

Ag Y Students Give Services To Aid AUF

Faculty members, students and Lincoln citizens with yards filled with leaves, storm windows not up, baking problems, or a pile of socks needing mending were given new hope today.

Twenty-five student members of the Ag YW and YMCA are looking for jobs of those types—with all money earned going to the All University Fund.

Laverna Acker, Ag YW president, announced the project today, which she said was greeted enthusiastically by members of the Y groups. The work project will last from Nov. 10-20.

All proceeds from the work will go directly to AUF. All persons contracting students for the odd jobs will not be charged a fixed amount but will be asked to pay what they think the work was worth.

Students will need transportation for jobs not in the Ag College vicinity, said Miss Acker. Otherwise, they will make their own arrangements.

All persons wishing any of the 25 men and women to assist them,

Student Civil Engineers to Meet at NU

The University will be host to the annual conference of Mid-Continent Student chapters of the American Society of Civil Engineers this weekend, Nov. 10-12.

The conference is to "foster desirable relations among the student chapters, and to further the knowledge of the standards and ethics of the engineer's professions." It is the third annual conference since the war.

Seven mid-western schools are members of the conference. They include the Universities of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska.

The program will open with a buffet supper at the Union Thursday evening at 6:30. Dean R. M. Green of the College of Engineering and Architecture will be the guest speaker.

The Conference will move to Love Memorial auditorium Friday afternoon where D. L. Erickson, ASCE director of the mid-west area and Lincoln city engineer will address the group at 2:30, and Dr. C. M. Elliot, associate professor of economics and insurance at the University will speak at 3 p. m.

At 4:30 p. m. a movie and address on prestressed concrete will be given by a representative of the Portland Cement association. This will cover a relatively new field in civil engineering.

The Conference will close with a banquet at the YWCA Friday evening at 6:30 p. m. Gen. S. D. Sturgis, Omaha division engineer of the corp of engineers will be the speaker.

Kansas university and Missouri School of Mines have been hosts in previous years.

Father: "Young man, I notice that you're paying quite a bit of attention to my daughter. Is it all on the square?"

Youth: "Oh, no, sir. It's mostly right here on the porch."

Ag Student Elected Head of Home Ec Clubs

Eleanor Erickson was elected the new chairman of the province nine workshop at a three-day meeting of the college and university clubs of the American Home Economics Association.

The meeting, held Nov. 3, 4, 5 on the Oklahoma College for Women campus near Oklahoma City, was attended by 75 representatives of 15 home economics clubs in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Nebraska.

Miss Erickson, Ag college sophomore, said, "the most impressive feature of the convention was the speech given by Miss Francis Urban, field secretary of the American Home Economics Association at Washington, D. C." The speech, which was given as the highlight of the formal banquet, was the theme for the convention, "Putting Yourself Into Home Economics."

Other delegates from Nebraska were Carol Shellen, Eda Ree Hass and Pat Doyle, students at the University of Omaha. The next annual convention will be held on the Omaha University campus.

Patent Advisor Positions Open

An examination to fill Patent Advisor positions in Washington, D. C., and vicinity has been announced by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

College study or scientific or technical experience in physical science or engineering is necessary. In addition, applicants must have appropriate professional experience. The Classification Act of 1949 raised the pay scale to range from $3,727 to $6,235 yearly.

Further information and application forms may be obtained at most first and second class post-offices, from the Civil Service regional offices, or from the U. S.

Faculty Tells Of Eligibility For Activities

The minimum requirements for participation by students in extra-curricular activities have been issued by the office of T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs.

These regulations do not preclude any group from maintaining higher standards for their individual organization. Each student must carry at least 12 hours to be eligible for any participation.

Freshman Rules

The rules concerning freshman participation state only that to be eligible a student must be carrying twelve hours in his first semester of school. Women are subject only to existing regulations of AWS.

Students enrolled for the second semester at the University must have passed at least 8 credit hours, or 3/5 of their total enrolled credits. Third semester students must have at least 24 hours of credits.

Any student on probation for conduct automatically forfeits his eligibility. These requirements do not supersede any restrictions placed upon an individual's participation in activities by the Committee on Scholarship.

Activities Classified

Activities are classified in three groups. These include intercollegiate teams such as athletic and debate squads, public exhibitions in the way of plays and recitals, student sponsored contests, all-university activities such as senior societies and publications, individual college activities, and other activities as specified by the Committee on Student Affairs.

Night courses and summer school credits are counted. Correspondence courses conducted by the Extension division may not be used.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

FOR A WHILE, Shedy's life story was a pretty sad tale. People rode him about his wild, unruly hair. And it wasn't until his favorite filly gave him the gait that he decided to do something about it. He trotted down to the corner drug store and bought a bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. You should see him now! Non-alcoholic Wildroot containing Lanolin keeps his hair neat and well-groomed all day long. No more annoying dryness, no more loose, ugly dandruff.

Take a tip from Shedy. If your sugar balks when you ask for a date, you need Wildroot Cream-Oil right away. Get it in bottles or tubes at your local drug or toilet goods counter. And ask your barber for professional applications. You'll be a winner every time!

Migration Song Lyrics Given

The "Fight Song", introduced to University students this fall, was made up by students on the migration train last year, and will again be introduced to the travelers Saturday.

Although the song has not been sung at rallies or games this season, most students are familiar with the lyrics and music.

The song will also be played on the carillon tower bells at 12:50 Thursday and again Friday at an undetermined time.

"Fight Song"

Fight, fight sons of old N U,
As we go to meet the foe,
We will fight, fight sons of old N U,

As forward, forward we go,
We will fight, fight on to victory,
Shaking thunder from the skies,
We're the loyal sons of Huskerland,
From dear old U-N-I.

Ros Howard to be tried Nov. 17 on sanity count.

He: "I am very curious to know what would happen if I kissed you."

She: "If you were really curious, you'd know by this time."
