Big 7 Host To Michigan ... in KC Meet

Basketball fans will get a preview of the 1949-50 Big 7 basketball campaign December 27.

Kansas City, Mo., will be host to the annual pre-season tournament of the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic association (Big 7).

The University of Michigan will be guest team for the four day event. The Wolverines won the Big 10 crown in 1948 and finished the 1949 season in third place. In their final court appearance of 1949 they defeated Illinois, the champion, by 15 points.

Oklahoma held the spotlight in last year's tourney as they easily took top honors. The Cornhuskers scored one victory over guest team Harvard and dropped decisions to Kansas State and Missouri.

Oklahoma will meet Iowa State and Kansas State will tangle with Kansas in the opening round. The second round will pit Nebraska against Colorado and Missouri against Michigan.

Tickets will go on sale December 1 with priority given to those purchasing tickets for all four nights.

Ticket prices are $1.00, $2.00 and $3.00 for night games and $1.00 for afternoon games. There will be no reserve seats for the afternoon games. Mail orders should be sent to Clyde Baker, Municipal auditorium, Kansas City, Mo. Twenty-five cents should accompany the order for mailing costs and insurance.

Agronomy Major To Attend Meet

John Wilkinson, Ag junior, was elected delegate to the annual National Society of Agronomy meeting Nov. 26 in Chicago, last Thursday evening.

Wilkinson, an agronomy major, is to represent the Tri-K club of Nebraska in the student's section of the national organization.

Tri-K initiation was also held last week with a total of 65 men joining the club. This is believed to be the largest initiation class on record.

Intramural Sporttalk

By BILL MUNDELL

Only one bowling team remained unbeaten as the Intramural play reached the half-way mark. Cotner House is that team and is currently riding on top of the Denominational league with eight wins. The Christians took three straight from the Methodists last week to up their total.

Sigma Nu lost their first game of the year, going down in front of Kappa Sigma in the third game of their match after winning the first two. The 2-1 victory left the Sig Nu's still far out in front in Fraternity league I with 11 wins to their one loss. The Kappa Sigs are currently in second spot with a 7-5 record.

The Pros also suffered their first defeat last week in taking a 2-1 victory. The loss dropped the Pros into a tie for first with the fast rising Nisei who won three straight from Phi Delta Phi. Both have 11-1 records. Alpha Kappa Psi is the third place team with a 9-3 record.

Sig Alphas Gain Tie.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon dropped the AGR's 2-1 to climb into a first place tie with Zeta Beta Tau in Fraternity league II. The ZBT's were at the same time helping the Sib Alph cause, losing 1-2 to Pioneer Co-op. Both leaders now sport records of nine wins and three losses and Pioneer is in third position with a record of 8-4.

Phi Gamma Delta increased their narrow lead in league IV by dropping one contender, Delta Tau Delta, two games to one. The other contender, Phi Kappa Psi, was at the same time dropping two games to Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Phi Gams now hold a 10-2 record while the Phi Psi's and Deltas are two games behind with 8-4.

Theta Xi's lead in league III was increased when they won over Beta Sigma Psi, 2-1, while second place Delta Sigma Pi was losing to the lowly Phi Deltas, 1-2. Theta Xi now has a two game margin over the Delta Sig Pi's with a 10-2 record to date.

Dorm C—Geology Battle Looms

The Independent Volleyball championship will be decided before Thanksgiving when unbeaten Geology meets once beaten Dorm C in the last game for each team. The two teams won Monday night to set the stage for the crucial game. Dorm C walloped Nebraska Co-op 11-1, 11-3, 8-11 for their victory while Geology received a forfeit from Ag Men's Club.

Remember, everyone. The Indoor track meet begins the first day after Thanksgiving Vacation with the prelims of the 50 yard dash at 5 p. m.
