Call Issued for Pep Group Mass Meeting

Band Representative to Tell Workings of Card Section

Cheerleaders, a band representative and guest speakers will greet new members of the men's and women's pep groups at their first mass meeting in the Union ballroom Wednesday at 7:30.

Two hundred and sixty new pep squad members will hear Jerry Morris, representative of band fraternity Gamma Lambda explain the workings of the card section in which the members will be seated.

Clark to Speak

Also on the program is Patsy Clark, athletic director, and Col. Frankfurter, Corn Cob sponsor. Cheerleaders will lead the group in yells and songs, and the new pepsters will receive mimeographed copies of all school songs.

Dress regulations for the new groups will also be explained at the mass meeting. Plans call for men to wear red sweaters with white emblems, and women to wear white sweaters with red emblems.

Activity Tickets

New pep squad members should bring their I.D. cards and $7.20 to the meeting for their activity tickets. Those members who have already purchased their tickets may bring their tickets to the meeting and they will be exchanged for places in the pep section.

A card section rehearsal will be held in the Stadium Friday at 5 p.m. Further instructions on the card section will be given and members will receive their membership cards and activity tickets.

Pep Rallies

Members of the pep squads will attend all games and pep rallies held before each game.

Free cokes will be served at the mass meeting. Entertainment for the meeting is under the direction of Jack DeWulf.

New independent members of the pep groups are listed below. Since those in houses already know that they are members of the groups they are not listed here.

Nineteen Groups to Elect Student Council Members

AG YM-YW Holds Annual Retreat

The Ag YM-YW held their annual retreat earlier this week, according to Stan Lambert, president of the Ag YM.

The meeting which was held on lower Ag campus consisted of and organization and planning program, recreation and a worship service, Lambert stated.

Evelyn Young was in charge of the worship service.

The entire cabinets of the two organizations were present for the meeting and plans for the welcome mixer for Ag students were completed. A picnic supper completed the retreat.

Builders Board Names Two as Replacements

Changes in University of Nebraska Builders board were announced today by Jeannie Sampson, group president.

Dick Kuska and Chuck Burmeister have been named to the board as replacements for students not returning to school. Both were named alternates to the board last spring.

Kuska will serve as editor of Scarlet and Cream, the Builders' monthly newspaper to high school students. Burmeister will act as the organization's office manager.

M. J. Melick, formerly editor of Scarlet and Cream, will direct activities of the Builders' New Projects committee. She replaces Jim Williams, who did not return to school.

Other board members who are not on the campus this fall are Jo Frederickson and Virginia Soltow, who served as Art and Publicity chairman and Office Manager, respectively.

The Art and Publicity committee will now be directed by Phyllis Campbell, in addition to her Membership and Mass Meetings work.

Art Students Win Exhibit Honors

Five University students have won places in the annual collegiate art exhibit being held under the auspices of the Addison Gallery of American Art at Andover, Mass.

The winners and their work are: Roger Crossgrove, an oil titled, "Building and Cars"; Winona Crossgrove, an oil titled, "Milk Depot"; Donald Ellis, a gouache titled, "Junction Store"; Roland Mills, an etching titled, "Crucifixion," and James Henkle, a water color, "Quebec Hotel."

Henkle took part in a round table discussion of student art held at Andover on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 15-17.

Howard Outlines Procedure For '49-'50 Governing Body

Student Council representatives from 19 campus organizations must be elected by Friday, Sept. 30.

Roswell Howard, president of the 1949-'50 student governing body, made that announcement today.

Formation of the Council is expected to be completed by that date, said Howard. First meeting of the group will be an informal dinner Monday, Oct. 3.

Nineteen Groups

The nineteen organizations who have been authorized to elect one of their membership to the Council are: YMCA, YWCA, Builders, Coed Counselors, Mortar Board, Innocents, Panhellenic council, Interfraternity council, BABW, ISA, Religious Welfare council, Publications (Daily Nebraskan, Cornhusker, Corn Shucks), Law association, Ag Exec board, Engineering Exec board, Corn Cobs, Tassels, N-Club, and Cosmopolitan club.

Howard

McDill

The groups have been directed in writing by Howard to choose their representatives through a vote of the entire membership. It must be both written and secret, at a publicly announced meeting.

Juniors Only

Representatives to the Council must be juniors in any college, with free time between 4 and 6 p.m. on Wednesdays, when the Council will meet. They should be "actively interested in student government," commented Howard. They must be members of the group from which they are elected.

Innocents and Mortar Boards will, of course, send senior representatives to the Council.

Deadlines

Results of organization's election should be turned in to Howard by 5 p.m. Friday, Sept. 30, in the Council office, 305 Union.

Any omitted organization which feels that it should be represented on the council is asked to submit a letter to the committee giving reasons why it should be represented. Letters should be sent to Curtis M. Elliot, Social Sciences, 313 B. Decision as to whether the organization should be allowed representation will be made by the Council at an early meeting. Chancellor Gustavson will speak to all new Council members at the October 3 meeting. Miss Mary Mielenz and Dr. Curtis Elliot, faculty sponsors of the group, will be introduced. Greetings and

1000 Students File for Late Registration

Nearly 1000 students filed for late registration and drop and add procedure Monday and final steps should be near completion Tuesday evening according to Dr. F. W. Hoover, assistant registrar.

For those students who have not yet begun their drop and add procedures, the following three steps are required. Procedure blanks should be filled out and signed by the student's advisor and approved by the dean of the college, or, in the case of Junior Division students, by Warren G. Baller.

The student may then pick up his registration ticket in the lobby of Love Library. This ticket reserves the student's place in the registration line. Numbers are posted on blackboards near temporary building B.

If a student must drop or add a course at any time after Tuesday night, he must first receive the approval of his advisor. The remainder of the procedure will be taken care of in the registrar's office.

Block and Bridle to Hold Reorganization Meeting

Block and Bridle, honorary animal husbandry club, will hold its first meeting Wednesday, Sept. 21, according to Wilbur Pauley, president.

The meeting will be in room 208 of the Animal Husbandry building beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The program will include reorganization and a discussion of the possibility of holding the Junior Ak-Sar-Ben Livestock Show in connection with organized agriculture.

Ex NU Prof Named Dean Of Pittsburgh Law School

A former University professor of law, Charles B. Nutting, is the new dean of the College of Law at the University of Pittsburgh.

Nutting, a graduate of the University of Iowa and Harvard University, came to Nebraska in 1933 and served as a Law college member through 1945. He was made vice dean of law at Pittsburgh in 1946.

Honorary Producer Plans Disclosed

Encouraged by the success of last year's program, the University Theatre will again sponsor an Honorary Producer campaign for the 1949-50 season.

"We were very pleased by the showing made by the organization and the fine spirit of competition developed in support of your University Theatre," Mrs. M. Denton, business manager said.

Selections are made on the basis of the largest number of season theatre tickets sold in proportion to the membership of the organization. Two organizations, Sigma Kappa and Zeta Beta Tau, were selected as last year's winners. Margy Zellers and Byran Krasne were chosen as Honorary Producers from the respective winning houses.

Same Plan

Continuing with the same plan this year, the Honorary Producers will be presented with a trophy to be kept during the 1949-50 school year and the 1950 rush week. A 16 by 22-inch black and white portrait of each representative of the winning house will be displayed in the theatre lobby and in the Union.

At all opening nights, special reserved seats will be held for the representatives. Formal presentation of the Honorary Producers will take place in the Nebraska Theatre on the opening night of "Faust", Oct. 31. All productions will be staged for this year in the Nebraska Theatre.

University Theatre literature will be sent to all leading colleges and universities in the nation mentioning the winning organization. Local papers are expected to publicize the winners throughout the year.

Social Organizations

The University Theatre stresses the fact that all social organizations such as the Cosmopolitan club and the Towne Club are eligible to be represented in the contest. Last year only fraternities and sororities were eligible.

Organization presidents are urged to return cards sent by the theatre so as to enable the Theatre to explain the details.

Rules for the Honorary Producer Campaign are as follows:

1. Dates of campaign are Sept. 19 to Oct. 1 at 12 a. m.

2. The selection of the Honorary Producers will be determined by the number of tickets sold in proportion to the number of members in each social organization.

3. At the close of the campaign all ticket sales will be computed and the choice of Honorary Producer determined by the University Theater Board. Their decision will be final.

4. Each social organization is to select one candidate.

5. Each social organization will appoint its own campaign manager for ticket sales.

6. The names of all candidates and campaign managers must be filed with the Business Manager of the University Theater and not later than Friday, Sept. 23.

7. Each group is issued a block of tickets at the outset of the campaign.

8. All tickets and money must be turned in not later than Saturday, Oct. 1, at 12 a. m. Any late tickets will not be counted.

9. Ticket sales are not restricted to members within the organization; they can be sold anywhere and to anybody.

10. Be sure to inform any one in your organization who will be selling season tickets that these must be exchanged at the Box Office of the University Theater for seat reservations. These tickets are not reservations.

11. If a house has a Kosmet Klub worker, the worker will be selling for himself and his house.
