

ISA to Open Campaign for New Members

ISA will open its 1949-50 membership campaign Monday with the goal set at 1,000 members, according to Don Flesher, membership chairman.

An organization encouraging social activities for unaffiliated students, the Independent Students association is the only organization of its kind on the campus. It also encourages independent students to participate in extra-curricular activities.

The campaign, which will end Oct. 15, will be climaxed by a dance free to all holders of membership cards.

In addition to the campaign dance, a party or dance is sched-
