

Husker Baseballers Travel To KU for Two-Game Series

Coach Tony Sharpe and his diamond faithfuls left Thursday afternoon for Lawrence, Kas., where they will meet Kansas University in a two-game series, Friday and Saturday.

Sharpe has juggled his batting order in an attempt to improve the team's hitting. Hobe Hays has been switched to the number two spot and Cerv will be batting clean-up against the Jayhawks.

DICK GILMAN, Kansas' leading hurler, is the probable starter in the first game. Gilman has pitched both of the Jayhawks' conference wins this season. Kansas has lost four league games. Against Kansas State, Gilman hurled a four hitter and he turned in a three hit performance to beat Missouri. The only conference team that has beaten Gilman is Iowa State.

Elroy "Lefty" Gloystein will be the starter in the first game and Jim Sandstedt will hurl on Saturday. Nebraska has split every series played this year. They dropped a single game to Oklahoma and were leading the Sooners in the second game when it was rained out. The Huskers need a clean sweep in this series to put them back on the road to the conference title.

Have you cast your ballot for your "Miss Fashion Plate of 1949"?

Time is running out! Have you cast your vote for your very own "Miss Fashion Plate of 1949"?

If not, you'd better clip your ballot now! This Revlon contest closes midnight, May 6th.

Here's a review of the prizes! First! The candidate you pick will have a chance at the Grand Prize (one week expense-free trip to New York plus a Revlon make-up course) ... or one of the 9 runner-up prizes ... an opportunity to represent Revlon on campus next fall, plus a year's supply of cosmetics.

Choose your candidate on 4 counts only ... grooming, dress, poise, and personality.

Clip your ballot today! Drop in ballot box in this newspaper office or other locations on campus. There's a panel of beauty authorities all ready and waiting to see if your candidate will be the national Grand Prize winner.

I nominate..... for "MISS FASHION PLATE of 1949," a contest sponsored by the Revlon Products Corporation.

GRAND PRIZE

One week's expense-free trip to New York, plus a training course by REV-LON, plus a chance to become a glamorous model!

Track Squad Off to Drake; Hutton Sick

One of Nebraska's star track performers has been forced to skip the Drake Relays which take place at Des Moines Friday and Saturday. Coach Ed Weir will be without the services of Dick Hutton, veteran sprinter.

Hutton, one of the Husker's three star sprinters, has been ordered by his physicians to skip the relays this week. Dick has been ill the past few weeks with a stomach disorder which slowed him up considerably in the Kansas relays last week-end.

BILL HEIN, Alliance sprinter will take over Hutton's spot on the 440 crew while Don Vollertson, Talmage, will run in the 880 relay event.

Coach Weir left at 1 p. m. Thursday with a squad of 18 men. The shuttle relay team and the sprint medley quartet are the best Husker bets for victories. Dick Piderit also has a good chance to win the javelin throw.

The Nebraska entries:
Shuttle hurdle relay: Alan Thompson, Omaha; Ray Magasmen, Albion; Willis Jones, Minden; Bob Berkshire, Omaha.
Sprint medley relay: Loyal Hurlbert, Ord; Thompson; Harry Meginnis, Lincoln; Harold Kopf, Lexington.
Two-mile relay: Jim Martin, Omaha; Bill Mountford, Red Cloud; Kopf; Hurlbert.
440-yard relays: Fritz Ware, Omaha; Bill Hein, Alliance; Thompson, Meginnis.
120-yard high hurdles: Magasmen, Jones, Berkshire.
100-yard dash: Thompson, Meginnis.
Two-mile run: Eref Aydin, Istanbul, Turkey.
Discus: Wayne Sees, Gordon, and Jim McConnell, Central City.
Shot put: Dick Piderit, Lincoln, and McConnell.
Javelin: Piderit, McConnell and Warren Monson, Clay Center.
High Jump: Dick Melasner, Omaha.

Wednesday

Bill Hemke will interview Sue Bjorklund Gabout the Farmers' Fair on University News in Review at 4:15 on KOLN.

Craft Shop in the Ag Union will be open from 1 to 5 p. m.

HOBE HAYS, veteran infielder, moved to the number two spot in the batting order as Coach Tony Sharpe juggles the line-up in an attempt to produce more hitting power. Hobe drive in three runs in first game with Iowa State to share r.b.i. honors with Bob Cerv.

Horseshoe Lead To Newman Club

The Newman Club took over first place in the Interdenominational Horseshoe tourney with a 7-2 win over the last place Methodists. Ray Menuey boasted three of the Catholic's wins while Joe Young and Paul Versch took two each. The Presbyterian Student House remained in second place with a 6-3 win over the third place Intervarsity.
