

Membership Requirements For YW Told by Nutzman

Requirements for membership in YW were listed today for the convenience of prospective freshman and upperclassman women by Jan Nutzman, city YW president.

Before joining YW one must accept the only national requirement for membership. This is

Farm Expert To Speak at Ag Meetings

Dr. O. V. Wells, chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, will be one of the principal speakers at Farm and Home Week at the University.

Dr. Wells, one of the nation's top farm economists, will deliver the main address at an all-University convocation at the Coliseum at 11 a. m., Nov. 16.

The bureau chief also will appear on a panel discussion on the following Thursday at 10:15 a. m. Topic for discussion will be "Agricultural Programs." Discussion leader will be Dr. C. Clyde Mitchell, new head of the University's rural economics department.

Other members of the panel are Dr. T. W. Schultz of the University of Chicago, Kirk Fox, Des Moines, Ia., editor of Successful Farming; Sam McKelvie, Valentine rancher; and Frank W. Reed, Lincoln, state chairman of the Production Marketing administration.

The annual Farm and Home Week, which replaces the former Organized Agriculture meetings, will open with the all-University convocation on Nov. 16 and close with the Colorado-Nebraska football game the following Saturday.

Corn Shucks Out; CCCCC Revealed

Complete with cartoons, jokes, brand-new features, and CCCCC, on campus Thursday afternoon.

Selling for 20 cents per copy, the first issue of the humor magazine will be sold in Sosh, Burnett Hall, Temple, City and Ag Unions, and at all drugstores and bookstores on campus.

As in the past, all subscribed copies will be delivered to all organized houses. Other subscribers should pick up their magazines at the booth in the Union.

Besides the mysterious CCCCC, Corn Shucks contains several other features including the Frosh Foto Quiz, double spread of a typical sorority open house, the "new" Shack-Best Trophy and many other bits of college humor.

Cornhusker Tells Picture Deadline

Independent students who have not had their individual pictures taken for the 1949 Cornhusker have until Tuesday, Nov. 15 to do so.

If the pictures have not been taken by that date they will not appear in the yearbook, because no late pictures will be accepted.

Appointments for having the pictures taken may be made in the Cornhusker office in the basement of the Union any week day from 1 to 5 p. m., or by calling 4228 during those hours.

Editor John Connelly points out that "it is to the advantage of the student to have this taken care of immediately."

KU Students Plan Migration Here

University students will not only be hosts to Nebraska alumni this week end, but also to a large portion of the Kansas university student body.

The general migration of KU students will be taken to this campus this week end, and their entire pep section is expected to arrive Saturday morning.

Several houses on campus have been notified of the expected number of students that will need eating and sleeping facilities, and the estimated crowd is larger than any previous out-state migration to this campus.

the purpose of the Young Women's Christian association, the text of which reads:

"We, the members of the Young Women's Christian association of the University of Nebraska, unite in a desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

"We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

"In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow him.

"I wish to enter the fellowship of the Young Women's Christian association and will endeavor to uphold the purpose in my own life."

The above does not mean that non-members cannot attend group meetings; everyone is welcome.

The following are the only two local requirements for membership:

1. Payment of dues which amount to $1 per semester or $1.50 per year.

2. Attendance of at least four meetings of the same commission or committee group. At this point we might add a reminder that members must attend four meetings before Christmas to be eligible to vote in the January elections.

Although YW is open to everyone regardless of membership, members only exercise the following privileges:

1. Voting.
2. Eligibility for positions or offices.
3. The right to send written recommendations to the nominating committees.
4. If one joins and attends the city campus YW she may vote at Ag elections. (dues for Ag campus are $1 per year and there is no attendance requirement).
5. A voting member may vote at regional conventions.

In previous years freshman women have never been permitted to attend upperclassman commissions and committee groups; this year freshmen may attend these groups but their attendance requirements must be fulfilled in freshman groups.

In joining our campus YW one automatically becomes a member of the total YW and also of the World Student Christian federation with countries throughout Europe, Asia and Africa.

Upperclassmen who have not joined should do so at once. Membership cards may be picked up at Ellen Smith hall.

Rag Requiem Rit; Final Fish Fails

The race is over—the gurgling has stopped—Daily Nebraskan and Cornshucks have joined Cornhusker in fish heaven.

In the quiet solitude of an empty office the two surviving fish ended their struggle for life sometime during the night. A "post-mortem" revealed nothing but stale water, so the cause remains a mystery. The two were discovered floating on the top by the editor's secretary.

The emptiness of the glass castle, filled now with only cold, clear water stands a memorial to our lost companions. Bright marbles sparkle in the bottom.

The demise of even the "itty bitty" fish, Cornshucks, which was favored earlier to win the race to a "gurgling finish" left Rag workers with a lost feeling. But we can always solace ourselves by recalling that time heals all. Of course, three more fish would also help.

Riley Smith To Play for Union Dance

Dedication, displays, and a dance.

According to the above list, scheduled affairs, for this week-end, all exciting things begin with "D."

Winding up the first full day of the homecoming celebrations will be the special pep dance planned by the Union dance committee.

The affair will take place from 9-12 in the Union ballroom, stated Ralph Taylor, chairman of the committee, who added that everyone is invited to "come as you are" from the rally, dedication, and house displays.

Providing music for the dance will be Riley Smith and his orchestra. "In addition, there will be plenty of atmosphere, refresh-

The winning candidate will be announced and presented at intermission at the Homecoming dance Saturday night at the Coliseum. Last Year's Pep Queen, Mary Helen Mallory, will reign at half-time festivities at the KU-Nebraska game Saturday afternoon.

Parade at 10 a. m. Saturday
Homecoming parade entries will start their route through campus and the Lincoln business district Saturday morning at 10:30 a. m. at the Coliseum. Between fifty and sixty floats have been entered in the parade by organized houses and organizations. The two divisions, men's and women's, will be judged on a set of standards drawn up by a Corn Cobs and Tassels parade committee.

Stags and couples alike are urged to attend. Admission will be 44 cents.
