AGR Hurler Pitches First No-Hit Game

Brilliant pitching featured Wednesday's softball intramurals. Monson, AGR hurler, pitched the year's first no hit no run contest as the AGR's beat Zeta Beta Tau by a 4-0 score. Monson faced only 19 batters as one ZBT reached first base and this by an error. The AGR chucker struck out ten batters.

S. Nelson of Cornhusker Co-op pitched his team to a two hit, 6-0 victory over Delta Tau Delta. Nelson struck out five and walked two.

DEFENDING champions Alpha Tau Omega kept their record clean with a 14-7 victory over Delta Sigma Phi, while unbeaten Beta Theta Pi ran roughshod over the Acacia's, 27-4. Theta Xi edged the Phi Gams, 4-3 in a thriller.

AIEE scored 4 runs in the bottom of the seventh after ASME

Herbert Reese, Omaha; Michael DiBiase, Omaha; Alfred Johnson, Omaha.

Men who have earned letters for gymnastics are Lloyd Helgeson, Lincoln; Philip Sprague, Beatrice; Al Dunavan, Beatrice; Clarence Lefler, Waverly; Leo Geier, Beatrice; Ken Harding, Auburn.

had pushed across 3 runs in the top of that frame to defeat the Mechanical Engineers, 14-13. The regulation six innings ended in a 10-10 tie.

The Farm House cut loose on Alpha Sigma Phi and ran up a 26-1 victory while Sigma Nu had trouble downing Brown Palace, 7-6. Sigma Phi Epsilon kept in the race by beating the DU's, 12-6 and the Phi Delt's breezed over the Phi Psi's, 10-3.

CHEM E had no trouble in defeating Architecture and rolled up to a 22-6 win, while Pioneer Co-op gave the Sigma Chi's a few anxious moments before losing 6-8. Sigma Alpha Epsilon rounded out the day's schedule with a 7-1 victory over the Tekes.

NEBRASKA LANDLORDS were a step closer to their goal of rent decontrol through the vote of the legislature to permit introduction of a decontrol rent bill. The bill will have the state decree that rent control in Nebraska is no longer necessary.

THOUGH IT was reported yesterday that utility executive Curtis Calder was willing to accept the post of Secretary of the Army, he said late Wednesday that he has not committed himself to accept the appointment.
