

New Pep Group Will Occupy Special Section on 50-Yard Line

Three hundred students will be given a chance for 50-yard line seats at football games this year.

Prospective members of the new pep section will register at the Union and the Coliseum, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16 and 17, from 9-12 and 1-4. Tassels and Corn Cobs, members of the upperclass girls' and mens' pep groups, will supervise the booths.

The G section of the stadium will be composed of 150 girls and 150 boys in addition to Tassels,

Cobs, Mortar Boards and Innocents. Members of the new section will represent all organized houses and unaffiliated-at-large students. Organized men's houses will have three representatives;

Tennis
All frosh and varsity tennis men are asked to meet with Bob Slezak at 4 p. m. Friday on the tennis court. In case of bad weather, the meeting will be in the "N" club room.

women's houses will each have five.

Selection
The organized group will be free to select pepsters on its own basis—by volunteers or election. Unaffiliated-at-large students will file for membership. They will be taken in order of application.

To be eligible for membership in the section, girls must be officially registered for 12 hours or more and have a 5 average.

Men must carry 12 hours and have freshman standing. They will be dropped if they receive down slips.

The new pepsters will be required to attend all scheduled rallies and football games, and cooperate in working the card section at the games. Membership will be active throughout the football season. Members may be dropped from the group if they do not cooperate or if they have more than two excused or one unexcused absence.

Vacancies.
If a member is dropped, the vacancy will be filled by the group to which he belongs. In the case of an unaffiliated-at-large vacancy, the next applicant in line will come into the section. Outgoing and in-coming members will exchange tickets.

Supervision of the pep section will be by active Tassels and Cobs.

A mass meeting of the new pepsters will be held Wednesday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom. Tassels, Cobs and cheerleaders will be on hand to explain activities. Mimeographed songs and yells will be distributed, and the yell squad will practice them with the new group.

The new members will be required to bring their ID cards and money for football tickets to the mass meeting. Student tickets are priced at $7.20. Pepsters are also

Three Husker Foes Rank With Best In The Nation

Three of Nebraska's gridiron foes in the 1949 campaign rank high in national college circles. Penn State, Minnesota and Oklahoma are expected to finish in the top fifteen teams in the nation.

Midwestern teams are rated higher than those in other sections as the season opens draw near. Michigan and Notre Dame head the list for the third consecutive season. Both boast veterans at all positions from their 1948 clubs. The Wolverines will bank on the passing of Ortmann and the running of Teninga, while the Irish have Emil "Red" Sitko, All-American halfback carrying the load.

Falling behind Michigan in the Big Ten race come the Gophers of Minnesota and Ohio State. The Gophers should present the biggest obstacle, boasting a line which should average over 220 pounds. Even second place behind Michigan would gain a Rose Bowl trip according to the contract between the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conferences.

In the East Army and Cornell are the teams to fear. Army, with a pair of sensational backs, Arnold Galiffa and Gil Stephenson, faces a rough schedule. The Cadets will meet such teams as Michigan, Penn State (a darkhorse), Harvard and Navy. Cornell has almost a complete squad returning and shows possibilities of returning to their high pre-war standing.

Across the Southlands a pair of one-man gangs lead the way. Southern Methodist and North Carolina should retain their conference laurels easily. Both have their attacks built around one man. SMU sports triple-threat-er Doak Walker, and the Tarheels Charlie "Choo-Choo" Justice.

Oklahoma, rated in the top three nationally by many experts, should stand head and shoulders above the field in the Midlands. The Sooners only great loss was Quarterback Jack Mitchell from last season's Big Seven champions.

The Pacific Coast's representative in the bowl game at Pasadena should be Southern California, although California, strong without Jensen, and Stanford may surprise.

Wilkinson Wails; Mitchell Missing

Coach Bud Wilkinson of the Oklahoma Sooners is putting all his new quarterback prospects into action these days as he vainly searches for a successor to Jack Mitchell, last season's All-American quarterback.

Mitchell led Wilkinson's men to Big Seven and Sugar Bowl champions. Under his direction the Sooners averaged 297.4 net yards rushing per game. This total ranked fifth in the nation.

Last year Mitchell was regarded as the most dangerous punt runbacks as well as one of the greatest rushers from the T-formation in the nation. Mitchell led the Big Seven in rushing in 1947 when he netted 1,455 yards.

Claude Arnold, Darrell Royal, Frank Silva, Bob Ewbank, and Joe Cunningham have been taking daily turns running the Sooner split T-formation.

Arnold and Royal are the best forward passers. Royal is the probable nominee for the starting quarterback slot when the Sooners journey to Boston College for their initial game of the 1949 season.

Ag Men's Club

Ag men's club will hold its first regular meeting of the first semester Thursday, Sept. 15th, Charley Forck announced Tuesday. The meeting will begin at 7 p. m. in the Ag Student Union.
