

Poor Times, Distances Posted in NU Track Win

Husker trackmen made it two in a row over Missouri Saturday by taking a 70 1/6 to 60 5/6 win in their dual meet. The teams split in indoor competition, Missouri winning a dual meet and Nebraska edging a victory in the Big Seven meet.

Three records were broken despite unfavorable weather which slowed performances in most of the events. Bob Bosworth of Missouri in the day's first running event, smashed the mile record held by Bobby Ginn when he finished in 4:21.4. Bosworth broke the tape scant inches ahead of teammate Bill Chronister.

Harold Kopf set a new mark in the 880, winning all alone in 1:55.8. Jim Martin's kick enabled him to catch Tiger Don Walters 100 yards from the tape and take second place.

Esref Aydin turned in his best performance of the season in the two-mile, the third record-breaking performance. The Turk set the pace all the way, and drew away from Jean Madden on the last lap to win handily.

Nebraska had two double-winners, Dick Pederit and Harry Meginnis. Pederit captured the shot and javelin, the latter swept by Scarlet weightmen. Meginnis nosed out Al Thompson in the 100, and ran away from the field in the furlong in :22 flat.

NU narrowly missed a slam in the high hurdles when Ray Maggsamen was nosed out in the last 20 yards for third place. Bob Berkshire and Willis Jones finished one-two.

Weekend Split, 2-1 and 5-4, Dooms Husker Title Chances

A split with the Oklahoma Sooners baseball crew over the week-end about ruined Nebraska's chances for the Big Seven title.

The Huskers won the first game 2-1, but kicked away a 5-4 decision Saturday to put their season's record at five wins and six losses and virtually eliminate them from further championship consideration.

Big Jim Sandstedt's three-hit pitching and a timely double by Bill Denker which scored two runners sewed up Friday's game. A five-run Sooner sixth, aided by two costly Husker bobbles, insured victory despite some heavy hitting by Nebraska Catcher Tom Novak.

THE FIRST GAME was a tight affair, as Sandstedt and Jack Shirley of Oklahoma tied up in a close pitchers' battle. Nebraska won the game in the third inning. Leadoff batter Fritz Hegwood grounded a single past second, and moved to third ahead of Hobe Hayes' long double to right center.

Third Baseman Bill Denker then stepped up and cracked a line drive to the left center field fence to drive both runners across.

The Oklahomans started a rally in the ninth, but Sandstedt stopped them to end the game.

IN THE SECOND game, a tremendous home run by Novak opened the scoring in the second inning. Another run came in before Sooner pitcher Elton Davis put out the fire.

A brief Husker fielding lapse and some timely Oklahoma hitting put the Sooners in front to stay in the sixth inning.

Nebraska got two runs back in the last of the seventh. Grogan walked to open the inning, then scored on Tom Novak's triple to right center. Novak himself scored as the relay from the outfield sailed over Third Baseman Lewis Eubanks' head.

THE HUSKERS threatened to tie the score in the bottom of the ninth. After Bob Cerv was retired, Grogan slapped a single into left field and took second as the left fielder juggled the ball.

Novak cracked a long fly to deep right center, Grogan taking third after the catch. Pinch-hitter Bill Branson then grounded out to First Baseman Paul Courty to end the game.

Elroy "Lefty" Gloystein was effective for the Huskers until the disastrous sixth. Bob Camp then went in to quell the rally and pitch scoreless ball the rest of the way.
