

Ike Pleased With Freshman Spirit

H. H. "Ike" Hanscom, freshman football coach, was quite pleased with the frosh showing in Tuesday's intra-squad scrimmage. In his words, they showed "a fighting spirit and the ability and desire to block and tackle." "Ike" thought the whole scrimmage was very hard-fought.

When speaking of individual standouts, Coach Hanscom said Clayton Curtis and Doug Henninger surprised with a flash of running brilliance. They had not shown well until the skirmish Tuesday. Other hard-running backs, cited by Hanscom, were Gerald Dunn, Buck Osborne, Bobby Reynolds and Bill Wingender.

The showing of Hanscom's large quarterback corps was pleasing with Buster Lehman, Stan Gerlach, Dick Heacox and Jack Ladds carrying the load. Hanscom also commented on the utility work of back Farley Pickering.

In the line, "Ike" had special words of praise for Carl Brasee, Don Carlson, Junior Close, Keith Feine, Ed Husman, Don Boll and Wayne "The Bear" Handshy. Hanscom was pleased with the offensive and defensive playing of centers Verl Scott, Ray Rifenbark, Ken Schroeder and Dick Goll.

The punting of Buck Osborne, who averaged over 50 yards in three kicks, and the conversions of Herbie Herbst and John Sinclair were other bright spots in the scrimmage. Herbst booted two extra points out of two tries for the White team.

Hanscom is confident that these freshmen will prove to be competent replacements next year for the old varsity members and give the needed depth in all positions. The season for the frosh will wind up next week with a scrimmage on Monday with the varsity subs and another intra-squad tilt on Wednesday.

The 1949 IM Swimming Meet has turned into a two-way battle between Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. With only the diving event to be run off on Monday, the Phi Deltas are out in front in team points with 47 with the Sig Alphas right behind, boasting 42 points.

Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Gamma Delta are currently in third position with 21 points and Sigma Nu right at their heels with 23. The remaining groups with points are Delta Sigma Pi, 17 points; Independents, 14 points; Kappa Sigma, 11 points; and Beta Theta Pi, four points.

Don Devries led the Phi Deltas, winning two events and finishing second in another. Devries copped the 50 yard free-style in :25.0 nipping Myers, SAE, and the 220 yard free-style in 2:45.2 beating another Sig Alph, Desmond.

Paul Goetz, holder of three IM swimming records, churned the 100 yards breast-stroke in 1:17.8 to win that event for Delta Sigma Pi. Bill Douglas, Sigma Nu and Eddie Miyahara, Independent were second and third respectively.

Frank Kinzie, SAE, won his pet event, the 100 back-stroke, in 1:18 to edge Jim Woodworth, Phi Gam. The 100 yard free-style was won by Don Eicher, SAE, edging Don Devries. Eicher's time for the 100 yards was 1:05. Bill Douglas, Sig Nu, added the 75 yard individual relay to his belt by winning that event in :54.3.

The Phi Gams in persons of Brennan, Woodworth, Karrer, and Merritt won the 200 yard Free-style Relay narrowly over the Phi Delt relay team in 1:56.6.

Huskers . . .

one by Meginnis are not luck, however, and the defensive play of the Cornhuskers was outstanding within their own twenty yard line.

Nebraska's blocky backfield teamed up with the elements to make it a sad day for the leading Big Seven passer. Short defenders like Don Bloom, Kenny Fischer, Nick Adduci and Rich Yost were on the spot when it counted.

Big Tom Novak, who seems to sense where the opposition will pass the ball teamed with the stubby backs to prove to the fans that Bill Glassford was right to stress pass defense.

Bill Mueller again was the running workhorse for the Huskers. Rocky's line plunges and end runs were about all the Scarlet and Cream had to offer in the way of an attack.

Defensively, the Husker line was tremendous. A small gritty guard named Freddie Hawkins played one of the best games of his career while Walt Spellman and Moon Mullen played the usual steady game.

Novak, of course, was in on every other play with a bone crushing tackle or body block to send the Cyclone reeling. Art Bauer continued to lead the Huskers in recovering fumbles.

Iowa State offense was somewhat hampered by the weather and aggressive Husker defense men. Weeks led the Cyclone attack and played fine ball although his passing was held down.

Cagers May Take Title Says Good

Coach Harry Good seems optimistic at Nebraska's basketball chances this year. Even tho the team's high scorer, Claude Retherford, graduated along with Keny Anderson, and Rod Cox, the team still has a good chance in the conference," he said.

Dick Schleiger, reserve center, last year, has decided that due to his heavy academic work he will not play this year.

Some of the returning letter men are Joe Malecek, forward; Bus Whitehead, last years' starting center; Dick Srb, forward; Bob Cerv, guard; Bob Pierce, center, and Hank Cech, guard.

Three men are back this year that did not letter as varsity members. They are Ray Jussel, forward; Larry Walsh, guard, and Bob Gates, guard.

The freshmen that are now on the varsity are Al Blessing, center; Jim Buchanan, and Andy Buntten, guards; Jim Fulford, Gerard Walton and Norman Wilnes, forward.

'49 Grad Writes Magazine Article

A resume of "three quarters of a century of continuous publication of a leading weekly newspaper" is the subject of an article by Charles Apgar, '49 graduate of the University of Nebraska, which appears in the November issue of the National Publisher.

The story, which is reprinted from The Nebraska Newspaper, is an account of a father-son team which has published the Nebraska Signal at Geneva, Nebraska for the last 75 years. The present editor, Tyler Edgcombe, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska Ag college.

The National Publisher is the official publication of the National Editorial association. The treasurer of the Association is Arthur Gardner, editor and publisher of the Crete News of Crete, Nebraska.

games this year, which is a new record. The first home game is South Dakota State, Dec. 3.

Some of the non-conference teams that are expected to be tough are Bradley University, of Peoria, Illinois, and Baylor.

The most outstanding conference team is Kansas State. The Wildcats will be particularly hard to beat at home. Their court is small and cramped and will be quite a change from the Cornhusker's gym.

The usual pre-season tournament will be held from Dec. 27 to the 30th at Kansas City.
