

"If you think that was a good running block, you should be around when I take off his chains!"

Two NU Grants Total $14,755

Two University scientists have received research grants with a combined value of $14,755, according to Dr. R. W. Goss, Dean of the Graduate College.

Dr. W. B. Allington, head of the plant pathology department, has received $12,955 from the Chemical Corps of the Department of the Army. This is in addition to $4,800 given Dr. Allington a year ago. The combined grants of $17,755 will cover the period ending Aug. 30, 1951.

Dr. Allington's research work is concerned with a basic study to determine how virus diseases of plants are transmitted. Virus diseases cause millions of dollars worth of damage yearly to Nebraska's crops and ornamental plants.

The other grant of $1,800 from

Ex-Laborite Declares . . . could bring it over here and bury it."

Good Economics

In a round-about appeal for free trade, he said that "goods for goods" tells the story of good economics. Britain, he explained, built itself up during the last century by "sending goods abroad and then sending money to pay for them, thus building up huge foreign investments, which were used to finance the last war."

Edwards' break with the socialist government came over the proposal to nationalize steel. Steel has always been the most efficient industry in England, he said, and has been meeting the Spencer Chemical company of Kansas City, Mo., will continue an investigation into the desirability of fertilizing Nebraska corn, brome grass and wheat crops with liquid ammonia.

higher standards each year. Trade unions themselves have gone on record against the nationalization of steel.

Edwards is manager of Harrisburg Limited, a manufacturing concern. Since he has been "fired" from the Labor party, he plans to seek re-election as a conservative.

State Schools . . .

committee; and Dr. Clyde Mitchell of the University of Nebraska, who was recently administrative head of the industrial and agricultural redistribution project in Korea.

Problems in Europe, the Middle East and the Far East will be emphasized at the conference, and roundtable discussions will cover those three areas.

The public is invited to attend all sessions, said Robert Bushnell, president of the Wesleyan I.R.C. A $3.00 registration which will include the Friday night banquet will be charged.

*"My cigarette?
Camels, of course!"*

EVENING STOLE BY KESTER DOROTHY - JEWELS BY CARTIER

500 'Sisters' Expected at Coed Dinner

Nearly 500 Coed Counselors and their "little sisters" are expected to attend the annual Coed Counselor Friendship dinner tonight.

Tables decorated in an autumn theme will greet the coeds at the banquet in the Union ballroom. The traditional dinner will begin at 6 p. m.

The Friendship dinner is an annual affair climaxing the first six weeks' of school. It is a part of the Coed Counselors' plan to help new students become acquainted with the university and other students, upperclassmen as well as freshmen.

Guests at the dinner will include Miss Marjorie Johnston, dean of women; Miss Mary Augustine, assistant dean of women; Mrs. Elvera Christiansen; Miss Mary Mielenz and Miss Elsie Ford Piper, sponsors of the organization.

A brief program following the dinner will include the introduction of the guests and the Coed Counselor board members. Dorothy Borgens, president of the group, will act as toastmistress.

Highlight of the evening will be the annual style show featuring members of all organized women's houses. The commentator for the show will be Eleanor Bancroft; the pianist, Alice Jo Heiss. Tish Swanson is chairman of the style show, which will present campus apparel.

General chairman of the dinner is Jean Fenster. Marilyn Campfield heads ticket sales; Sue Allen, publicity; Janet Carr, decorations.

Tickets for the event are 90 cents.

Joint Y's to Hear Foreign Students

"Road to Recovery," will be the topic under discussion at the joint YM-YW meeting, Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 7 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall.

Three aspects to be considered are intellectual, moral and welfare in regard to the part they will play in recovery.

Ed Saad, Palestine; Walter Willi, Switzerland; and Vladimer Lavko, Czechoslovakia are the three students who will speak. They are foreign students now enrolled here at Nebraska.

Music Group To Present Choral Concert

Three music sororities—Mu Phi Epsilon, Delta Omicron and Sigma Alpha Iota—will combine to give a choral concert at 8 p. m. Nov. 10 in the Union ballroom.

Robert Stepp of the school of music faculty will conduct the 60-voice ensemble in the following selections:

Rosemary, Landall Thompson. Six Love Songs, Brahms. The Blessed Da. nozel, Debussy. I Hear a Harp, Brahms.

Louise Miller will play horn and Bonnie Weddell, harp, on one of the group numbers. Accompanists will be Jeanette Dolezal, Carolyn Waters and Jo Hanson.

Admission price is 50 cents. Tickets may be purchased at the Music building or from members of the participating sororities.

Theatre to Stage 'Home of Brave'

The Experimental Theatre will present, "Home of the Brave," at the Temple building, Nov. 18th and 19th.

The Experimental Theatre generally presents one play a semester that is directed by a student and under the supervision of the theatre staff. "Home of the Brave," is under the direction of Abe Katz, a law student.

Brace lab. Quentin Bonners guest speaker.

Thursday

Theta Sigma Phi initiation Thursday 5 p. m. at Ellen Smith hall. Absentees will be fined.

Sigma Delta Chi meets 7 p. m. Thursday, regular room, Burnett hall. Very important meeting.

Cosmopolitan club will be held in Room 316, Union at 7:30 p. m. Block and Bridle 7:15 Thursday, Animal Husbandry building.

WAA Rifle club meets 7 p. m. Grant Memorial hall, Thursday.

Pi Lambda Theta meets Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 15, Teachers college. Miss Gertrude McEachen will speak on her tour of Europe.

NU Bulletin Board

Wednesday

Alpha Kappa Delta meets at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday in Union Parlor C for initiation dinner meeting.

Duckpins club will not meet Wednesday as scheduled.

Ag Exec Board meets in Room 3, Ag Union at 7 p. m. Wednesday.

All persons interested in working on a bi-monthly publication for coverage of independent activities should come to Room 316 Union Wednesday. ISA will take names of persons interested in staff positions. AICHE regular meeting Wednesday.

Chemical engineers group pictures at 5 p. m. in West Stadium.

ASCE Cornhusker picture at 12 noon, West Stadium.

Radio Amateur society meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in 119

WITH SMOKERS WHO KNOW... IT'S

Camels for Mildness

Yes, Camels are SO MILD that in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!