

The Daily Nebraskan

Member
Intercollegiate Press
FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as an expression of student news and opinions only. According to article II of the By-Laws governing student publications and administered by the Board of Publications: "It is the declared policy of the Board that publications under its jurisdiction shall be free from editorial censorship on the part of the Board, or on the part of any member of the faculty of the university; but members of the staff of The Daily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say or do or cause to be printed." Subscription rates are $2.00 per semester, $2.50 per semester mailed, or $3.00 for the college year, $4.00 mailed. Single copy 5c. Published daily during the school year except Mondays and Saturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Publication Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized September 10, 1922.

EDITORIAL
Editor	Cub Clem
Managing Editors	Fritz Simpson, Sussie Reed
News Editors	Gene Berg, Bruce Kennedy, Norma Chubbuck, Jerry Ewing, Poochie Rediger
Sports Editor	Jerry Warren
Feature Editor	Ruth Ann Sandstedt
Ag Editor	Arten Beam
Society Editor	Jean Fenster
Photographer	Hank Lammers
BUSINESS
Business Manager	Keith O'Bannon
Circulation Manager	Wendy Gauer
Assistant Business Managers	Ted Randolph, Jack Cohen, Chuck Burmeister
Night News Editor	Gene Berg

Three Cheers . . .

For the new pep group. The University of Nebraska, never in the past decade noted for outstanding student spirit, will boast a new cheering section for the home football opener with South Dakota Saturday.

A new pep group, composed of about 300 students, will have seats on the 50-yard line. These students met Wednesday night in the Union ballroom to practice cheers, songs and card routines.

From their central location in the east stadium, they are expected to radiate organized cheering to the entire student body. Along with other students groups, such as Innocents, Mortar Boards, Corn Cobs and Tassels, they will form the nucleus of spirit at all home football games.

Since organized cheering is something NU has long needed, we congratulate the five Cobs who formulated the plans. The new system should have the support of all students—and the football team certainly deserves such support.

Cub Clem.

Your Church

Campus Chapel Baptist

Friday, Sept. 23, following the pep rally a "progressive party" will be held at the following churches: First, Temple, Second, and Sheridan Blvd.

Sunday, Sept. 25, 5:30 p. m. a student fellowship meeting will be held in the Student house. Supper followed by discussion.

Sunday, Sept. 25, 11 a. m. morning worship, "The Grammar of God." Minister will be Rev. Rex H. Knowles, Presbyterian University pastor. The Chapel service is interdenominational. Emmanuel church at 15th and U, opposite the Boys' dorm.

Catholic

Friday, Sept. 23, a "Welcome Party" will be held in the Union ballroom.

Christian

Friday, Sept. 23, All-University Church party for Christian church students begins at 8:00 at Cotner house, 1237 R Street. The party will progress from there, so bring a car if you have one.

Sunday, Sept. 25, 4:45 p. m. Christian Student fellowship meets at First Christian church, 16th and K. Sunday evening snack, recreation, discussion, and worship. Dean Roy Green of the Department of Engineering will speak on "Does Being Christian Make a Difference in Your Vocation?" Special Vesper service prepared by Ginger Samuelson and Shirley McClain.

Wednesday, Sept. 28, 4 until 5:30 p. m. "Friendly" at Cotner house.

Episcopal

Friday, Sept. 23, 8-11 p. m. "Millionaire's Party" will be held in the Canterbury Club room.

Sunday, Sept. 25, 9 a. m. Holy Communion followed by breakfast in the club rooms. At 11 a. m. Choral Eucharist and sermon in the University chapel. At 5 p. m. Canterbury Club picnic. Meet in club room.

Wednesday, Sept. 28, 7 a. m., Holy Communion and breakfast, University chapel. 7:15 p. m. Club room.

Dean 17 Years.

Dean Oldfather has been Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences for 17 years. He has been teaching at the University of Nebraska since 1926.

As to administration, the Arts and Sciences college was the first on the campus to use an Executive committee. This committee assists the Dean in administration, passes on qualifications of new faculty members and promotions of faculty members and cooperates with the Dean in making up the budget. Elected by the faculty, the committee includes four members, not more than two being chairmen of departments and one below the rank of professor, who serve a term of four years. Dr. M. A. Basoco, Dr. D. W. Dysinger, Dr. C. E. Georgi and Dr. B. G. Carter are the present members of the Executive committee.

Much of the business of the college is carried on by the Course of Study committee. This committee passes on student petitions and takes care of credits, majors, minors and catalog material. It is made up of one representative per department, appointed by the Dean to serve a four year term.

Unitarian

12th and H Sts. Friday: 7:30 p. m. All University Church Night "Get Acquainted" party. Plenty of eats and drinks for everyone. Never a dull moment. Come and get acquainted with your fellow students and have fun.

Sunday: 11 a. m. Regular Sunday service. Rev. Phillip Schug will review Paul Bianshard's book, "American Freedom and Catholic Power." 6 p. m. Channing foundation. College age students will have a waffle supper at the church. This is to be followed

Campus Chatter

By Poochie Rediger

Student enthusiasm is expected to be raised to a high crescendo Friday night when cries of rally, rally ring through the campus. Yell King Frank Piccolo and the yell squad will lead the crowd from the Union at 7 p. m. on down through sorority and fraternity row.

Among the Tassels and Corn Cobs keeping up the spirit will be Bob Rogers, Gordon Pedersen, Jerry Siegel, Marilyn Vingers, Jackie Hoss and Jan Zlomke.

Here's a suggestion to those fellows that want to save on the cash Friday night and have a good time after the rally. Take your date to one of the all-campus church parties for an evening of free entertainment. Whether it's parties or dancing you want, you'll find it.

Then too, there's Rally night at Kings—and rally clothes will be in order. Sure to be seen with the rest of the crowd will be Tom Kokjer and Lois Elwell, Beth Randel and Cub Jesel and Jan Beechler and Thom Snyder.

Plans are in the making for a terrific opening Union party Saturday night—the Frosh Hop. Along with the Innocents and Mortar Boards who will greet the students, several hundred couples are expected. Three bold freshmen and their dates, who will brave the dancing will be Bill Hall and Sue Porter, Jack Fogarty and Jo Hansen, and Pat Wells and Ann Barlow.

Of course, if you're the type that can't get a date (don't be alarmed, there are plenty like you) come stag. It's fundamentally a get-acquainted party for the freshmen, and you might meet your future.

Jerry Johnston, local school teacher, just can't keep away from campus. The KKG house has been holding an attraction for him in the form of Char Holcomb . . . so they say.

Just who freshman Bob Reynolds will escort to the Frosh Hop Saturday remains a secret . . . but the lucky girl will have to keep her eyes open for competition. Bob is known for his competitive spirit in sports, but as for the fairer sex . . . give them a break, Bob.

Hold on to your hats—another pinning:

Bill (Buck) Harris and Shirley Ellbogen (Wyo. U.) Going steady. Fran Robinson and George Lewis.

by bridge and canasta at the parsonage. Instruction will be furnished for those who desire to learn these games.

Lutheran

Fri., Sept. 23, All-University Church Night reception will be held in the Temple, 12th and R, following the rally. There will be mixer games and refreshments.

Sunday, Sept. 25, Lutheran Chapel service at 10:45 a. m. in Room 315, Union. Rev. Erik's sermon will be "Why Are Ye Fearful?"

Jewish

Fri., Sept. 23, 8 p. m., Eve of the Jewish New Year, services will be held at the South Street Temple, 20th and South Streets.

Sat., Sept. 24, 10:30 a. m. services at the Temple. Rabbi Samuel H. Baron announces that services are open to all students. A special University service is planned for Fri., Oct. 14, 8 p. m. Guest speaker will be Chancellor Gustavson; topic will be "The Price of Survival."

Methodist

St. Paul, Fri., Sept. 23, 8 p. m., All-University Church Night party. Sunday, Sept. 25, 9:45 a. m. college class—Prof. Albin T. Anderson, teacher. 11 a. m. sermon "Making Friends With Yourself,"

Meddling With Melick

by M. J.

Editor's note: In less than two semesters as a News Editor of THE DAILY NEBRASKAN, Miss Melick made quite a name for herself last year as an outspoken analyst of the campus political scene. While she is no longer a member of the regular staff, the Editor feels her words still carry enough interest to merit publishing in the student newspaper. Her views do not necessarily concur with the Editor's, and vice-versa; but they are well worth reading.

"Nobody cares about these things except a bunch of radicals," roared an irate member of the late Student Council.

"These things" are, of course, student government goings on and unfortunately this statement is only too true. Our campus seems to delight in presenting an amazingly accurate panorama of our national political scene. It's philosophy, sad but true, is to have politics for the politicians, most of whom are just what our friend of the Student Council labeled them, radicals.

After a brief pause for a tear over the situation we hasten to say that the campus is embarking upon one of the most momentous years in its history. Just exactly twenty years ago a student named David Fellman whom the campus later knew as a poli. sci. prof, played a major role in the revision of the Student Council constitution—the same constitution which was swept away by a faculty decree last spring. This year the body politic of the University is faced with reconstructing for itself a new set of principles to live by.

The newly organized Student Council will lead the way. But it can't go that way alone. Consequently, the campus faces a choice which might just as well be made before the 24 members of the Council beat their heads against the wall of student indifference.

Dr. Frank E. Court. 7 p. m. Wesley fellowship.

Grace, Fri., Sept. 23, 8 p. m., All-University church night party. Sunday, Sept. 25, 9:45 a. m., college class—H. W. Deems, teacher. 11 a. m. sermon, "Count Me In," Dr. Harold C. Sandall. 6:30 p. m., Wesley Fellowship.

Trinity, Friday, Sept. 23, 8 p. m. All-University Church Night party. Sun., Sept. 25, 9:40 a. m., college class, Prof. N. F. Thorpe, teacher. 11 a. m. sermon, "A B C's of Religion," Dr. Theodore Leonard. 7 p. m., Wesley fellowship.

Elm Park, Friday, Sept. 23, 8 p. m., All-University Church Night party. Sunday, Sept. 25, 9:45 a. m., college class, Charles Olsen, teacher. 11 a. m. sermon by Rev. Carl Badar. 6 p. m. Wesley fellowship.

Warren Friday, Sept. 23, 8 p. m. All-University Church Night party. 9:45 a. m. college class, David Sanders, teacher. 11 a. m. sermon, "Thou Allest Here and Here," Rev. Virgil Anderson. 5:30 p. m., Ag Interdenominational picnic, Peter Pan park.

Epworth, Friday, Sept. 23, 8 p. m., All-University Church Night party. Sunday, Sept. 25, 9:45 a. m., college class. 11 a. m., sermon, "The Conquering Church," Rev. John J. Sheaff. 7 p. m., Wesley fellowship.

Presbyterian

Friday, Sept. 23, 8 p. m., University Church Night party. Meet at Presby house. Bring your new friends and wear your old clothes. Everybody welcome! Sunday, Sept. 25, Forum (25c dinner at 5:30 p. m., worship and discussion at 6). Discussion on "The Most Significant Thing at the University" will be led by: Dorothy Borgens, Mary Helen Mallory, Eugenie Sampson, Jan Stratton, Roz Howard, Derald May and Merle Stalder. The evening worship will be directed by Laverna Acker and Jan Nutzman. Everyone welcome. Mon., Sept. 26, 7 a. m. Bible study. Wednesday, Sept. 28, 7 a. m., discussion group.

The choices are (1) to support the Council, not with blind faith but with an intelligently critical attitude or (2) to "let the politicians" do it and abide by their decision—in silence—or (3) to shrug off the entire matter, ignore the course of student government, and complain bitterly about the sad state in which the University finds itself.

Naturally, the first choice is the more preferable. Not because student government is an end in itself. Not because what happens to student self-determination this year, or any other year, is of earth shaking importance. It isn't.

But because we naively presume that a majority of the campus is seeking a higher education to better its status in this old world. Because students go to engineering classes to learn to become engineers and thereby increase their financial potentialities. Students investigate the arts to make each a better occupant of a better world. In order to achieve this end the student must also be a good citizen.

No one would think of attempting to run a drill press without first taking instructions concerning its operation. No one attempts to play a piano without lessons. But everyone seems to think that he can be a good citizen without any practice in the art of government. Voting is more than a matter of marking "x" on a ballot.

The Student Council isn't important. Neither are a host of other campus organizations which occupy student time and thought. But the organization is a matter of prime importance.

Sometimes NU's activity program slips out of focus. It's geared to give the you, the student training for local, national and international affairs.

It's for you and it's up to you. It involves a little thought while walking to class. Two minutes of reading the Rag and another two minutes of talking to a Council representative. And walking into the Union two or three times a year to vote.

That's the story. Your story.

NU Bulletin Board

All "N" Club members meet at the northeast corner of the football field at 1:45 p. m. Saturday for the Spirit Line.

Letter sweaters other than ones earned at the University of Nebraska, are not to be worn on the campus.

Kappa Phi Friendship Tea, Sept. 25, 2:30 to 4:30 at Methodist Student house. All Methodist girls are invited. Actives should wear formals, if possible.

All students on the Men's Dorm waiting list who are still interested in dormitory housing should contact the dorm office immediately.

Students who have not yet picked up their 1949 CORNHUSKERS may do so Monday-Friday between 2 and 4 p. m. in CORNHUSKER office.

Palladian Literary society invites all independent students to their meeting Saturday, 8:30 p. m. room 302 Temple. Feature of the evening will be a discussion on "Are Women Necessary?"

ROTC students may volunteer for ushering at Cornhusker football games at Lincoln. Ushers receive free admission. Those interested see Capt. R. L. Huffaker, Room 207, Armory, as soon as possible.

Presidents of Alpha Kappa Psi, Alpha Sigma Phi, Nu Sigma Nu, Acacia and Delta Sigma Phi please contact Betty Green or Bruce Barton in the Cornhusker office.

Adelphi tea, 2-5 p. m. in Parlor Y of the Union, Sunday.