

Fellowships Awarded Six

Six students taking advanced work at the University of Nebraska were named recipients of fellowships worth about $5,700 Thursday.

The awards are for the 1949-50 school year. Recipients of $1,000 Regents Graduate Fellowships, and free tuition, are Lorraine C. Croy, who is seeking a doctor of philosophy degree in history; and Claire Kepler, seeking a Ph.D. degree in psychology.

Four students are recipients of the Franklin E. and Orinda M. Johnson Fellowship of $750, and tuition expenses each. They are: Mary Dye Baker, majoring in educational psychology; Herbert B. Barry, majoring in English; Mimi Anne Johnson, majoring in psychology; and Robert R. Noble, majoring in sociology.
