Faculty Okays Class Elections

'Turkey' Vacation To Start Nov. 24

Students will stop talking turkey to eat it come 8 a.m. Thursday morning.

At that time all University classes will be dismissed for the annual fall Thanksgiving vacation.

At 8 a.m. Monday, Nov. 28, they will reconvene. Then 9,000 University students (and faculty, too) will begin to look forward to Christmas recess.

AUF Receipts Top $4,000 As Drive Ends

AUF smiles grew Monday as receipts for the campus' one charity drive reached $4,176.02.

Donations from student organizations, houses, honoraries, denominational groups, faculty members and special events swelled the totals during the past week.

Contributions pledged at the AUF auction have been turned in to Treasurer Ginny Koch, she reported, but about $40 is still out.

Proceeds from the AUF Carnival held at women's organized houses last Friday from 5-6 p.m. totaled about $50, said Miss Koch. Men attending the houses to dance and see special skits paid a 25c admission charge.

AUF receipts will be given to three agencies: the Community Chest, $2,000; World Student Service fund, $3,000; and Displaced Persons on campus, $500—if the AUF reaches a hoped-for goal of $5,500.

Dental Fraternity Names Pledges

Twelve men were formally pledged by Delta Sigma Delta, national professional dental fraternity, Tuesday, Nov. 15.

Those pledged were Phillip Curley, Frank Epperson, Doyle Gustafson, Gordon McKenzie, Harlo McKinty, Fred Novak, Richard Ott, William Pickering, Vernon Rinne, Thomas Robson, William Rutledge and Elvin Wilkinson, jr.

Filings Open For Senior, Junior Heads

Election of junior and senior class presidents has been approved by the faculty sub-committee on student government, and filings for the offices will open today.

Elections of the class officers had been postponed by the Student Council because of faculty action last spring which called off all campus elections. A meeting last Saturday of the sub-committee, of which Dr. Curtis Elliott is chairman, and the holdover members of the Student Council, authorized the election.

Filings Due Dec. 2

Candidates must file in the Student Activities office in the Administration building before 4 p.m., Friday, Dec. 2, in order to appear on the ballot at the election. The election will be held Tuesday, Dec. 6.

All students applying for the offices must be of junior or senior standing in their respective colleges, and must have an all-school average of 5.5. In addition, they must be carrying 12 hours in good standing this semester.

College requirements for junior standing are as follows; Engineering, 64-108 hours, inclusive; Civil Engineering, 64-108 hours inclusive; Ag men, 53-92 hours inclusive. All other colleges require 53-88 hours inclusive.

Senior Standings

Senior standing is defined as any number of hours over junior standing, if the student has not yet received a degree from the University.

Information which must be on all applications includes, full name of student, college, number of hours completed, number of hours now being carried. Grade averages will be checked by election officials.

Junior and senior class presidents' principal duty is the traditional planting of the ivy on Ivy Day. Last year's officers were Fritz Hegwood, senior president, and Bill Mueller, junior president.

Final choice of the officers will be made in the election. Only regularly enrolled juniors and seniors are eligible to vote in the election.

Theatre to Raise Curtain On Second 49-50 Production

Suspense, excitement, and murder will be the keynotes when the curtain rises Dec. 5, on the second University Theater production of the year, "The Two Mrs. Carralls."

The play, a psychological murder, is directed by Max Whittaker, and the cast headed by Margaret Dutton and Richard Guy, includes Elaine Ellis, Bob Pfeiler, Twila Walker, Janice Crilly, Bill Klamm, and Jan Kepner.

The set was designed by D. K. Smith, and requires two different interior scenes. The construction crew, headed by Virginia Seacrest, includes Harry Decker, John Thurber, Naomi Harrison, Jack Thornburg, Hazel Isaac, Ruth Ann Richmond and Nancy Lindell. Their work is building and painting the scenery and moving it during the actual production.

The sets, which consist of wood frames covered with heavy muslin, are constructed in the workshop in the Temple, and will be transported to the Nebraska theater Dec. 5.

Mary Miller is in charge of the hand props committee whose job is to obtain all movable props. The most difficult props to locate were an old fashioned French telephone and a certain rare type of orchid. The committee is still looking for a silver vacuum flask. Each worker on hand props is responsible for finding a certain number of props and seeing that they are put away after each rehearsal. Members of the committee are Elinor Bancroft, Sharon Fritzer, Lucy Laurence, Jo Jaben and Juanita Hagerity.

Production manager for the play is Clare Denton, a senior. As student manager, Denton will take over from the director two days before the opening night and supervise the actual production.

Denton said, "There will be

Publications To Install New Darkroom

Additional facilities for the three campus publications received a shot in the arm Friday when plans for a darkroom in the Rag office were formulated.

The proposed plans were passed at a meeting of the Publications board Friday afternoon.

The darkroom will be situated in what is now the business office of The Daily Nebraskan. New business facilities will be built in the southwest corner of the Rag office, in much the same manner as the Corn Shucks office.

Latest Equipment

According to Bruce Nicoll, faculty advisor to campus publications, the darkroom will be stocked with all the latest equipment and will make possible the developing, printing, and enlarging of all pictures taken by Rag, Cornhusker and Corn Shucks photographers.

Construction is expected to begin sometime around Christmas vacation. It is hoped, said Nichol, that both the darkroom and the new business office will be finished by the first of the year.

The action for the darkroom stemmed from the present difficulties of developing pictures in Burnett hall. Because of the overcrowded classes in photography, Rag photographers have found it almost impossible to develop pictures in time for publication. The new darkroom is expected to alleviate this situation.

'49-'50 Basketball Tickets Available

Students may exchange their 1949 football tickets for their 1949-50 basketball season tickets at the Coliseum anytime from Nov. 21 to Nov. 29, the Athletic department announced today.

No money is necessary to complete the transaction, but each student must turn in their football ticket in order to receive the new ticket.

A. J. Lewandowski's office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 12 and from 1 until 4:30 p.m. No tickets will be given out after Nov. 29.

OOO, LA! LA! PAREE—The Phi Gamma Deltas proved "There's Something about Paree" at the Kosmet Klub fall revue Friday night by taking first place in the eight-skit show. Against a backdrop of a Paris sidewalk-cafe, the Fijis sang, can-canned and played their way to a close victory over Sigma Alpha Mu's "History of Music." Shown above is a Phi Gam strutting a new French-style bathing suit, while French "natives" relax at one of the cafe's tables.
