RCCU To Hold Egg Hunt For Cedar Home Sunday

"Easter bunnies" of the Red Cross will hide Easter eggs and candies on the campus this weekend for children of Cedar Home. Approximately 20 children from the home will be entertained at a party Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

UNIVERSITY BUILDING and Grounds Director Charles F. Fowler gave his permission for the party on the campus. University police will be prepared to direct traffic and watch cars during the hour and a half the party will last.

DECORATION of the eggs will take place in the kitchen of Sigma Delta Tau. They will be decorated

Saturday morning after purchase from Lancaster County chapter funds. The Easter egg hunt is under the direction of Gloria Larsen. She is being assisted by Sally Krause and Rod Riggs, and members of the Council institutions committee.

About 100 eggs and candies will be hidden in the area for the Cedar children. All of the nests will be sought by the children under the direction of members of the Red Cross College Unit.

Transportation of the young guests will be handled by Miss Larsen and her committee and Lois Rodin, chairman of the College Unit Motors Corps.
