

Wallace Reveals Assembly Dates

... Delegation Told

The Constitutional Assembly will be held May 3, 4 and 5, according to Bob Wallace, steering committee chairman.

An afternoon and evening session will be held on each of these dates. During these six sessions the delegates will be able to work out a constitution for the Student Council.

With the annexation of 100 signatures the constitution may be presented to the student body for approval at spring elections.

THE ASSEMBLY will do most of its work in committees which will be set up at the first general meeting. All of the work of the assembly will be done by 100 official delegates from a cross section of campus governing bodies.

The representation will be chosen by 21 organizations. The organizations have been allotted representation in an effort to secure an adequate cross-section of student sentiment. The quotas listed below will be those used in the assembly.

ALTHOUGH each group listed will be allowed the number of representatives which appear opposite its name these representatives do not necessarily have to come from the group. Any organization may choose persons outside its membership to represent it at the assembly.

ORGANIZATION	MEN	WOMEN
Ag Exec Board	8	3
AWS Board	7	7
BABW	7	7
Coed Counselors	5	5
Corn Cobs	1	1
Cosmopolitan Club	2	2
ISA	7	7

Red Cross	3	2
Religious Welfare Council	4	3
Student Party	3	3
Tassels	2	2
University Party	3	3
Vets Organization	3	3
YMCA	5	5
YWCA	6	6

The steering committee has devised this method of delegation in the hope of procuring cross-sectional representation, a representation that, in convention, will have student government as its paramount objective.

Truman Aide Will Speak at Convo Today

A wide background in economics, law, political science and business will serve John D. Clark in a discussion of "The Business Outlook" in the Union ballroom at 2 p. m. Wednesday.

A former dean of the College of Business Administration at the University and now a member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, Clark is a Nebraska graduate.

He received his A.B. and LL.D. degrees at Nebraska and then got his LL.B. at Columbia and his Ph.D. at Johns Hopkins. Clark taught at Nebraska from 1934 to 1937 in the Department of Economics and also at Denver, Colo. He headed the Bizad college from 1941 to 1947.

The speaker was also a member of the Wyoming legislature in 1941. He served on the Wyoming Council of Defense and the Nebraska State Development committee. He was a delegate to the Democratic national convention and was later made advisor to the U. S. Senate committee on governmental reorganization.

In 1943 he was president of the American Finance association. He has also been president of the Midwest Refining company, director of the Bank of Cheyenne and director of the Omaha branch of the Federal Reserve bank.

Farmers Fair Barbeque

Tickets for the Farmer's Fair barbeque, Saturday, April 30, are now on sale at Ag Hall. This outdoor event is limited to students, faculty and alumni of the Ag college. Tickets may also be purchased from any Farmers Fair Board member.

Rod Lindwall Elected President Of Corn Cobs for 1949-1950

Rod Lindwall will guide the activities of Corn Cobs for the year '49-'50. He was elected by the retiring Cob officers.

The election of Lindwall and three other officers was announced at the Corn Cob meeting Tuesday night by Bob Hamilton, retiring president.

John Connelly will succeed Norm Leger as vice-president. Rex Pettijohn will replace Bob Easter in the secretary's post. Neal Baxter will handle funds as treasurer, following Frank Loef-fel.

Lindwall has been an active Corn Cob for the last year. He served as a member of the rally committee composed of Cobs, Tassels and the Student Council members.

He is serving on the constitutional assembly steering committee. He has done work in varsity debating for the past three years and is a member of Delta Sigma Rho, debate honorary. He is also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

He has done work in varsity debating for the past three years and is a member of Delta Sigma Rho, debate honorary. He is also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

CONNELLY was in charge of the presentation of the Pep Queen at last year's Homecoming game. He is managing editor of the '49 Cornhusker and took part in the All University Fund campaign. He is a member of Phalanx and Phi Kappa Psi.

Both Connelly and Lindwall have been active in the formation of the new freshman pep group. The new organization will be directed by Cobs and will aid the Husker cheering section next year.

The group will be composed of from 100 to 150 freshman. It will be controlled by a governing council of five Corn Cobs who have been active during the past year and headed by Connelly as vice-president. The group will work in conjunction with Tassels, who are now organizing a similar pep squad.

PETTILJOHN directed publicity for the Homecoming dance. He is chairman of the Union music committee and a member of Kosmet Klub. He is affiliated with Sinfonia and Sigma Nu.

Baxter assisted with the fireworks demonstration at the Homecoming rally. He is a member of the Coll-Agri-Fun board and the Ag YMCA. He is affiliated with Farm House fraternity.

Corn Cobs who have been active during the past year will be able to remain in the organization according to a new ruling. The policy of having the membership include senior activities, other than the officers, is new.

Bengtson Sets Advisor Deadline

All Junior Division students are requested to make appointments with their advisers immediately for conferences pertaining to registration for summer school and the first semester 1949-50, Dean Nels A. Bengtson of the University Junior Division announced.

Junior Division students are to make out programs with their advisers during the period April 20-30, and all conferences must be completed prior to May 1.

Scholarship Applications Due April 16

Deadline for applications for $38,000 worth of scholarships is noon on Saturday, April 16. Nearly 400 students will share in this stipend for the 1949-50 school year.

Generally an average grade of 7 or above is necessary but awards may be given to those possessing a lower average under certain circumstances.

OTHER THINGS being equal, seniors or seniors-to-be will be given preference and then in order, juniors and sophomores. Generally speaking, students must possess 24 credit hours from the University to be eligible to apply.

Dr. J. T. Thompson, dean of student affairs and chairman of the general scholarship committee, says the number of applicants for these awards the past few semesters has not been as great as the committee desires and in some instances awards have not been made for lack of qualified candidates.

SCHOLARSHIPS range in value from $50 to $200 and range from those in specific departments to general scholarships such as the 300 Regents scholarships for upperclassmen.

Application forms may be obtained at the offices of the undergraduate college deans, the dean of women or the chairman of the awards committee, 104 Administration building.

Lt. Gen. Eddy Speaks Tonight At Scabbard and Blade Lecture

Lieutenant General Manton S. Eddy, commander of the Command and General Staff college at Ft. Leavenworth, will speak at 8 p. m. today in Love Library auditorium.

Speaking in one of the free lecture series sponsored by the Scabbard and Blade military society, Eddy will talk on the role of the army in our national defense.

EDDY HAS received decorations from five countries: Great Britain, France, Russia, Luxembourg and the United States. He has also received an honor from the French Foreign Legion. Among the decorations he has received from the United States are the Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star, Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster and six others.

A former commander of the fifth army, Eddy has served in both World Wars. In the first war during the time he commanded a machine gun company he was wounded in action on the Vesle River. He returned to command a machine gun battalion and after the war proceeded to Germany to serve in the army of occupation.

IN MARCH 1919 he was selected to participate in General

John J. Pershing's personal escort, commanding the first battalion.

During the rest of the peacetime interim, he received more education in the United States and was selected a member of the Infantry Board. In June, 1925, he became Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville, Ga.

WHEN THE second war began, he joined the staff of the Third Corps Area and became Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, in charge of military intelligence. In this capacity he laid the foundation for the plan for counter-intelligence which was directed by the President in July 1940.

In June, 1942 he was given command of the ninth Infantry Division and as its commander led that division in the campaigns of North Africa and Sicily. He was promoted to Commanding General of the Twelfth Army Corps in August 1944, the group which spearheaded most of the operations of General Patton's Third Army through France, Luxembourg and Germany.
