F—eams of police making up the rally police escort.

The second rally of the year will be held this Friday night at 7:15, beginning at the Coliseum. The pre-Minnesota spirit boost will include a rally parade made up of Cobs, Tassels, cheerleaders, pep squad members and the Band. The whole procession will be headed by the colorful bursts of roman candles.

A police escort will lead the ralliers from the Coliseum down fraternity and sorority row on 16th St. to 16th and S where the first bursts of spirit will be left off. From there, the students will march to 13th and O, where they will hold the rally. Coach Bill Glassford will be on hand with a pre-game pep talk.

With spotlights and floodlights, blazing during the rally, finally dimmed, ralliers will overwhelm Lincoln streets in a traditional snake dance.

Plans for the rally were made by the Rally committee, including: Jo Lisher and Jane Linn, Tassels; Bob Parker and Wes Kohtz, Corn Cobs; and Frank Piccolo, Yell King.

Fans Say No!, Team Says Yes!

Thousands of sports writers and fans say no. The Huskers say yes.

This is the difference of opinion concerning a Nebraska victory over powerful Minnesota at Memorial Stadium Saturday.

On paper the Gophers have one of the most powerful teams in Minnesota history with a 21 pound advantage over Nebraska in the line. Last Saturday the Golden Gophers proved the dopsters to be right by crushing Washington, 48-20.

Nebraska, on the other hand, is in the rebuilding stage following the disastrous war years. Great things are expected from the Cornhuskers under Bill Glassford's rule, but it will take time.

The underdog seems to be fighting just a little bit harder in most cases as was illustrated by the Huskers against Notre Dame and UCLA in previous years. A good game is promised and an upset may be in the offing.

Nebraska has done it before. In 1902 the Scarlet and Cream upset a good Gopher team enroute to an un-beaten, unscored upon season. This game came in the reign of Coach Bunny Booth, who led the Huskers to 30 consecutive victories.

In other top college games Saturday the Big Seven will be in the spotlight. Missouri hopes to wreck Southern Methodist and Doak Walker's bowl hopes with a repeat of last year's 20-14 victory. Without Bus Entsminger quarterbacking this year, Missouri will be the underdog. Walker, gunning for another All-American year will be too tough for the Tigers.

Union Plans Two Dances Saturday

Don't forget the Union's entertainment to round out your day after the Huskers tangle with the Golden Golfers Saturday. This tip comes from the Union Activities Committee.

A Football Fling will be one main attraction of the Student Union open house after the game from 4:30 to 6 p. m. Students may dance, without charge, in the ballroom. Every one is to "come as you are," regardless of attire, be it jeans or tuxedos. For those whose hungers have been stimulated by a Husker victory, refreshments will be served.

An informal "Victory" Hop, from 9 to 12 p. m., will be held in the ballroom with Fitz Powell and his orchestra furnishing the music. Students are invited to attend either date or stag, the latter case being cited as the opportunity for one to "meet your future mate." Admission will be 60 cents.

Parlors A, B, and C will be open for use of lounges and smokers.

"OH, REALLY!" "No, Oh, Rally!" "Rally? . . . Really?" Yes Really, a rally! . . . Husker students pep a rally parade preceding the South Dakota game last week. Cobs, Tassels, pep squad and band members expect tonight's rally to thunder a cry of "Victory!" across the campus. Lincoln citizens are expected to catch the spirit of the Rally also, as Nebraska students parade to 13th and O for the rally. In the plans, too, is a fast and furious snake dance through the Lincoln streets.

Crowning of "Hello Girl" Highlights Tonight's Dance

One of the twenty independent coeds will be named 1949 "Hello Girl" at the annual Hello Dance sponsored by BABW Friday night.

Voting will take place at the doors of the Union ballroom until 10 p. m. The winner will be presented at 10:30. So that the candidates will be known to all voters, an introduction of each girl will be made at 9:45.

At the same time balloons with the names of contestants in them will be released. Lucky fellows who catch the balloons will have a chance to dance with the girl whose name is in the balloon.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained from an BABW member, in the booth in the Union, or at the door before the dance. Admission price is 50 cents.

The ballroom will be decorated in red and white, with red feathers and crepe paper streamers carrying out the theme.

Since the primary purpose of the dance is to help students "get-acquainted," BABW members wish to stress the fact that the dance is not necessarily a date affair. Ralliers who go to the Minnesota rally are invited to come to the dance in their rally clothes.

Chaperones for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dein and Dr. and Mrs. Meadows.

Rev. S. H. Bean To Address Episcopalians

It will be "North Platte Night" at the Canterbury Club dinner, Sunday, Oct. 2, at 6:00 p. m.

The subject discussed by the speaker, Rev. S. H. Bean, rector of the Church of Our Savior in North Platte, will be "Helps in Forming a Rule of Life."

Anyone wishing to attend the dinner is asked to sign up by noon on Saturday at the Canterbury Club room in the University Episcopal chapel.

Special dinner music will be supplied by a Mu Phi quartet consisting of Eleanor Hanson, Donna Doran, Peggy Vayer and Carol Johnson.

Officers of the Canterbury Club are as follows: president, Charles P. Huestis; vice-president, Phillip J. Hatch; secretary, Sharon Fritzer; treasurer Jim Clinton and corresponding secretary, Jessica Brown.

The faculty sponsors are Fritz Daly, Dr. Clarence Lowe, M. Weldon Frankforter, Kady Faulkner and Dr. William Swindler.

Student Directory Needs Workers

The Student Directory needs you—and lots of people like you.

For work on typing lists and checking names, the Student Directory needs people Friday morning. Work will begin at 8 a. m. in the Builders office. Any number of persons can be used and everyone interested is urged to help.

New Cheers to Boost Gopher Game Spirit

Sure-fire spirit boosters are planned for Saturday's game with Minnesota—a new "Husker" song and two new rousing cheers.

The "Fight, Fight" song will be introduced for the first time at the game Saturday. Copies of the new Husker song hit will be passed out to students prior to the game. They will be expected to join in singing it throughout the game.

The song, which follows below, was written by the members of last year's cheerleading squad on the return trip home from the KU migration.

The song—(words in capitals to be shouted):

"Oh, FIGHT, FIGHT, sons of old NU
As we go to meet the foe;
We'll FIGHT, FIGHT, sons of old NU
As forward, forward, we'll go.
We'll FIGHT, FIGHT, on to victory.
Shaking thunder from the skies;
We're the loyal sons of Huskerland
From dear old Nebraska."

The two new yells for the game were planned by this year's Yell King Frank Piccolo and his squad.

"Charge!" (reminiscent of "Teddy" Roosevelt's lines in "Arsenic and Old Lace") is the theme of the first yell. The cheer is made up merely of that one word. Students stand as the players rush from the huddle and at the kickoff and yell "Charge!" Loud. And that's it.

The second yell is termed "The Sky-Rocket." Instructions for the cheer are:

"Huskers" (drawn out)
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
"Fight, Fight, Fight, Fight!"
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
"Win, Win, Win, Win"
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
"Go, Go, Go, Go"
"Beat" (drawn out)
"Minnesota"

Janike to Head Ak-Sar-Ben Show

Several staff members of the University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service moved to Omaha today for the opening of Ak-Sar-Ben's 4-H show.

They include E. W. Janike, state 4-H club leader, animal Husbandman K. C. Fouts, Dairyman C. W. Nibler, Assistant state 4-H Leaders Wes M. Antes, William C. Smith and Dorothea Holstein, Extension Editor George Round and Clyde Noyes, county agent supervisor.

Mr. Janike is superintendent of the show. Mr. Fouts is superintendent of the baby beef division, Mr. Nibler is head of the dairy show division, and Mr. Noyes is superintendent of the hog show.

The dairy show is scheduled for Friday and Saturday and the baby beef event will start Monday. A new division, the stocker-feeder show, will be held on Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Antes is superintendent of that event.
