

Return of Nagle Boosts NU Hopes

Nebraska's prospects for a victory over the Nittany Lions Saturday took a definite turn for the better with the return of the Husker's ace passer and quarterback Fran Nagle to the lineup.

Monday, Coach Bill Glassford did not know whether or not he would be able to use Nagle, who had his left hand injured when it was stepped on in the K-State game, against the Lions; but late Tuesday night, X-rays revealed that his hand was all right and the swelling and receded.

Nagle, able to workout Tuesday as were Tom Novak, Fred Hawkins, Walt Spellman, Charlie Toogood, Dick Goeglein, Darwin Salestrom, Bill Mueller, Jerry Ferguson, and Don Bloom who were bruised in the Wildcat fracas.

Penn State, boasting a .333 average in three games, are definitely much better than their record shows. Villanova, the team that first downed the Lions, 32-14, is rated by the AP in 17th place nationally.

Army Romped.
Army, who completely mutilated the Lions 32-7, is the second rated team in the nation and only 29 points behind the Fighting Irish. Boston College, the other team on the Penn State schedule, is the only team that has not gained national recognition.

Even though Penn State has won only one game so far this season, they have averaged 205 yards per game. Altogether, they have gained a total of 615 yards on 196 plays for a 3.2 yard gain each time they went from scrimmage.

Good Air Attack.
More outstanding is the Lions' air attack, having gone for 222 yards in their three games. Attempting 36 passes, Penn State passers have completed 15 for a 42% completion average.

As far as defense goes, Penn has given up an average of 310 yards per game, but the powerful machines of Army and Villanova added the most yardage. Their pass defense has given up only 116.6 yds. per game and they have knocked down 34 of the 51 pass attempts of the opponents.

Penn State scout Patrick has already warned the Nittany Lions of the deadly accuracy of Nagle's passing eye and a good pass defense is in store for the Huskers.

Bill Luther, Penn State's answer to Nagle, has completed 7 out of 13, including three touchdown passes. Vince O'Bara has hit 5 out of 9, one being a six point counter. O'Bara is an excellent punter, having an average of 45.3 yards. Luther, who has punted 13 times with one of them being blocked, has a 35 yd. average.

Undoubtedly, Coach Bedenk will use Luther for most of his punting chores, but O'Bara will probably take on his share.

Fumbles, Lion's Meat
The Lions are especially adept in recovering fumbles, recovering six of the seven 'enemy' miscues. They, on the other hand, have lost only three out of ten. From the way the Huskers have been 'hogging' the ball, it looks like their fumble recovery average will suffer.

Penn State has scored five of their seven touchdowns via the air lanes. The other two were made by "Stampeding" Vince O'Bara who bulled his way over the line twice—once for three yards and the other going four yards.

O'Bara is Penn State's top offensive man as well as their leading scorer. The triple-threatener connected with a 24 yard pass to Smidansky for a counter against Boston College and then hit Storer with a short dunk pass for another TD.

Luther has completed two six yard spot passes for counters—one against mighty Army and the other against Boston College.

TKE Cops 1st Game of Year

The TKE's, with Thomas carrying the mail across for the only score, won their first game of the season Tuesday, 6-0. The game was an evenly played affair until an intercepted pass set up the touchdown, stopping the Delta Sigs.

In other games Newman Club white washed the Presby House 6-0, while Inter-Varsity was turning the same trick against Cotner House.

The biggest score of the evening was turned in by a flashy Brown Palace team who rolled up 13 points to the Delta Chi's 0. Looking at the low scores, Student Union squeezed by Burt's Boarding House 1-0.

In the final encounter the Lillie's-V-5's pushed the ball over for one touchdown and for the extra point to hand the Wheels a 7-0 defeat.

Leading Lion rusher—Francis Rogel, 200 pound fullback, leads the Nittany Lion rushing offense with 159 yards gained in 48 plays through scrimmage.

IM Volley Ball Next on Agends

The next sport on the intramural agenda will be volley ball. Regular play will begin October 31 and the deadline for entries is October 21 at 5 p. m.

The leagues will be set up in round-robin style with each match consisting of three games. Percentage standings will be computed by matches won and lost. If enough teams enter, these three leagues will again be organized: Interfraternity, Interdenominational, and Independents.

An entry fee of $2.00 must accompany each roster. The teams may practice on October 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 at 5 p. m. by reserving practice courts at Room 102 Physical Education building.

Fraternity and denominational champions will receive a trophy and the independent champions will get medals.

College Plays 'On the Road'

Twelve colleges in eastern Pennsylvania have banded together to form something new in the theater, an intercollegiate theatrical organization. Object, to exchange productions among colleges and to produce them as if they were "on the road."

Another aim is to encourage original ideas in play-writing by producing plays written by college students who submit good manuscripts.

Trackmen Ready For League Duel

University of Nebraska track men are completing work in preparation for meeting Colorado University cindermen in a cross country race to be held in Memorial Stadium on Saturday, October 15 at 11 a. m.

The runners who will represent the Huskers against the Buffaloes will be selected from the following list which includes their time for the two-mile run.

- Ken Jacobs, 10:43.5
- Gene Yelkin, 10:43
- Ezref Aydin, 5:01 (one mile)
- Harold Kopf, didn't finish
- Bob Reese, 10:45
- Dean Barnell, 10:43.5
- Lee Moore, didn't run
- Eugene Robinson, 11:01.5
- Blaine Runner, 10:45

Coach Ed Weir also stated that he is well pleased with the turnout of hurdlers for the fall practice. The main worry is the lack of likely prospects to handle the weights department.

Degree System Revised

Majors and minors have been substituted by "fields of concentration" at the University of Nevada. Under this new system a student will institute a 50-hour concentration in his chosen field of interest.

Requirements of 6 hours in humanities and 10 hours in science and social studies must be met by all students, regardless of their fields.

The new program will work two ways. A student may choose one field, or he may have two, provided that 50 hours are spent on one field and that his second choice is related to the first.

Largest IM Net Tournney Finds Upsets

The largest intramural tennis tournament of NU history rolled into its second round Tuesday.

Upsets of seeded men were the order of the day. Tom Brownlee eliminated seeded Lee Magee 6-4, 6-4, as George Peters turned aside third seeded man Jim Wells 6-1, 3-6, 6-3. Don Bohmont, fourth seeded, suffered a 6-4, 7-5 match from Bob Allen.

Only one major upset showed in the doubles. Buntzen and Svoboda defeated Jensen and Baehr 7-5, 6-4.
