Sorry!

The story in Thursday's Daily Nebraskan was misleading in regard to the annual Friendship dinner. The dinner is sponsored by the Religious Welfare council.

Union Music Committee Keeps Fresh Record Supply for Crib

Something new each week. That is the main objective of the Union Music committee at it attempts to keep fresh the record supply for the new Solotones, recently installed in the Corn Crib. The new records being played at the present were chosen by Rod Riggs, chairman of the committee and "Daily Nebraskan" reporter.

Suggestions Welcome.

According to Music committee officials, the Solotones are provided for the students and therefore they will welcome all suggestions for certain platter requests. The committee is now in the process of determining a way to please the music tastes of the majority of "Cribbers." It was added that all suggestions may be left at the Union Activities office.

Organizing a hit parade of their own, the committee found the new star to be Andre Previn, 17-year-old pianist, whose records were suggested by Cub Clem, "Daily Nebraskan" editor in an editorial. Previn, who last week was featured on "Should I" and "This Can't Be Love" shows his version of jump rhythm on "Just one of Those Things."

Clark Featured.

Featured also is the late Buddy Clark, accomplished young vocalist, who was killed last week in a plane crash. His contribution is the popular "Song of Surrender."

Music makers and their records are:
Glenn Miller "Moonlight Serenade"
Andre Previn "Just One Of Those Things"
Harry James "Trumpet Blues"
Louis Armstrong "That Lucky Old Sun"
Stan Kenton "Harlem Holiday"
Tony Martin "Circus"
Dennis Day "Clancy Lowered the Boom"
Dick Jurgens "Who Do You Know in Heaven"
Buddy Clark "Song of Surrender"
Red Eagle "Two Dollar Pistol"

Union Dancing Classes to Start

Registration for the class in ballroom dancing is still in progress at the Union Activities office.

The classes are being held every Tuesday evening as a prelude to the N. U. formal season which opens Dec. 1 with the Military Ball. Instruction will be given by Miss Donna McCandless, who has a local dance studio.

The first class, Tuesday, Oct. 19, will include both men and women; the second will be devoted to individual instruction, and the third will again combine both groups.

The final lesson will be in the form of a party at which exhibition dancing will be held. During instruction the ballroom doors will be closed for the benefit of those who do not desire spectators.
