

'Honorary Producer' Contest Enters Last Lap of Competition

One week remains in the race for "Honorary Producer" as the ticket sales enter the final lap today.

Sponsored by the University Theatre, the "Honorary Producer" campaign selections are made on the basis of the largest number of season tickets sold in proportion to the membership of a social organization.

The winners, a boy and a girl,

NU Dental Alums Plan '49 Reunion

The annual reunion of the Nebraska College of Dentistry Alumni association will be held at the Dental College in Lincoln on September 30 and October 1. More than 200 dentists are expected to attend.

Registration will be Friday morning at the College of Dentistry.

Business Session

The reunion will begin with a business session Friday at 1 p. m. in Love Memorial library auditorium. This will include the election of officers. Following the business meeting, brief professional papers reviewing highlight developments in dentistry during the past year will be presented by Drs. Ferdinand Griess, Ralph Ireland, Donald Keys, and Ray Knapp, all members of the Dental College faculty. This portion of the program will be followed by a question and answer period.

Movies from the Washington Bureau of Standards will be shown discussing experiments with denture base materials. A new film, "It's Your Health," a California State Dental Society production, will be shown.

Banquet Speaker

Friday evening's banquet speaker will be John Curtiss, '14. Mr. Curtiss is Lincoln manager of Consumers Power Company and a member of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association's Executive Committee. His speech, called "Beach Heads," will consist of home stewed philosophy on how to obtain a better world.

At the banquet four members of the association will be honored for outstanding service to Nebraska dentistry. One of the service certificates bears the name of Dr. Fred Webster of Lincoln, former Dental College staff member, not deceased. The others to be honored are: Dr. Griess, Dr. George A. Grubb, former dean and Dr. Harold Schmidt, former staff member now in Germany.

President-elect

Dr. Merritt C. Pedersen, association president, will present the new president, Dr. Leo Beattie of Ainsworth, at the banquet. Dr. Beattie was chosen as president-elect at the 1948 session. A new president-elect will be selected at this year's business session.

Saturday morning will be devoted to clinics at the College Infirmary.

A block of 250 seats has been reserved in the stadium for the members to watch the game. After depositing $5 the members may receive not more than two tickets.

Alumni of the Dental college are urged to attend the reunion.

which will be held at Nebraska this year.

On the campus the unit will sponsor a fire prevention week in October. It will organize a safety council to promote caution on streets and in houses. Books for Europe collections will be continued. A grey lady service at student health will be launched.

First Aid

The unit offers a first aid course at the completion of which a certificate is given. It also sponsors a course in swimming and life-saving.

In the community Red Cross offers occupational therapy and entertainment at Vets Hospital. Other community hospitals use Red Cross workers in their programs.

The motor corps provides transportation for on campus and community functions. Drivers for the corps are specially trained in another Red Cross class. The corps has its own station wagon.

will be presented at the opening night of "Faust" Oct. 31. They will hold this honorary position throughout the year and the house or group which they represent will receive a trophy.

Lower Ticket Price

Season tickets to the University Theatre were lowered to $3.60 for the first time, enabling faculty members and students to see five shows for the price of three. Individual shows will cost $1.20. The Theatre stresses the fact that these season tickets are not reservations. Reserved seats must be picked up at the box office in the Temple building.

The University Theatre feels that some very definite improvements for theatre-goers are offered this year. Already mentioned is the lowering of student season ticket prices. Another is the fact that all this year's plays will be given in the Nebraska Theatre.

Excellent stage facilities in a comfortable theatre point toward an improved year for the Theatre. This year's plays will fall on the first of the week instead of the last.

Five Great Plays

Five challenging plays including the great "Faust" will be presented this year. "Faust" is the story of a man who sells his soul to the devil in exchange for earthly pleasures. Written by Goethe, the play will be given Oct. 31 to Nov. 2.

"The Two Mrs. Carrolls," a story of attempted murder with intense dramatic force, will be presented Dec. 5-7. The third play, "The Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams, is one of the most beautiful and sensitive stories ever told on the American stage. Feb. 20-22 is the date of this play. "Once in a Lifetime," a screwball comedy satirizing Hollywood, will be given on March 27-29. The last play offered is "The School for Scandal," This satire on English manners will be dramatized on May 3-10.

AIEE to Hear Television Expert

"Television in Nebraska," with Orville J. Stone as speaker, will be the topic of the first meeting of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers Wednesday, Sept. 28 at 7:30 p. m. in Love Library auditorium.

Stone is the radio and television sales manager for the General Electric Supply corporation. During the war, Stone did technical work for the government in instruction, radar and radio controlled silent missiles. At the present time he has charge of televising the University football games.

Freshman and sophomores engineering students who are contemplating a course in electrical engineering are invited to attend this meeting. Membership into the organization will be accepted. Refreshments will be served.

ISA Announces Council Openings

Independent Students Association will hold an election to fill three vacancies on the I.S.A. council, according to president Bill Plank.

Nominations are now open for the posts of secretary, social chairman and I.S.A. representative to the Student Council. Tuesday, Sept. 27 at 5 p. m. is the deadline for nominations which should be placed in the I.S.A. box in the basement of the Union.

Requirements for secretary and social chairman include sophomore or above standing, membership in I.S.A. and an average of at least 4.5.

The Student Council post is to be filled by an I.S.A. member of junior standing with at least a 4.5 average.
