Movie Goers To View Tale International Of 'Red Shoes' Enrollment

childhood stories will come to life before Lincoln movie audiences Dec. 6 to 11 with the screening of Hans Christian Andersen's story "The Red Shoes

The classic Andersen tale has been used as a basis for a screen play using unique technicolor with elaborate singing and ballet scenes.

The story has been put to double use by the co-writers, producers-directors Michel Powell and Emeric Pressberger. The basic plot has been adapted to a con-temporary romance which forms the overall film story, and in addition it is used in its original form as the parallel theme of a full-length ballet presented in its entirety as a "story-without-a-

Produced in England the film is one of the longest in recent years, with a running time of two hours and 13 minutes. The film won Academy Award recognition for 1949 in three classificationsbest color art direction; best musical score for a dramatic picture, and best color set decoration. Stars of the film are Anton Wal-

brook, Marius Goring, Moira Shearer, Robert Helpmann, Leonide Massine, Albert Basserman, Ludmilla Tcherina and Esmond

The film will be shown twice daily for six days at the Varsity

World Traveler To Give Lectures

Robert Finley, world traveler and former inter-collegiate boxing champion, will give a series of three lectures at the Univer-sity November 29, 30 and De-

Sponsored by the Inter-Varsity Christian fellowship, Finley will speak in parlors A of the Union November 29; on Ag campus November 30; and in Room 315 of the Union December 1. All meetings will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Finley, who has studied at the University of Chicago Divinity school, is a 1944 graduate of the University of Virginia. At Virginia, he was president of the student body and was an Eastern Intercollegiate boxing champion in the 155-pound class,

YWCA Opens Craft Shop

Christmas present of Dresden craft are recommended by the YW which has opened a craft shop on the third floor of Ellen Smith hall.

The shop will be open to everyone from 3 to 5 p. m. on Singers to Give Wednesday and Thursday, and from 9 to 11:30 a. m. every Saturday until Christmas,

All materials for the work may purchased from the Y. which present their annual Christmas be purchased from the Y, which is able to sell them for less than the stores downtown. The fig-urines are of various sizes and range in price from 25 cents up to several dollars.

Union to Wind Up Football Movies

Details of the Huskers' last game of the season last Saturday. will be shown in the final Campus Quarterback film Wednesday noon, in the Union main lounge.

The final photographic record will be the ninth of a series which has been given the last eight Wed-

Provided by the Athletic department, the movies have been featured by the Union's general entertainment committee.

Bob Mosher, committee sponsor, stated that the weekly sessions have been successful and will probably be continued next year

Y Lines up Plans For Xmas Party

The traditional "Hanging of the Greens" will be held Nov. 30, at 7 p.m. in Ellen Smith hall, according to Beth Wilkins, chairman.

For students unfamiliar with this annual event, each year the YW decorates Ellen Smith hall for the Christmas season, This is followed by a program and dessert supper. One may attend the "Hanging of the Greens" by invitation only.

NU Boasts

Five hundred eighteen Nebraska communities, every state in the union, and 38 foreign countries send students to the University of Nebraska.

On the basis of University student enrollment to home-town, 1940 population, these Cornhusker communities lead the list:

From communities of less than 1,000 population-Roca, 17; Saronville, 6; Virginia, 6; Unadilla, 9, and Phillips, 8.

Communities between 1,000 and 5,000—Cambridge, 22; Ashland, 33; Weeping Water, 21; Osceola. 19, and Albion, 29.

Communities between 5,000 and 10,000—York, 52; Fairbury, 55; Nebraska City, 55; Columbus, 48, and Falls City, 38.

Communities over 10,000 population—Lincoln 2,680; Fremont, 91; North Platte 92; Beatrice, 74; Scottsbluff, 78; Grand Island, 124. Lincoln Tops List

On a basis of enrollment alone these towns top the list—Lincoln, 2,680; Omaha, 740; Grand Island, 124; North Platte, 92; Fremont, 91; Scottsbluff, 78; Hastings, 76; Beatrice, 74; Nebraska City and Fairbury, 55; York, 52; Norfolk and Seward, 50; Columbus, 48; Lexington, 45; Broken Bow, 41, Ord, Kearney and Holdrege, 38 each; Falls City and Alliance, 37

The Lincoln enrollment total is not strictly accurate. University officials say because over 500 married World war II veterans whose home towns are in other Nebraska towns list Lincoln as their official residence while in Total number of Nebraska students for the current semester is 7,689. The grand total of 9,359 includes the following-out-ofstate students, 1,051; foreign, 112.

The home town figures do not include 507 students enrolled in the University's College of Medicine and School of Nursing in Civil Service . . .

Continued from Page 1 be accepted from students who expect to complete required courses not later than June 30, 1950. Applicants will be required to take written examinations.

Written tests will also be required for the positions in physical science aids. In addition for positions paying $2,450 and above, applicants must have had from to 4 years of appropriate experience in physical sciences. Applications are due Dec. 13, 1949.

Further information and applications forms may be obtained from most first and second-class postoffices, and from civil serv-ice regional offices.

Carols concert Sunday, Dec. 4, under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westbrook

Two concerts will be presented this year in the Union ballroom at 3 and 4:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Union Music committee, the Singers will present songs for the Christmas season. Rod Riggs is chairman of the Music committee and Marcia Pratt is sponsor.

Free tickets will be available in the Union Activities office upon presentation of student identifica-

Air Force ROTC Group to Initiate

The Arnold Society, new air ROTC honorary, will hold initiation of new members in the lounge of the Military and Naval Science building Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m. Cadet Colonel Kinsey will

With the advent of the Air Force ROTC program, which was recently introduced on the University campus, this military honorary was formed last fall. It was named after the famous war time leader, Hap Arnold. The purpose of the organization is to familiarize both the military and the general public with the Air Force and its many functions in peace and war. It has accomplished this by securing prominent civilian and military leaders to address members and guests at regularly scheduled meetings.

U.N. . . .

Continued from Page 1 assembly. They may apply in the same manner as houses.

The fifty-nine member countries to be represented are:

Afghanistan, Argentina, Australia, Bei-glum, Bolivia, Brazil, Burma, Byelorus-sian Soviet, Socialist Republic, Cauada, Chile, China, Columbia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Czechosiovakia, Denmark, Dominican Re-public, Ecuador, Egypt, El Salvador, Ethio-pia, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haitl. Honduras.

pola, France, Greece, Guanda Pila, France, Greece, Guanda Honduras.
Iceland, India, Iran, Iraq, Lebanon, Liberia, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippine Republic, Poland.
Republic, Poland.

tan, Panamia, Paraguay, Peru, Pmilippue Republic, Poland. Saudi Arabia, Slam, Sweden, Syrla, Tur-key, Ukrainian Soviel, Socialist Republics, Union of South Africa, Union of Soviet, So-cialist Republics, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay, Venezuela, Yemen, Yugo-slavia, Palestine.

Judges to Attend Stock Exposition

The University livestock and meats judging teams will represent the state at the 50th Annual International Livestock exposition in Chicago, beginning Saturday,

Members of the livestock judging team, coached by Prof. M. A. Alexander, include Gervase Franke, Stanley Lambert, Don Popken, Robert Eggert and Art Strumpler.

The meats judging team, coached by Prof. Charles Adams, in- point of the occupation of Gercludes Grant Cornelius, Merwin many; and the naming of the French and Loren Schmit.

While in Chicago, Prof. Alexander and several members of the subscription campaign is still unteams will attend the national meeting of the Block and Bridle club, of which he is national president. Prof. Adams will attend dent or by writing to the "UN a session of the American Society of Animal Producers.

Second Cosmo Paper to Come Out Thursday

The second issue of the "UN Cosmopolitan" will go into the mails Thursday, Walter Willi, editor, announced Tuesday.

Feature story in this issue will be "Night Over Prague," an article by Vladimir Lavko discuss-ing the political situation in Czechoslovakia which led first to the German and then, eight years later, the Russian occupation of that country.

The Indian situation is covered with a group of articles including: "Nehru and Indian Public Opinion," "Kashmir and the Cows," (the conflict between the Moslems and Hindus) and an article on Pagore, Indian poet.

Susie Reed writes of the "Operations of NUCWA," and Sue Allen discusses the model United Nations conference to be held here next spring in her story entitled "Conference in Operation."

Other articles include, "Gov-ernment for a Day," by Claude Hannezo; and Dean Krasomil's discussion of the American viewcosmopolitan of the month, Willi reminds students that the derway. Subscriptions for the year are one dollar, and can be purchased from any foreign stu-Cosmopolitan" in care of the

Cosmo's to Hear UN Observer

Mrs. Gladys Walser, staff member of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will speak at the Cosmopolitan club meeting Wednesday, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p. m. at the Union, about her work as a United Nations section observer.

Mrs. Walser has traveled widely, has been to Japan and spent last summer in Europe.

Eligible Bachelor Election Dec. 1

Mortar Boards have announced that the all-student election of Eligible Bachelors will be held Thursday, Dec. 1. Balloting will be held from 9-6 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall and on Ag campus.

The list of candidates will be disclosed following Thanksgiving

Christmas

Singly or Assorted. With or Without Imprinting

Also Christmas Letter Sheets See this large selection before you buy.

Goldenrod Stat.onery Store 215 North 14th Street

At Miller's

TO MATCH YOUR HOLIDAY MOOD

SMART SPORT COATS

To go with that carefree "holiday feeling"...handsome, leisurely-mooded sport coats in rich gaberdines, fine tailored wools, soft tweeds. Terrific gift for yourself. ... or the grandest man you know.

HOLIDAY, by Ratner of California shown above. Perfectly tailored of Grey or Brown 100% wool flannel, smart length, four patch pockets,

GABERDINES, in easy-wearing wool-rayon mixture, rich shades of Brown or Grey, 22.50

TWEEDS, all wool with fine burly texture. Grand looking in Blue or Brown.

Hard to Fit Sizes 36 to 41 May Be Special Ordered MEN'S SHOP-First Floor

Miller & PAine