NROTC Tells Deadline for Applications

All male Nebraska high school seniors and college students under 21 who wish to apply for the NROTC should submit their applications at once, Capt. W. L. Messmer, professor of naval science at the University, announced.

Application blanks can be obtained from most high school principals or by writing directly to the naval science department at the University. Nov. 12 is the deadline for the applications.

Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 21 and eligible for entrance into college next fall. The navy will select 2000 men to receive the four-year scholarships, authorized at 52 Universities including Nebraska.

The scholarships will cover the cost of tuition, books, and fees with an additional amount of $50 a month for living allowances.

Scholarship winners, if qualified at graduation, must accept a commission in the regular Navy or Marine Corps for a minimum of two years.

Alumni Luncheon To Precede Game

Buffet luncheons for University alumni, their families and friends, will be resumed Saturday noon in the main dining room of the Union preceding the Oklahoma football game.

The luncheons are being offered by the Alumni Association before each home football game. Lunch will be served from 11:30

Yearbook Seeks Barbs' Pictures

All Independent students who have not had their pictures taken for the 1950 Cornhusker are urged to do so in the immediate future by the yearbook staff.

Appointments for having the pictures taken may be made in a Cornhusker booth in the Union lobby. It will be open every day this week through Friday.

A deadline will be set for registration of the pictures with the Cornhusker and no other pictures will be accepted after that date.

Photographs are being taken by Rose Manor Studios, 1421 O, George Randol, photographer.

a.m. to 12:30 p.m., William L. (Bill) Day, president of the Association stated Wednesday. There will be no program, he said. Reservations should be made by calling the Alumni Association office.

Red Cross Board Filings Still Open

Filings are still open for the Red Cross board.

Two board positions, special projects and first aid, will be filled by application, according to Audrey Rosenbaum, president. These applications must be submitted by Oct. 21. They will be approved by the entire board.

The special projects position entails acting as co-chairman of a group which sponsors special campaigns and drives. The first aid chairman organizes a class in first aid instruction which is taught by a Red Cross instructor.

Applications are to be left in the Red Cross box in the basement of the Union. They must include name, year, college and past experience with Red Cross.

Cadwallader (chairman), Jim Stoddard, Shirley Allen, Vladimir Lavko, Mayer Moskovitz, Herb Reese, Rod Lindwall and Ben Wall.

Howard announced that students must secure parking permits this week. Office hours for these permits will end Oct. 28, he added.

In line with its routine duties, the Council placed its stamp of approval on an annual budget of $453 presented by Rob Raun, treasurer. In a unanimous vote, it waived the junior class requirement to permit graduate student Vladimir Lavko to represent Cosmopolitan Club, which the Council ruled is composed primarily of graduates.

ing, freshman are not eligible to apply.

Werner to Speak To TC Grad Club

Dr. O. H. Werner will be the main speaker at the annual fall meeting of the Teachers College Graduate club Friday, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Dean F. E. Henzlick.

All Teachers College students interested in joining the club and graduates members are urged to attend the meeting.

Those planning to attend should sign up in Dean Henzlick's office before Friday.
