Dad's Turn . . .

University students will have an opportunity to honor their fathers Saturday noon at the Day's Day luncheon in the Union.

Ticket sales for this even have been poor. No one can determine why students are not responding. In past years Dad's Day has been whole-heartedly supported by the students. Perhaps students think the Innocents, sponsors of the luncheon, are making a big rake-off from ticket sales. This is not the case, however. Tickets are being sold at cost.

The Innocents and administration felt that reviving the tradition will be a fine thing for students and fathers and that it should definitely become a part of all-University tradition.

An excellent program, which will be short, has been planned. Your dad will enjoy the affair—ask him.

JEAN FENSTER.

Men, nothing but men; That was the situation at the Tri-delt house Monday night when four of the sisterhood passed the candy. New pin-mates are Bob Swaim and Celly Westermark, Carol Younklin and Ed Bruere, Marilyn Clark and Gardi Johnson, and Betty Green and Cozy Kline. What's more, the summer romance between Jo Davidson and Jack Cady is now a steady deal.

The Kappas had four candy passings too, Monday night, for previous pinnings—three of which were Sig Chi's, one a Sig Alpha. Going steady are Jean Clark and Bob Hinds, and Patty Wieland and Ardie Means.

Either somebody's mixed up or Ajon Farber found the Fountain of Youth. According to the lettering on the freshman beanie he wore to the game Saturday, Ajon plans to graduate in 1898.

Living up to Alpha Phi expectations, Guin Damon passed the candy Monday night while pin-mate Howard Dennis dished out cigars. Another DU hung his pin over the weekend, Mimi Smith graduated and teaching in Scottsbluff, is now the proud wearer of Bill Wenk's pin.

Bob Scherer has big plans for himself and his new pine-mate, Jeanette Gunderson of Omaha U. He's started up in business. He's raising two hamsters in his room at the AGR house. At the end of the year, he contemplates a total of a million hamsters, and at his price of $1.00 per animal, he will then be a millionaire! Hmmm. Sounds like some AGR may as well be planning to move out to make room for the hamsters.

Violating all Panhellenic and Interfraternity rules, Clark Noble is now a pledge of both TKE and Sig K. It seems that while out for frosh football, his pledge brothers left him behind on a skip night. Active TKE's thought it would be a good idea for the Sig K's to take care of Clark while they rounded the others up, so they brought him over for dinner, (slightly crippled up after a good struggle). Somehow Clark had some lavender and maroon rib-

Gift of $2000 Will Aid Study of Nuclear Physics

A gift of $2,000 worth of radioactive material and apparatus will now give University students an opportunity to study science's new baby, nuclear physics.

Now located in a brick enclosed vault in the basement of Brace laboratory, the potent gift was made possible by Nathan Gold, "13, a Lincoln merchant.

The money for the complete set-up, including apparatus controlling the photo neutron source and radioactive antimony, was provided a year ago.

Dr. Theodore Jorgensen, Jr., director of its research and chairman of the physics department, had this to say about the contribution: "Mr. Gold's gift will enable us to provide our students with the opportunity to actually handle radioactive materials." He added, "the materials we are using lose their radioactivity quickly so that there will be no chance of the students suffering from radioactive poisoning."

Surrounded by Paraffin
Nothing to play with, the material is suspended in a tube which is buried six feet underground. Above the ground it is surrounded by large blocks of paraffin which are supposed to slow down harmful neutron radiation whenever the touchy substance is drawn out of its crypt.

In addition to this new task, the irradiation work, Dr. Jorgensen recently received a contract from the Atomic Energy Commission for the study of the "range-energy relation of slow ions" a study now of extreme interest to nuclear physicists.

Casting the Council
BY GENE BERG
There are now six men on the new Student Council. Innocents Society and Corn Cobs have added their delegates to the impressive list of representatives already elected by six organizations.

Rodney Lindwall has been instructed to serve as Innocents representative on the governing body. Bob Parker will represent Corn Cobs.

The senior men's honorary elected Lindwall from its thirteen members at its meeting Monday night. Lindwall, president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, is also president of Corn Cobs. He is active in debate contests and organizations. He will be one of the two senior members on the new Council; Merit Boards will also send one of its members to the body.

Parker is a Corn Cob active and a member of Theta Xi fraternity, which he serves as house manager. He is also active in University Band and is a member of Gamma Lambda, band honorary which is currently supervising the football card section. He is a Bizad junior.

In addition to the six male members elected to the 1949-50 Council, there have already been two women students chosen as delegates. They are Norma Chubbuck, BABW, and Shirley Allen, Tassels. Other men are: Robert Raun, Herb Reese, Mayer Moskowitz and Bruce Kennedy.

Eleven groups have yet to name Council delegates.

Coeds Discard Bathing Suits in Beauty Contest

Bathing suits of 1950 are again cut shorter!

This revealing news was announced by the Indiana Daily News, after girls on the Indiana campus voted against a proposed plan to wear bathing suits in the Arbutus Beauty Queen contest. The contest is set for Oct. 26.

Three contest judges have tendered resignations following the announcement.
