Minnesota Beats Huskers 28 to 6

Changes Go Into Effect Immediately

Nebraska 11 Surprising In Close Tilt

One of the hardest-fighting Husker teams since Rose Bowl times met defeat, 28-6, at the hands of Minnesota at Memorial Stadium Saturday.

Nearly 36,000 satisfied fans saw Nebraska hold the powerful Gophers scoreless in the first and fourth quarters.

Minnesota's line was one of the best in history and probably the best Nebraska will meet this year, but the team as a whole didn't look like prospective Big Ten champions.

Husker Line Tough

The Gophers gained a total of 249 yards by rushing, but a tough Cornhusker line anchored by Charlie Toogood and backed up by Tom Novak and Walt Spellman held them to 7 first downs on the ground.

In the air, Nebraska held the advantage. Field general Fran Nagle proved to the fans that he could do it. He completed 12 passes out of 21 and had three called back because of penalties. One of the aeriels that was in vain was a 35-yard toss to Dick Regier, which carried deep into Gopher territory. The penalty forced Gerry Ferguson to punt. Three plays after Minnesota took the ball on the Nebraska 42, Dave Skrien ran 29 yards for a touchdown.

March 80 Yards to Score

The lone Cornhusker score came after five minutes had elapsed in the third quarter. Thirteen well-chosen plays carried the Huskers 80 yards for a touchdown.

It was Nagle all the way. He passed complete four times and added a quarterback sneak for an important first down. The passes went like this: Nagle to Miller for 20 yards, Nagle to Magsamen for nine yards, Nagle to Bloom for 19 yards, and Nagle again to Damkroger for eight yards and the score.

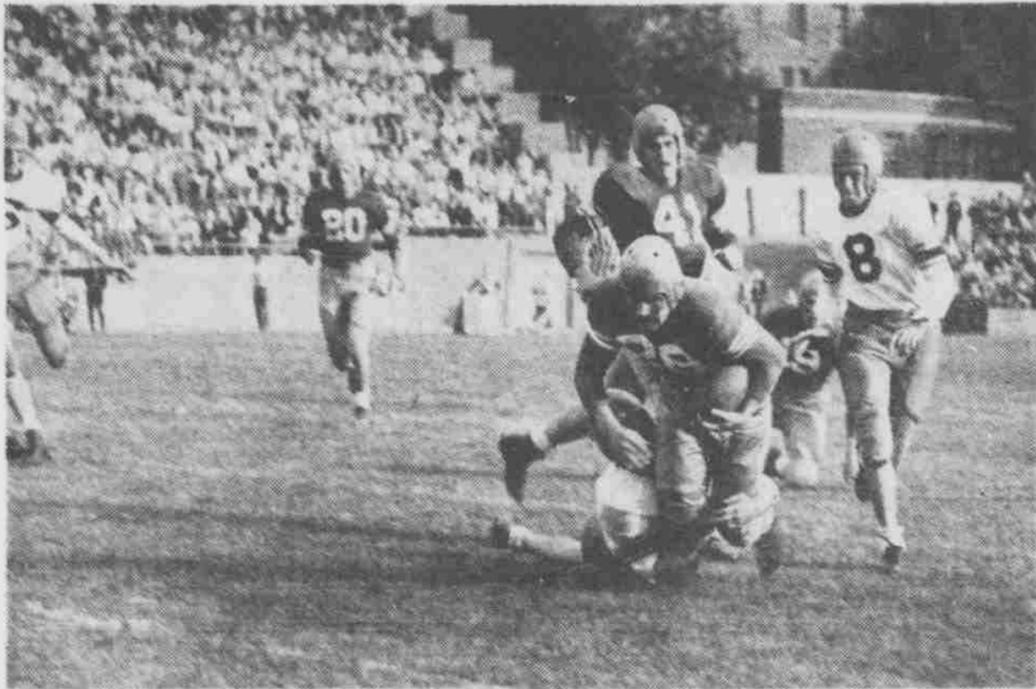

Gophers Pass for Initial Score

Minnesota scored first in the second period on a Bill Bye to Soltau pass that covered 18 yds. Those two names popped up quite often in the course of the afternoon. Soltau Gordon scored one touchdown, kicked four extra points, and kicked off each time for the Gophers. Bye was the main Minnesota runner, kicker, and passer.

Bye accounted for the second Minnesota TD of that stanza. His 30-yard run carried the ball to the Husker 13 yard-line, and on the next play he passed to Dale Warner for the score.

THREE YARDS FOR THE HUSKERS—Nick Adduci, Nebraska fullback, is brought down by an unidentified Gopher lineman after advancing the ball three yards. Charley Toogood (41) and Minnesota's Bob Thompson (8) follow the play.

Complete revision of the faculty-administration committees dealing with student affairs was announced Thursday by Dr. T. J. Thompson, dean of Student Affairs.

Adopted by the University Senate, faculty government group, the revision includes a provision that the changes will go into effect at the opening of school this fall.

The Senate abolished two committees; the Committee on Student Organizations and Social Functions and the Board of Student Publications.

Committee on Student Affairs

In their place, one new group was established; the Committee on Student Affairs.

Dean Thompson termed this change "an improvement on the efficiency and harmony of student and faculty-administration relations."

Membership of the committee will be determined as follows:

The committee shall consist of twelve appointed members from the faculty each to serve for a six year term. Six of these members shall be representatives of student organizations and their ex-officio members—the Dean of Student Affairs, college chairman, the Dean of Women and the Director of Commercial Activities.

Each student organization to be represented shall select a person from among the faculty to participate as an advisor in the operation of that organization, and to serve as a member of the Student Affairs committee.

Faculty Representation

Each of the following organizations shall be entitled to representation by one faculty member: the Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic association, Barb council, and Associated Women Students. The Student Council shall be represented by one man and one woman from the faculty.

The members shall be assigned by the general chairman to serve in groups of five for the sub-committee hereinafter provided.

The Student Council shall provide for the election of a student from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes to serve on the sub-committee for Student Publications. The Dean of Student Affairs shall be a voting member of this group.

General Committee

In defining the duties of the Committee, the Senate stated:

"The general committee shall recommend all general policies including eligibility in reference to any activity under its jurisdiction, and after approval by the Senate, prescribe such rules necessary to effectuate those policies."

"All appeals involving University attendance and eligibility, requirements for student activities and appeals from actions of administrators or sub-committees, listed herein, shall be heard by the general committee."

Sub-Committees

The Committee shall be divided into three sub-committees: Social Affairs, Student Publications and General Organization. These committee functions are:

1. Sub-committee on Social Affairs—Permission for the operation and conduct of any social function by any University organization or by any student acting in the name of a University organization shall be granted by the Dean of Women or her representative. Unusual cases or cases not covered by established rules may be referred to this sub-committee for original action.

2. The sub-committee on Student Publications shall authorize the existence and operations of student publications issued or sold on the campuses and shall pre-

Hattie Mann 1949 'Hello Girl'

Hattie Mae Mann was revealed Friday night as the 1949 BABW Hello Girl.

Elected by a near record crowd at the annual Hello dance, Miss Mann was presented at intermission time. She was presented by last year's Hello Girl, Jean Blaha. Both Miss Mann and Miss Blaha are residents of the Women's Residence Halls.

Tassel Member

A native of Boelus, Neb., Miss Mann is a Teachers college sophomore. She is also a member of Tassels, Coed Counselors and Kappa Phi. Being a social chairman of the Dorm also takes up some of Miss Mann's time.

She was chosen from twenty candidates selected by independent women's organizations on campus. Ballots were given to those attending the dance at the door.

Balloon Dance

One of the highlights of the dance was a balloon dance. Red balloons were released which contained the names of the Hello Girl candidates. Fellows who were lucky enough to catch a balloon danced with the girl whose name was in the balloon.

Football Theme

As part of a football theme of the party, the Union ballroom was decorated with red and white crepe paper streamers, balloons and red feathers. The Hello Girl stepped from a frame covered with red and white paper. She was presented with an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The dance was sponsored by the Barb Activities Board for Women.

Student Council Dinner Postponed

Ros Howard announced Saturday that the dinner which had been planned for the nineteen new Student Council members for this evening has been canceled.

Howard said that because Chancellor Gustavson has been called out of town unexpectedly, the dinner will be held at a later date. The Chancellor was to have been the main speaker at the dinner.

The first meeting of the Council will be held in the Council office, 305 Union, Wednesday at 4 p.m.

SEASONS FIRST QUEEN—Hattie Mann became the first queen of the 1949-50 school year Friday when she was revealed as the "Hello Girl" at the annual BABW dance. She was presented with an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses by last year's "Hello Girl," Jean Blaha. A resident of the Womens Dorm, Miss Mann is a sophomore in Teachers college. She was elected by a near record crowd which attended the Hello dance in the Union ballroom. Selection was made from twenty candidates nominated by independent womens organizations.

Union Committee Names Members

Members of the Union Hobby and Game committee were named at a meeting of that group Thursday night.

The Hobby sub-committee includes: Wendell Gauger (chairman), June Fidler (secretary), John Maher, Delaine Bishop, Roger Metcalf. The Game sub-committee members are D. L. Slusher, Barbara McElwain, and Harold Roselina.

This committee is designed to promote all hobby interests of University students and to sponsor ping-pong tournaments, bridge tournaments and other games in the Union.

Radio Department Adds Jorgensen

If you've seen a new face around the radio department lately it is probably that of Erling Jorgensen, new member of the radio staff.

Erling received his B.A. at the University of Wisconsin. While at the University of Wisconsin he taught as a graduate assistant. His radio experience includes two and a half years of commercial radio and three years of non-commercial experience.

During the war he served with the Armed Forces Radio Service in Berlin for a year. While there he served as chief of special events, which included interviews with Eleanor Roosevelt, General Lucias Clay and Marshall Zhukov.

Courses Dropped Or Flunks Given

Any students wishing to drop a course for which he is already registered is required to go through the drop procedure in the Registrar's office, F. W. Hoover, assistant registrar, said recently.

"It is not enough for students who wish to drop a course simply to stay away from it for the rest of the semester. If the student's name remains upon the roster he is certain to receive a grade of some kind or another at the end of the semester," Dr. Hoover said.

If a student does not attend class, the usual grade given is an uncompromising and unqualified flunk. The only way a name can be dropped from the class roll is by initiating the procedure at the Registrar's office in the Administration building.
