Council to Keep Office Hours

The Student Council office, Union 305, will be open from four to six on Monday and three to four on Wednesday. At this time students may contact Council President Ros Howard.

"The specific purpose of office hours are to give the student a chance to present his views or gripes to Council officers," Howard said.

At that time students who need to make changes in parking permits may do so, Howard added. This will effect students who have lost permits, purchased cars or failed to register, he said.

Student Migration...

Tickets for the student migration to Iowa State go on sale Monday, Oct. 24. One hundred students, in addition to band members, must go on the migration train or the event will be called off.

The Student Spirit Committee, under the chairmanship of Roz Howard, has studied the migration from all angles to determine its advisability. Previous University-sponsored trips have not received the cooperation needed to warrant annual migrations in the future.

University authorities have been a bit skeptical about past migrations because of reports of poor conduct. However, after studying the situation thoroughly, the Spirit committee decided that an official migration would definitely benefit the team and that it could be conducted properly and with no adverse criticism.

The fact still remains that 100 students must participate. As Roz Howard said, "The entire success and the deciding factor of the migration will be the number of students traveling by train."

This means that your cooperation is needed. If you are planning to attend the game, why not go on the official train? Arrangements have been made with Iowa State organizations to insure Nebraska students a good time.

So get your ticket as soon as possible so a successful migration can be assured. It would certainly be a black mark against student spirit, which is far from lacking this year, if the migration should have to be cancelled.

Fritz Simpson.

The Moral Victory Routine...

The Huskers come face to face with another nearly-insurmountable foe Saturday—the Oklahoma Sooners. The Oklahomans are very fast, very tricky and very, very big. Prospects are for a long afternoon for the Nebraska faithful, to say nothing of the players themselves.

Even if the Huskers are at their best, they will be hard-pressed to keep the score down to a reasonable figure. It will take all the staying power Nebraska possesses to make the game interesting.

But a good showing should be good enough for the fans. If the Huskers play as well as they did against Minnesota, they will rate our praise. If they don't, the score in the record books should be enough censure.

The students should prepare to see one of the best teams in the nation work against Nebraska. The student body can do its part by giving the Huskers all the spirit they can through cheering at the rally and at the game.

Mule Lingo Sparks Fifth Union Movie

Stubborn mules play the major roles in the Union's fifth Sunday evening movie of the year.

The movie this week will be "Scudda Hoo! Scudda Hay!" which in mules means something like "get goin'".

The picture will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Union ballroom, according to general entertainment sponsor Bob Mosher.

The film is described by Films Inc., as "a warm, human screen story in the rich tradition of

"Home in Indiana" and "My Friend Flicka."

Adapted from the best-selling novel by George A. Chamberlain, the movie stars June Haver, Lon McCallister, Walter Brennan, Anne Revere, Natalie Wood and Henry Hull.

Filmed against a farm background, the production tells the story about the difficulties encountered by the owners of the pair of mules.
