

Huskers Ready for Jayhawks

Squad Spirit High For Homecoming

BY KIMON KARBATSOS

The Huskers are ready! Ready in all respects, physical condition is good, spirit is excellent and everyone is waiting to 'Jam the Jayhawk'.

Thursday night the whole squad reported in sweat-suits for pass defense drills and dummy scrimmage. Missing from the roster was Don Strasheim who broke his collarbone in pass defense drill Wednesday.

The "Little Monster," so nicknamed by his teammates, was a big asset to Coach Bill Glassford. Now, the Huskers are out to win Saturday for him as well as to please the homecoming crowd.

Nagle Connects.

Glassford has not changed his offensive line-up. He indicated that he will still use Fran Nagle as starting quarterback along with Ron Clark and 'Rock' Mueller at halfbacks with Nick Aduci at fullback.

Nagle, who has been connecting with his passes in great style in practice, gets a slight nod over veteran Ken Fischer. Fischer, who is the brightest when on defense, will undoubtedly see plenty of action on the offense.

The end spots will be held by two sophomores, Frank Simon and Dick Regier. At tackle, Glassford will probably use Bob 'Moon' Mullen and Charley Toogood. Mullen has been an understudy to Tom Novak at center, but last week Glassford decided to use him at tackle where the Huskers have been weak in depth.

Novak Best Center

The guards will be Walt Spellman and Rex Hoy or Fred Hawkins. Captain Tom Novak, who recently was lauded as one of the best centers in the land by Whitney Martin of the Associated Press, will be at his familiar spot.

Novak has intercepted four passes to lead the Huskers in that department. He hopes to improve his record against Jayhawk passers Dick Gillman and Jerry Bogue.

The defensive team will be the same as the offensive with the exceptions of Nagle and Mueller. Fischer will take over for Nagle, playing halfback with either Hawkins or Spellman replacing Mueller as linebacker.

Williamson Picks Huskers

Nebraska, in their series with Kansas University, has won 40, lost 13 and tied three. The Jayhawks won the opening two games of the series way-back in 1892 and '93. Coach Jules Sikes boys have won the last two games against the Huskers.

Incidentally, two games is the most the Jayhawks have been able to win in succession over the once high-riding Huskers.

Only Paul B. Williamson, using his famed Williamson system, has picked Nebraska to wipe out the Jayhawks. Other sportscasters and the such have either established the Jayhawks as favorites or the game being a toss-up.

The attendance has been predicted at 35,000; but if the weather continues to be clear and the 'Indian Summer' lasts a couple more days, the actual attendance might surpass the 37,000 (app.) that attended the Oklahoma game.

Education is the world's panacea. There is no limit to the need, let there be no limit to our giving. GIVE TO AUF.

TAUS TAKE TITLE—"Come to me, baby," says ATO Bill Denker as he snatches a pass from Dick Bick in the clear to score the only touchdown of the ATO-Phi Gam game, Wednesday evening. The TD was enough to give the Taus a 6-0 victory and the intramural football championship.

Good Stresses Fundamentals In Early Drills

Nebraska's varsity basketball team will play its first game less than one month from today.

"The boys are working diligently and seem to realize that with the influx of the fine fresh teams into the Big Seven varsities this year, every team will be a formidable foe," Coach Good commented Wednesday.

Both the Varsity and the B squad have been working out on basic fundamentals and on offensive team play.

Nebraska's big problem is to find guard replacements for Claude Retherfeld and Ken Anderson, who graduated last year. Bob Cerv is the only veteran available for this chore.

Coach Good has been experimenting with two sophomores at this post, Jim Buchanan and Andy Buntin. Several sophomores are showing promise at various positions. Jim Fulford and Norman Wilnes are working at forward and guard. Al Blessing and Gerard Walton are showing promise at center and forward respectively.

B team men from last year are also trying for a berth. They are Darrell Brandenburg and Bob Gasten forwards, Paul Kipper and Melvin Schneider guards and Ray Lucht and Jim Walsh are alternating at center and forward.

Mr. Good had planned a public showing of the teams in a frosh-varsity game Friday evening as part of the homecoming program, but feels with the dedication of the Mueller Tower along with the display of the decorated organized houses, it would be impracticable this year.

Intramural Sportalk

It will be Student Union against the Lillies for the Independent football championship Friday night. Both teams advanced to the finals Wednesday night by beating the YMCA and Ag Men's club.

Student Union, the only undefeated team left in 1949 IM play, continued on but not after getting a scare. The Union scored first on a 70 yard pass play from Joe Benak to Jack Carroll which took the ball just shy of the Y goal. From there Benak flipped a touchdown pass to Jack Hansen.

The YM boys stormed back in the third period, tying up the game. The game raged on equal terms from then on until the last 40 seconds of play. Benak, seeing Hal Dibelka in the clear, fired a long pass which Dibelka took in stride and carried it across for the sixth straight Union victory, 12-6.

Ag Men Upset

Previously unbeaten Ag Men's club took a tumble when they were roughly handled by the Lillies, 9-0. The winners scored in the first quarter on a 20 yard Newcombe to Johnson pass and added a safety in the third period to cinch the win. The powerful Ag Men threatened several times, but never could quite reach the Lillies' goal.

The championship game will be a repeat performance for the two teams. The Student Union holds a 1-0 yardage verdict in their first meeting.

Championship Games

The football season will wind up with two games next week. Monday the Independent Champs will face Presby House, the Denominational Champs for All-Unaffiliated Seven-man Champs, and that champion will meet the Fraternity seven-man champion for the All-University Seven-man Championship on Wednesday. Both games will be played at 4:30 p.m. at Ag College.

Bowling came into prominence as the football season comes to a close.

Sigma Nu's Lead

In fraternity bowling Sigma Nu is far out in front in league No. 1 with six wins against no defeats. Kappa Sigma occupies second place with a 2-1 record.

In league No. 2 Pioneer Co-op and Zeta Beta Tau hold down the top rung with three wins. The No. 3 league leaders, also with three wins are Delta Sigma Pi and Theta Xi. The same situation prevails in league No. 4 where Pi Kappa Psi and Phi Gamma Delta each sport a 3-0 record.

Theta Xi's, Scoring Leaders

With only four football games remaining this season, Theta Xi is leading all teams in the scoring column. With their footballs put away for the year, Theta Xi has scored 142 points.
