Man of the Week

We delve into the ranks of the teaching faculty and come up with the name of Karl M. Arndt, professor of economics and chairman of the University convocations committee.

It is in the latter capacity that we especially commend the Man of the Week. The convocations committee has always given the students interesting speakers—speakers who have something of a controversial nature to say.

Besides these duties, Professor Arndt has had time to become one of Bizad's favorite instructors. Though we have never had a class under him, we hear he has a way of keeping his lectures stimulating to his students.

Well Modulated

This column just won't quit. But as long as we feel campus radio shows are of interest to students, and as long as the Daily retains such indulging editors, and as long as we keep our readers we'll be here every Friday.

Due to some unusual production difficulties "The Odyssey of Runyon Jones," by special permission of the author Norman Corwin, will be presented this Thursday at 9:30, KFOR.

Twila Walker will have to do some fast dog-trotting to make both programs she is scheduled to do Saturday morning.

"Ask the Professor," 2:30 p. m., KLMS, an interesting new show on which Uni instructors answer any question you might have, needs material.

For the hams who want to be interviewed on the radio—be in the Crib Tuesday and Thursday at 4 p. m. when Lois Nelson and Sandy Levy make the recording for "Cornhusker Beat."

Banquet to Inaugurate Religion-in-Life Week

Religion-in-Life week will begin its send-off at a dinner held Nov. 13 in the Union ballroom. Those who attend the dinner will hear Dr. Arnold Nash and see the movie "Miracle on 34th Street."

Dr. Nash is the University of North Carolina's professor of religion. The Episcopal clergyman who is the principal speaker for the week will talk about the student's part in religion.

ISA Opens Four-State Meeting Today

Representatives of the Independent Students Associations Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska will open their two-day convention today in the Union.

The four-state conference will get underway this morning with registration of participants, from 8 to 12 a. m.

T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs, Karl Arndt, professor of economics, Duane Lake, director of the Union, and Clifford Bishop, a student at Colorado A. & M., who serves as president of the Western conference of Independents' organizations will be speakers at the conference banquet.

One of the features of the convention will be a series of panel discussions. Topics to be discussed are: Council and governing problems, a point system, social activities and participation problems, campus service activities, publicity and membership and finance.

Climaxing the convention will be a dance Saturday night. Fizz Powell will furnish music for the dance. Admission will be 30 cents for ISA members showing their cards.

Sosh Honorary Initiates 16

Alpha Kappa Delta, National Honorary Sociology fraternity, initiated sixteen members at a dinner meeting recently. The new members are: Mary Lou Miller, Mary Ellen Thomas, Marilyn Graham, Benjamin Keeley, Bertha Davis, Alan R. Woolworth, Dolores Gunnerson, James H. Gunnerson, Robert Reece, D. Paul Miller, Harold Sell, Della Uhe, Mildred Benson, Gladys Jackson, Clyde Mitchell, and John Johansen.

The second feature of the evening was a talk on "Making a Career in the Field of Social Sciences," by Clyde Mitchell, who has just returned from a government position in Korea. He said the American foreign service is not getting the people of high standards that are needed and urged anyone interested in such work, to investigate possible foreign service work.

Home Economists To Attend Dinner

Home Ec students and faculty will attend the Ellen H. Richards dinner at the Union ballroom on Nov. 16 at 6:30.

The dinner sponsored by the Home Ec service committee is an annual affair held to celebrate the birthday of Miss Richards, founder of home economics. Tickets for the dinner go off sale at 5 p. m. Friday.

Theme for the evening will be "The Home Economist" in the Kitchen." Jeanne Wielage is acting as chairman.

Mundelein Adds Drama Majors

The Speech and Drama departments of Mundelein College has introduced several new courses and has provided for separate majors in speech and drama. The speech program will aim at mastery of speech skills with a broad knowledge of the speech fields. The drama program will cut across the broad field of theatre arts and provide practical and intensive training in acting, directing, and stage management.

Tickets for the dinner can be purchased from any student houses, from Religious Welfare council members, or from YM or YW members on Ag or city campus. The price is eighty-five cents.

Nash to Speak Again The event will be for both Ag and city campus students. Chairman for it is Religious Welfare council member Keith Stephenson.

Those who attend the convocation at 11 a. m. Monday will be able to hear Dr. Nash speak again. He will also speak Monday at the Ag campus at 8 p. m.

Alice Jo Smith, Religious Welfare council member and director of Religion-in-Life week, has planned a five-day program. Miss Smith is Student Council representative from the Y, president of Gamma Phi Beta and a junior in the College of Arts and Science.

Criminal Nazis Topic of YM Film Tonight

"No whodunit, in spite of its title, 'Murderers Among Us,'" says Newsweek magazine of the second YM-sponsored foreign movie of the year opening tonight in Love Library auditorium.

The German film with English sub-titles starts at 8 p. m. and will be shown at the same time Saturday, Nov. 12.

Admission to the movie is fifty cents per person. Stars of the picture are Ernst Borchert and Hildegard Knef.

The story of "Murderers Among Us" is one of the unregenerate Nazis, the "murderers," and the ordinary Germans who must atone for the late Fuhrer's colossal misdoings, the "us."

Dr. Hans Mertens (Ernst Borchert) is an apparently hopeless alcoholic who lives in a semi-gutted flat in postwar Berlin as a veteran medical officer in World War II, he is disillusioned, not so much with Germany that is still his homeland even in defeat, but with the blood and agony of war itself. His combat experiences have left him intent only on murdering his former commander, Captain Bruckner (Arno Paulson)—an officer who made a fetish of the kind of duty that demanded the wanton slaughter of women and children, yet has come out of the war as a prosperous small-factory owner.

Mertens meets and falls in love with Susanna Wallner (Hildegard Knef), an intense young girl whose sojourn in a prison camp hasn't destroyed her belief in life and the future. Through her, he discovers that he is still doctor enough to save a child dying of diphtheria, and he regains his faith to the point of pocketing his pistol and leaving Bruckner to the proper authorities.

The movie was filmed in the Soviet sector of Berlin and it is a picture of the life in the rubble of postwar Berlin.

Union Plans Final Pigskin Party

Students who won't be able to migrate to Iowa State tomorrow may follow the team by remote control.

This is the information given by the Union's special activities committee in announcing the Pigskin Party, held at the main lounge, tomorrow at game time.

At that time, the radios will be tuned in to Ames, Ia., and students will combine listening with descriptions of chalk diagrammer Marv Grimm, who will provide his play-by-play account of the game.

Refreshments will be available for those who desire them.

Immediately following the game, a jukebox dance in the ballroom will be featured. There will be no admission charge.

NU Bulletin Board

Comenius Club meeting Friday evening, 7:30 p. m., at the Union in Room 316.

Palladians will meet Friday in Room 301 of the Temple building. Skits and readings will be given. Everyone is invited.

night is Iowa State ATO, Jim Doran, leading pass receiver for the Big Seven.

Sigma Delta Tau will hold their first big social event of the year this Saturday night. They are having their semi-formal pledge dance at the house. Dates planning to attend are pledge prexy Ruth Lavine and Art Epstein, Gloria Ginsberg and Norton Marckes of Omaha, Rita Swartz and Judd Manvitz of Omaha, and Adelle Chasanov and Jerry Wolpa.

Going steady: Knox Jones and Nancy Widner, Bill Stewart and Mary Ryons, and Shirley Gessner and Bob Cook.

Pat Black will be among the girls riding with Virginia Baskin to see the Iowa game. She is especially looking forward to seeing her pinmate, Emil Hahn.

More people going on the migration train: Jo Campbell, Suzie Pech, Dorothy Corbett, Pat McCormick, Charlene Chambers, Lou Watkins, Trudy Cherney and Pauline Harmon.

Dates driving down to the game: Bill Stole and Peggy Walters, Wiry Tyner and Dot Ely, Kay Schoonmaker and Bob Wait. The Sig Eps will be there in force to cheer on the team and to bring back the skin bet with the Iowa chapter.

Boys attending with and without dates are: Muscles Kornick, Hod Myers, Ed Wells, Doug Freeman, Russ Laird, Chuck Hruby, Spike Cosand, Stony Keenan, Dale Armstrong, Mary Lewis—Sally Lange, Ed Angle—Mary Kay Toller, Curt Snowden—Who knows he doesn't, and Pretty Boy Franklin along with Walter Gaebler—Bonny Washington.

The TKEs at Iowa State are throwing their Fall Formal this weekend. About 25 NU TKEs are planning to attend. Dates going down are Bob Metrakos and Bev Thompsen, Jerry Ewing and Jo Schurman, Jerome Hamman and Lois Brown. Jim Oeshner has a date with an Iowa State girl.

Dianne Thomas received a small garter snake as a "gift" from Fritz Ware last week. She put it in a bowl of water but somehow it escaped Saturday night. After no end of confusion Jan Stratton finally got enough courage to pick it up from the hall floor and rescue the screaming girls.

Jo Walters will be in Lincoln Friday for the Gamma Phi Founders Day Banquet and also for a date with Dave Miller.

Dr. Daniel Blain nationally known psychiatrist, to preside at Howard hearing.
