

Nebraska Nine Outslugs Hardin; Branson Homers

The University of Nebraska baseball team won its second game in three starts, Wednesday afternoon, beating Hardin College, 12-7.

Led by Catcher Bill Branson's ninth inning homer, the Huskers blasted three Texan hurlers for 11 hits. A double by Fritz Hegwood in the third was the only other extra base blow for the Cornhuskers.

Lefty Bob Jenkins started for Nebraska and was in trouble every inning. He was relieved in the seventh by Bobby Kemp after allowing seven hits. Kemp also found the going rough but the weak-hitting Indians failed to take advantage of their scoring opportunities. Kemp struck out a Hardin pinch-hitter to stop a threat with the bases loaded in the seventh.

The Huskers' scoring started in the second when they hit the Texans' starting hurler, Wayne Allison, for five singles to rack up a five run margin which they never lost. Nebraska tallied again in the third and fourth innings, getting two in each.

One of Hardin's ten hits was an eighth inning homer by Second Baseman Don Wetzel. The loss to the Huskers was the fourth consecutive defeat suffered by the Indians.

Thursday the Cornhuskers moved to Oklahoma for a game with Southwestern Tech before starting a two day series with the Oklahoma Sooners on Friday.

NU Cindermen Leave Friday For Colorado

The University of Nebraska track team will have a tough assignment ahead of them this week-end. They meet the Colorado trackmen in an indoor dual at Boulder Saturday night.

Coach Ed Weir will take 19 men to tackle a good Buffalo team which has won three outdoor meets this spring. Colorado beat Arizona State, 75-56, New Mexico 101-28 and Arizona University, 79 1/2-52 1/2.

The two teams are both poorly balanced and have their power in the same events. In the sprints the Buffs have Don Campbell to go against the Husker threesome, Harry Meginnis, Dick Hutton and Alan Thompson. Leonard Kehl, Nebraska pole vaulter, has some tough competition in Warren Bateman. Bateman cleared 13 feet 7 inches to win the outdoor title at Lincoln last May.

Other Colorado stars include George Fitzmorris, miler, who has recorded the good time of 4:22.4, and Charles Temple, 440. Temple's best time is :49.4.

Nebraska's entries are as follows: Esrif Aydin, 2-mile; Bob Berkshire, hurdles; Bill Hein, sprints; Dick Hutton, sprints; Willis Jones, hurdles; Leonard Kehl, vault; Harold Kopf, 880; Ray Magsaman, hurdles; Jim Martin, 880; Harry Meginnis, sprints; Dick Meissner, high jump; Don Morrison, mile; Jim McConnell, shot-put; Ted Randolph, broad jump; Alan Thompson, hurdles; Don Vollertson, 440; Fritz Ware, 440.

The low 32 scorers in the qualifying round will be paired for match play. All match play rounds will be nine holes except the finals and semi-finals.

Results of all matches must be posted on the bulletin board in the Physical Education building by noon of the day after the deadline date for that round. Those match results which are not posted will be forfeited at 1:00 p. m.

Any man in the University is eligible with the exception of the varsity golfers. Organizations must have four men play in the qualifying round to be eligible for Jack Best participation points. No more than two men from the same organization may play in the same foursome.

Sport Splashes

Nebraska's spring sport schedule moves into high gear this week end as four squads travel out of the state for matches. The golf and tennis teams have a two-game schedule with the Oklahoma Sooners and Aggies Friday and Saturday, the baseball squad will meet the Sooners in a two-day series and the track team with travel out the Boulder for a dual with Colorado.

The baseball game with Oklahoma will pit last year's conference champs against 1947's champions. The pro leagues raided the Sooner camp before the season last year and took many veterans who had eligibility left.

Elton Davis and Danny "Boom Boom" Burrell will try to stop the Huskers in the series this year. Burrell matched the only Sooner win over the Huskers last year as he muzzled the Nebraska nine, 9 to 1 in the second game.

Oklahoma's victory in the 440-yard relay last week in the Texas Relays was won on good baton passing as seen by the relay roster. Although an event for sprinters, Oklahoma won with Merwin McConnell, a broad jumper; Hobo Gilstrap, a hurdler and George Thomas, a football half-back.

Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma states that how his squad comes out next year will depend on how well the new men and reserves come thru at several positions in the starting lineup. Oklahoma lost nearly half of its starting lineup by the graduation of Buddy Burris, All-American guard, Homer Paine, three-time All-Big Six tackle and Pete Tillman, veteran center.

In the backfield, Wilkinson must find replacements for Myrle Greathouse, powerful fullback and Jack Mitchell, Sooner All-American quarterback.

Red Hogan, veteran Jayhawk griddler, will take his baseball squad to Iowa State Friday to open the Big Seven league slate. Hogan will depend on five of his fellow gridders for starting positions. Bud French, Dick Bertuzzi, Dick Gilman, Floyd Temple and Carl Ellis are all slated the start the Kansas first league match.

Husker football stock took an upswing this week as two outstanding prep athletes named Nebraska as their college after graduation. Bob Reynolds of Grand Island, one of the best high school athletes to come along for many a year and Ted Conner, 220-pound All-State tackle and fullback from Hastings, have both announced their intention of coming here next fall.

The Life Saving and Water Safety course will start next Monday in the pool at 4 p. m. Everyone who has the time should take the course, which will go for a month every day from 4 to 5:30 p. m.

Anyone interested in going out for football and who has not been out yet during the past four weeks is asked to see Coach Bill Glassford no later than Monday, April 11, in his office in the Coliseum.
