

BILL DENKER'S SINGLE brought in two men in the fifth inning of the first game Saturday between Nebraska and Kansas State diamondmen. Nebraska won the first game in a doubleheader 9-2, and dropped the second, 14-4.

Nebraska Splits Two-Game Series With Kansas State

Nebraska's diamondmen split a doubleheader with Kansas State this week end with big Jim Sandstedt pitching two-hit ball to cop the opener 9 to 2, and the Huskers dropping the second game 14 to 4.

Kansas State opened the scoring in the first game with a two-run barrage in the second inning. Johnson walked and Al Sheriff followed with a home run, to put the Wildcats in the lead.

The Huskers came back in the third inning with a marker as Blatchford walked, stole second and scored on a driving triple to right field by Fritz Hegwood. Denker fouled out to end the inning.

Big Jim pitched hitless ball for the rest of the game except for a single by Grimes in the sixth canto. Novak picked Grimes off at second in an attempted steal.

Nebraska exploded in the fifth innig as aHys singled, Sandstedt walked and Blatchford went to first on a fielder's choice, Hays scoring. Hegwood sacrificed two men ahead a base and Denker singled, scoring both men. Denker then came in on Novak's single to end the scoring.

The Huskers picked up three more runs in the seventh as Novak and Grogan both singled and Bob Cerv poled a terrific drive over the left field fence.

COACH TONY SHARPE sent a total of six pitchers to the mound in the second contest to no avail as the Wildcats knocked in 14 runs, seven in the big sixth inning. Kansas State pitcher Jack Dean held the Huskers in check the entire game except for the second inning, where Nebraska picked up three runs. Tom Novak gave the fans their only excitement as he socked one of Dean's offerings over the left field wall.

The Huskers travel to Ames Monday and Tuesday for a two-game series with the Iowa State Wildcats.

Huskers Gain Split in Tennis, Golf With CU

Faced by Verne Strauch and Don Spomer, both shooting 74's, the University of Nebraska golf team defeated Colorado aSturday afternoon 17-1. Francis Leighton's netmen didn't fare as well against the Buffs, however, dropping a 5-2 decision.

The NU linksmen swept all si-matches in overwhelming the Co-oradoans. In addition to the 74 totals of Strauch and Spomer, Don Stroh turned in a 76 and Del Ryder a 77. Ryder's score, high for the Huskers, was one below the lowest Buff golfer, Derweiler, who came in with a 78.

The lone Colorado point came in the Stroh-Dalton match. Stroh, three strokes under his rival for the eighteen, had a 2-1 edge.

The tennis squad lost their dula with Colorado in the singles match, taking only one of five. Bob Slezak took an easy 6-1, 6-1 win over Colorados' Bob Speers for the lone individual triumph.

The Huskers' other match victory came in the doubles, where Jamie Curran and Jack Cady teamed for a 6-2, 6-2 win. In three of the losing matches, the Nebraskans pushed their opponents to thee sets before losing.

The other scores: Bob Aesel (C) defeated Jack Cady, 6-6, 4-6, 6-3; Anil Yagnik (C) defeated Don McArthur 6-2, 6-4; Herman Anderson (C) defeated Jamie Curran, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2; Volley Cruiser (C) defeated Bob Means 6-2, 6-3; Speer-Anderson (C) defeated Slezak-McArthur, 3-6, 6-4 and 6-4.

NU 'B' Team Plays Omahans To a 4-4 Draw

The University of Nebraska "B" baseball squad battled Omaha University to a 4-4 tie in seven innings, Saturday morning. The game was called at the end of the seventh by a mutual agreement between the two coaches.

"B" team coach Angelo Ossino used three pitchers in the abbreviated game. The Husker hurlers held the Indians to four hits while they fanned ten and allowed six walks.

"Lightning" Bruce Perrine started the game for Nebraska and worked five innings before being relieved by George Wolf. Perrine looked good as he held O.U. scoreless and gave up only two hits. Ernest Behne finished the game for Ossino's men.

Nebraska scored two runs in the fourth on two successive walks to John Rego and Willard Branson and a single by Don Hays. A long fly ball by Butch Matthews scored Hays with the third run of the inning.

The Cornhuskers tallied their final run in the seventh when Behne lived on a fielder's choice, took second on a wild pitch and scored when Bobby Hinde rapped a sharp single to left center field.

The Indians got all their runs off Wolf in the sixth and seventh innings. In the sixth, Seume singled and was walked around the bases. Hits by Taylor and Holtz and walks to Seume and Spellman resulted in three runs in the seventh.

John Rego's fielding at short and Joe Benak's hitting coupled with Perrine's sparkling job on the hill were the bright spots in the Husker performance.

K State Receives Building Grants

Kansas State's "Campus of Tomorrow" became a virtual reality last week when the legislature approved an appropriation bill for state school buildings.

Included in the bill was a grant of $515,000 for the first section of a classroom building; $655,000 for a wing connecting the present two agriculture buildings; $500,000 for an addition to the engineering building; $95,000 for a new steam boiler; $128,900 for heat tunnels and $30,000 for a green house.

Big Scores Mark IM Softball Play

High-scoring games were the feature for the day Friday afternoon with the Phi Deltis turning in the top scoring spree with a 21 run barrage against the Sigma Alpha Mus while holding their opponents to 5 markers.

The Alpha Gamma Rhos clicked off 17 runs as they topped the Sigma Nus, who garnered 9 markers. The ATOs and Beta Sigs scored shutouts against the Sig Eps and Alpha Sigma Phis, respectively, with the ATOs marking up 1 0and the Beta Sigs scoring 14.

Other scores were: Brown Palace 6, ZBTs 9; Farm House 6, Phi Psis 5; Delta Sigma Pi 10, Cornhusker Co-op 2; Delta-Sigma Phi 7, Delta Upsilon 8; TKE 10, Phi Gams 9.

First-round deadline for the badminton singles tourney is set for April 29th. All first-round matches must be in by this date.

SPALDING SPORTS SHOW

Improve your game in '49 with these new Spalding Golf Clubs. Precision weighted for power with a choice of lighter, stronger shafts. Spalding golf balls offer a selection for every type of player.

SPALDING SETS THE PACE IN SPORTS

WAA

The women's softball intramurals will begin Monday, April 25. Teams scheduled to play are: Gamma Phi Beta team 2 against Kappa team 1; Alpha Xi team 1 against Delta Gamma team 2. The games will start at 5 p.m. on the softball diamonds behind the Coliseum.

An Amazing Offer by HOLIDAY Pipe Mixtures

The pipe that every plumber wants... HOLIDAY PIPE MIXTURE. Only 50¢ with inside wrapper from 12 pocket size of HOLIDAY PIPE MIXTURE. See it every where. Get your HOLIDAY PIPE. Spalding Golf Clubs. Precision weighted for power with a choice of lighter, stronger shafts. Spalding golf balls offer a selection for every type of player.

Classified

LOST—Between Andrews and Girls Dorm. Dark blue Parker 51 pen with silver cap. Reward. Ardelle Henzen, tele. 2-7371.
LOST—Art Carved, white gold man's wedding ring. Reward, Call 3-8003.
BUS BOY—We have a position in our food service department for a bus boy. Hours 11-2. Work all or majority of week days. Duties consist of carrying trays of dishes. Apply employment office 7th floor. MILLER & PAINE.
EXCEPTIONAL Buy: Satisfy that spring fever urge! 1947 Chevrolet Convertible in excellent condition available. Call 6-5743 after 5.
FOR SALE—Two Mouton coats, sizes 14 and 16. Good condition! Call 4-2926.

Circulation Man

THE WORLD HERALD AGENCY has an opening for a young man to enter newspaper circulation work under "V. A. on the job training". This position will be open immediately after spring vacation on a part time basis then full time on June 1. Interested parties may contact Mr. Ball at the World Herald Agency, 1135 M St. Ph. 2-5777.

FOR SALE—45 Cushman 34. Make offer. 3328 Mohawk evenings.
FOR SALE—26' trailer house $850.00. Call after 5:30 p. m. John Petersen, 901 So. 25.

WANTED—Student who desires farm work during vacation: $125 per month. Board and room furnished. Fred R. Whitney, Fullerton, Nebr.

The IM Dept. announced that the games scheduled to be played Thursday, April 28 at 5:45 p.m. on the Whittier, Peter Pan and Ag College fields have been moved back to 6:15 p.m. so that the ROTC men can get through drill and participate in the games.

Delight of the Dorm...

MILLER'S Cornhusker "AUTOGRAPH" ANIMALS

BEARS 1.95 and 2.95

CORNHUSKER PIGS 1.95 and 2.95

Meet our new Cornhusker pets... spanking white animals your friends can write quips and autographs on... use either pen or pencil... They're Nebraska colors too... White with Red ribbons.

TOYS... THIRD FLOOR

MILLER & PAINE