Jean Leisy.

The ATO "Story Book" party will add Bob Swett and Mary Odell to the night's gaiety. President Ray Simmons and Carmen Christoffel will also dance to the blare of the "Story Book" trumpeteers.

Bob "I hate publicity" Berkshire will escort an out-of-town sweetheart to the once-upon-a-time affair. We hear there is a great gnashing of teeth on S street over this.

Activation of pledges seems to be the topic of conversation this week. The Phi Psi's initiation was Sunday and Towne Clubs' recognition was held Monday night.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK—Why did little Harold Gilliland (Kappa Sig pledge) reach into his pocket to pay a crib bill and let mothballs fall out???

ASPIRING FOR TITLE—Eager Louis Hasley is eyeing the title of Whisker King. The King will be presented at the Farmers Fair dance which is strictly a cotton and denim affair. Jack De Wulf

THE TRUMPETEERS above are giving the Alpha Phi's a glimpse of the coming attractions at the ATO Story Book party this weekend. The trumpeteers in costume are Curt Weatherhogg, Ken Powell, and Jim Anderson. Don Bergquist is reading the distinctive invitation.

Dear Editor:

Well, here it is! The Third Annual Miss America Coed Contest!

In 1947 Miss Mimi Hart of Iowa U. was selected Miss American Coed, and her picture along with eight runners up appeared in "Life" magazine.

In 1948 the winners were saluted on the Chesterfield Supper Club, coast-to-coast radio show, and were flown to Virginia Beach for the final judging, where Miss Pattie Cottner of L.S.U. was selected.

This year your college may come up with the Miss American Coed of 1949, so from now on it's up to you to select a campus queen. The best way to do that is to run a beauty contest sponsored by your magazine or by a school organization of your choosing. (The pictures of the winners, published in your magazine, will make a swell feature).

We must receive two 8 X 10 glossy photographs of the winner (one portrait and one full length) on or before May 9th, to make our entry eligible for final judging.

We will keep you posted on news of the contest, but in the meantime, please let us know within two weeks whether or not you plan to enter, so that we may make arrangements for the many valuable prizes for the Miss American Coed of 1949.

Sincerely,
Gene Schneider

Editor's note—THE DAILY NEBRASKAN has learned a lesson of patience. Had it not rushed headstrong into the freshman beauty queen contest and waited until this really big contest came along. The Daily Nebraskan could have given the beauty contest opportunity to all co-eds. To sophomore, junior and senior women, we apologize.

was the winner of the title last year.

MARRIED—Kevin Mojarity and Nadine Laws were married March 17 in the student Presby house.

ENGAGED—Gloria Yates and Bob Cottingham; Janie Borchert and Carroll Roberts; Gladys Gustavson and Ted Thompson.

PINNED—A happy candy passer Monday night was Lois Gebar. It seems that she and Dave Lu-nis have reached a mutual agreement.

UNDECIDED—Jim Cook and Janie Lawrence can't decide whether 3 months is long enough to form a pact.

Also undecided are Chuck Hustus and Pat Weidman.

Smith, Galter Will Co-Edit N-Book

Jean Smith and Paul Galter have been announced as co-editors of the 1949-50 N-Book, a student handbook published by the University YM and YW.

Sid Rubin and Len Bush have been appointed business manager and assistant respectively. The next issue of the N-Book will come out in September.
