With Tongue in Cheek

At long last, staid, sophisticated Nebraska University has awoken to the needs of its more progressive undergraduates. The germs of progressiveism, so long dormant in the workings of the school, have finally taken seed.

The apostles of this cult have taken up a new battle cry. "Three-Two beer in the Union. Why give all the students money to downtown establishments with their notorious environment. Make the Union a piace for old soa-- friends to congregate."

This paper is glad to see changes of this kind taking place on this campus. If we continue this trend toward progressivism, we may well be on our way towards being a university for the students.

A special invitation has been issued to all students interested in this proposed plan to attend a meeting next Saturday at the Grove. The meeting is sponsored by the TN-- Progressive students party.

Hats off to Charlemagne Alexander Wolfgang Bimbo Clem. The first man to tackle an editorial without having anything to say! Although a brilliant man of philosophy (he got an 8) his articles are simple enough to be understood by the average alfalfa-seed PBK. This illustrious editor while able to rank high scholastically (in philosophy) and currently employed as janitor of the Mueller Tower and publicity agent of the Cooper Foundation, finds time to attend University Theatre and 7 a.m. Pep rallies. Perhaps you think that the editorial page suffers because of this abundance of outside activity. Such is NOT the case. On the contrary, these activities form the nucleus of his "editorial policy." If it were not for these activities we might well not ever have an article or editorial by our esteemed editor. Congratulations on your editorial eggs—may you lay them ever more.

Last week was the scene of various fraternity parties. "Hoot Hoot" made another comeback at the Beta "Balm Beach" party when he staggered in with grad "Ice Cold" Patty Guihn. Hugh Follmer, potential ex-pinmate, was seen chugging his bottle of hair restorer as he searched for his wandering date.

The Phi Deltis "Record" party found Clarence "Wistful" Gates passionately holding hands with one-time party girl Fran "The Search" Edee. "Dark Horse" Meginnis passed the evening running his 70 yard dash to and from the bar. "Points" McCann broke all records with blind date "Tish" Swanson.

Saturday night the DU's were stopping at their annual "Out House" party. Jack Asmusen, social chairman, was dateless. It seems every one of his women are now going steady. Howard Dennis also stag, was found off in a dark "hakstack" reading "The Murder in the Bathroom" or "Who Shot John in the Head?" Mel "Jobby" Johnson, big-time contractor, was swapping future party plans with Bill "Bashful" Brinkman, intermural favorite, while "Swedie" Hanson was humming the Alpha Phi Sweet-heart Song.

New Steadies.

Wes Kohtz and Marge Putt, Fran Nagle and Charlene Holcomb. Also "Boom Boom" Bloom and Jan Nutzman and Bob Phelps vs Ginny Koch.

New pin mates are Cub Clem and Erna Marie Trefz; Bob Reynolds and Emily Hiene; George Wilcox and Sara Fulton. Last but not least, Nancy Cremeens is now wearing the Farm-house pin of Keith Frederickson.

Question of the week: Who stole the T.N.E. stencils???? R.S.V.P. Pleeze!!

Girls, do you want activity points without doing anything to earn them? If so just become a member of Pan Hellenic. This group of high and mighty women dictate the policies of all the sorority women on the campus.

And what an active group it is; twice a year they make their annual announcements. The first announcement is already out, which is, "No sorority women may take part in the Homecoming parade." The second announcement will come in the spring and will sound like this, "No sorority women may take part in the Kosmet Klub spring show."

With the two above announcements the Panhell proves to the whole campus that they are nothing more than puppets; and, that they have no interest whatsoever in assisting the university in an "all campus" function.

The only reason given for the first announcement: "No participation in the Homecoming parade," is that the girls have too much work to do that weekend. Yet every fraternity, and organized house including female groups entered into the homecoming activities 100% (house decoration and float), and the Student Health Clinic didn't have one report of overwork, or of a nervous breakdown. Yet poor, frail little sorority girls are "just too busy."

Last year, to hear any sorority girl talk, it was the fault of the well known, woman dictator, Mrs. S. Now that she has been removed, girls, who can you blame? At the end of the "dictators reign" everyone was very happy and was looking forward to great achievements on the part of sorority women. But what happens, the same old trite announcement.

What is the trouble? Are our sorority women so weak-willed that they can't even express themselves, or is it that they are just too lazy to get out and work for the university.

The Homecoming week is certainly one of the most important events of the school year and the parade is likewise one of the most important parts of this memorable occasion. Surely the girls can exert as much effort as the men and the other women's groups do to make it a successful week.

Why can't our sorority women work for our University like women do on every other campus across the nation. Come on girls, stand up, and make everyone proud of the ingenuity and cooperation of our sorority women. Abolish this "do nothing" attitude and start pulling your weight. If you are bound so completely by the dictates of Mrs. Girard ney Mrs. S., surely there is one of strong enough to stand up and rectify the situation.

Just for a change let the second anual announcement read, "Any sorrority woman MAY take part in the Kosmet Klub spring show, if they so desire." Quit hindering the university and start building.

Tau Pi Sigma Reveals Plight

All despondent Corn Cob workers were today given new hope. For the first time it has been officially announced that the TAU PI SIGMA campus undercover fraternity founded last year by four frustrated and bitter ex-Corn Cob workers will this year take their first pledge class shortly after the Cobs announce their new members.

This fraternity which is exclusively dedicated to the tearing down of "Rally Tonight" signs and the destruction of all homecoming displays has been at work several weeks renovating the "roundhouse" which is to be their future home.

All those Corn Cob workers who have not as yet sold more than 10,000 N flowers or 3,000 yearbooks are invited to the Tau Pi Sigma smoker which will be held Friday evening in the men's washroom at King's.

Although it has never been officially released, campus sources claim that the true name of this organization is The Order of the Purple Shaft as nearly as it can be translated from the original Greek.
