

Nebraska Fears Cyclone Passes

BY JERRY WARREN.
Sports Editor.

Pass defense was the order of the day as Coach Bill Glassford had his Cornhusker gridders working in sweat clothes Wednesday night.

Three short backfield men looked good in the secondary, batting down pass after pass thrown by reserves wearing Iowa State numbers.

Harry Meginnis, playing defensive halfback, Kenny Fischer, Nick Adduci and Rich Yost made life miserable for opponent passers.

Glassford also worked his men on a dummy scrimmage, using two offensive teams against the reserves. In one backfield, led by Quarterback Fran Nagle, were Bill Mueller and Harry Meginnis at halfbacks and Nick Adduci at full.

Running in the line were Dick Regier and Ray Magsamen at ends, Charlie Toogood and Dick Goglein, tackles, Walt Spellman and Art Bauer, guards, and Tom Novak at center.

The second offensive unit was made up of Kenny Fischer, Don Bloom, Rich Yost and Charles Bruhrer in the backfield and Bob Schneider, Ralph Damkroger, Rex Hoy, Ardie Means, Herb Reese, Bob Mullen and Joe McGill in the line.

Mullen and Ron Clark, who were shaken up in the Kansas game, will be able to start Saturday against the Cyclones. Other probable starters named by Glassford are Damkroger and Schneider, ends; Toogood and Mullen, tackles; Bauer and Spellman, guards; Novak, center; Nagle, quarterback; Clark and Mueller, halfbacks; and Adduci, fullback.

Frosh Two-Mile Team Scores In Loop Meets

Nebraska frosh two-mile team racked up two victories last week, beating Iowa State, 17-19 and Missouri, 17-21. (Low score wins.)

The meets were both postal duals so one time for each man served for both meets.

Wayne Judds' time of 10:12.5 was good enough to win the Cyclone meet and place second against the Tigers.

Other NU freshmen to score in the Iowa State meet were Bob Kishinger, third, 10:35.5; Louis Million, fifth, 10:36.9; and Bob Kruger, eighth, 10:38.

Independent Swimmers lead the list of qualifiers for the semi-finals of the 1949 Intramural Swimming Meet. The Independents placed 12 men to head a field of 58 qualifiers. Phi Delta Theta is running in second spot, qualifying eight men, while Phi Kappa Psi has seven men in semis.

The rest of the field includes six men each from the Phi Gams and the Sig Alphas, five men each from Sigma Nu and ATO, three men from the Betas and the Kappa Sigs, and one man each from Delta Sigma Pi, Beta Sigma Psi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Devries Outstanding

Don Devries, Phi Delt was the outstanding swimmer in the qualifying round. Devries came through with the fastest time in three events, the three freestyles. His top performance was in the 220 Freestyle, churning it in 2:46.3, over 22 seconds better than the next best time turned in by Independent Dick Burman.

yard freestyle with Don Eicher, SAE, swimming the distance in 1:04.8 for the second best time. Devries' time in the 50 yard was 24.8 with Phil Myers, SAE, the next swiftest with 28.1.

Paul Goetz, Delta Sig Pi, topped the breast-strokers, churning the 100 yards in 1:17.3, a full five seconds better than the next best time turned in by Bill Douglas, Sigma Nu.

Frank Kinzie, SAE, leads the back-strokers with a 1:20.3 in the 100 yard swim. Second best time in this event is owned by Harry Kirk, Independent, with 1:21.9.

'Whites' Win 14-6 in Frosh Intersquad Scrimmage

Nebraska freshmen gridders split up into two teams for a intrasquad scrimmage Wednesday night which resulted in a 14-6 victory for the air-minded whites.

After a dull first quarter, the Whites took possession of the ball on the Red 28 on an exchange of punts, featuring fullback Al Osborne's 50-yard boot.

From that point, Stan Gerlach flipped to Jim Sommers in the end zone for the first White score. Howard Herbst, Cheyenne, Wyo., end, converted to put the Whites ahead of the slow-starting Reds, 7-0.

Another pass resulted in the second score for the Whites. This aerial was a third quarter 19-yard heave from Dick Heacox to end Ted Connor.

A sustained drive, following a Red fumble at midfield, set up the touchdown. Herbst again converted.

John Sinclair took over the offensive for the Reds in the final scoring of the day. Guard Bob McBride pounced on a fumble on the White's 32-yard line

Topping the 75 yard Individual Medley was Sandy Crawford, Phi Psi, with a time of :52.1. Bill Douglas, Sig Nu is second with :53.4.

The semi-finals are run off Wednesday night with the finals on Friday afternoon. The diving finals will not be until Monday afternoon at 5 p.m.

Sooners Lead All Bowl Contenders

With the climax of the football season in view, fans as well as football coaches are wondering what teams will receive bowl bids.

In the Big Seven the chips are down as Missouri must stop a rambling Oklahoma team to even secure recognition for a bowl bid. Oklahoma, the number three outfit in the nation, has practically got the Sugar Bowl bid rapped up following their terrific showing this year. However, the opponent for the Sooners is by far from selected, but talk has it that Rice will be against the Sooners when the game starts.

setting up Sinclair's drive to the goal.

Three straight running plays by the North Hollywood, Calif. speedster, punctuated by Buster Lehman's attempted pass, covered the yardage to pay-dirt.

The freshmen, after running varsity opponents plays all season, finally seem to have mastered their own offense with Sinclair, Bill Wingender, Bobby Reynolds, Gay Curtis and Farley Pickering reeling off consistent gains. The line play of Ted Connor, Wayne "Bear" Handshy and Don Boll stood out in the afternoon performance.
