Nice Goin' . . .

Nobody deserves The Daily Nebraskan "Man of the Week" honor any more than those enthusiastic students who saw the team off to Penn State Thursday morning.

So we'll divide up the praises this week among those who know how much a little backing means to our football squad. The rally was a real show of spirit. Anybody who gets up at the crack of dawn to give our team the support they deserve shows that he has the spirit which has been so lacking up to now.

And we hope that this is just the beginning . . . the beginning of an all-out effort to stand by the men who are bringing fame to Nebraska.

Susie Reed.

Well Modulated

Hang on to your hats, kids. Your old uncle is about to give out with a lecture. The reason? Well this Thursday, Authors of the Ages is presenting Anton Chekov's "The Boor." The program comes on at 9:30 over KFOR. Part of the prologue tells that it is a comedy written in the 1880's by a Chekov who never heard of Marx, Lenin, and Stalin. We were thinking how much better off a lot of people would be if they'd never have heard of them.

In just the same way that you always find one roughneck in a crowd, there always seems to be one or two characters in the world who won't let things alone.

Catch Simon's show next Monday at 10:30 p. m. on KFOR. For the benefit of those who missed it last week a few minutes of gossip, shame on me, has been incorporated.

Babs Rayburn and Bob Vollmer have a show entitled "A Boy a Girl and a Song." It will be aired as soon as time is allotted by KIMS. Bob plays piano and accompanies Babs who sings. Both of them have a lot of talent and ability and it makes very nice listening.

Subtly overheard at a party: A well known "smooth" boy was trying to make time with a very sharp dolly. To his, "Sounds like you've been around." She replied "Well, I've been a-broad."

Campus Chatter

The Sigma Chis are turning truly social this week-end. They have invited all the Kappas over Saturday afternoon to listen to the football game with them.

While local students are lending an ear to the Penn State game, JOE SHICKLEY is going to make a trip to Madison, Wis. to watch her current flame, FRITZ DAVIS, play for Navy. The Notre Dame-Tulane game is holding a special interest for PAT DUTTON, who is really interested in a "friend" there.

Campus social life is in its prime this week-end. Dates planning to attend the A O Pi "Rhapsody in Blue" party Saturday night are KATHY COX and CHUCK HUESTIS, DOTTY RAAPKE and GORDON LUIKART, and CAROL BUKACEK and DUTCH MEYERS. It seems that the girls had a little trouble in picking a theme for their party. In two days it had changed from A O Pineapple to A O Pirate and finally ended in the "Rhapsody in Blue" party. Women can never make up their minds.

Aggies are planning to go to the sock dance and barbecue Friday night for entertainment. On Saturday night the AGRs are having their "Rho Rendezvous" at the Antelope Pavilion. Couples that will probably be seen are LOIS LARSEN and BOYD LINDER, JIM STURM and JO RHOADS, STERLING OLSON and BARBARA KREUTZ.

Speaking of the AGRs, perhaps you will remember the little episode on the hampsters that BOB SCHEER plans to make his first million on, and this year, too. Bob woke up the other morning to find that his male hamster had just had four little hamsters. Such a blow! Genetics class plans to make a study of the complication next week.

Back to the party, party business, the Sig Nus are planning a house dance Friday night. BY HOOPER is taking SUE VICKERY and ANDY BUNTON is going with MITZI MOYLE. At the SAE Song Title party, PAT O'BRIEN will be seen with MAX BAEHR.

In spite of all the house parties, a few of the "regulars" will be seen out at Kings Friday night. ARDA HALE is going with RANDY EWING and BILL PERKINS is taking JO SHERMAN.

New steadies during the week include ROD BENSON and KELLY CUTHBERTSON, LORRIE NIELSEN and BRUCE BARTON, LOU ANN FAHNESTOCK and KEN HENKINS, JANICE JOYCE and HARRY HARRIS.

To whom it may concern from Tau Kappa Epsilon: We are in no way responsible for any of the romantic actions taken by brother CHUCK JENSEN, and any such action shall not necessarily reflect upon other characters of said fraternity . . . Hmmm.

Social schedule for the week-end:

Friday.

Ag Union Sock Dance and Barbecue.

Palladian program. Teachers College party.

Saturday.

ISA Campaign Windup Dance.

AGR Rho Rendezvous.

SAE Song Title party.

Sig Ep Comic Strip party.

Alpha Chi Hillbilly party.

AOPI Rhapsody in Blue party.

Why Editors Get Gray—or Blue

To those who sometimes seem anxious about the editorial policy of the Daily Nebraskan—we show an example of the letters which attempt to cloud the brain of Editor Cub Clem.

Found in Saturday's mail (with a Chicago dateline).

Editor Student Newspaper University of Nebraska Lincoln, Nebraska

"Don't be scared of false faces on Halloween, the Unknown Soldiers of Democracy who are still fighting for a NEW BIRTH of FREEDOM—those we love will bring about the RESURRECTION of FAITH and practice of REAL AMERICANISM.

Just give thanks to: "The Unknown Soldiers of Democracy"

P. S. Don't give to the Community Chest, it smells of Socialism and that is BAD!"

Rally! Rally! Rally!

K-State Grad on Council

Kansas State college has a graduate student representative on its student council for the first time in the history of the school.

Robert Ziem, a graduate student in chemistry, was selected by the executive committee of the Graduate club.
