Huskers, Rabbits Meet Saturday

Nebraska, 1948-49 Big Seven co-champions, will try for their first win of the 1949 season Saturday as the Cornhuskers entertain the Jackrabbits of South Dakota State.

Heading the list of South Dakota State players is Capt. Don Bartlett, 6-0 forward from Centerville, South Dakota. As a freshman in 1947, Bartlett scored 12 points against the Huskers.

The Sodak quintet, after losing their opening game to a strong Mankato Teachers team, 38-37, proposes a serious threat to the Cornhuskers hopes for an easy victory.

Other starters for the Jackrabbits are Kermit Nelson, Robert Murphy, Herb Bartling and Bill Cook.

Nelson, 6-1 junior from Brookings, will be playing opposite Bartlett in a forward slot.

Two-Man Affair

The South Dakota State scoring machine is a two-man affair with Bartlett and a Bartling doing themselves justice in field goal statistics for the Jackrabbits.

The man picked to hold down Nebraska's All-Big Seven center, Bus Whitehead, is 6-6 Cook, veteran center for the Sodak five.

Filling out the first quintet is Murphy, the only sophomore on the squad, and his 6 feet boosts the Jackrabbits height average to better than 6 feet.

Leading the Huskers in their first appearance, Anton Lawry will start at forward and also as game captain for the Huskers. At 6-3 Lawry, a two time letterman, should use his height to good advantage in rebounding under both boards.

Last Season

Two of the first five, Bob Cerv and Bus Whitehead, will be playing their last season for the Cornhuskers. Last year Cerv and Whitehead were regular members of the winning Nebraska team and together they contributed a total of 454 points, which proved influential in the Big Seven title race.

Joe Malecek, forward defensive giant for the Huskers, will start the Sodak encounter opposite game captain Lawry.

The remaining guard position on the Nebraska squad will be filled by either Bob Gates or Larry Walsh.

Coach Harry Good will be hoping for a one-sided score in the Husker-Jackrabbit clash in order to give the sophomores on the Nebraska team a chance to prove their ability under actual game conditions.

Frosh Clash in Intra-squad Tilt Saturday

The frosh basketball team will play an intra-squad game at 5:50 p. m. on Saturday, Dec. 3, in the Coliseum.

Coach Tony Sharpe said that the frosh were slated to play the "B" squad in a preliminary game to the university game with South Dakota State Teachers college, but the plans were changed because, as of Tuesday, the "B" squad is unprepared to field a team.

The frosh team has been working mostly on fundamentals. Coach Sharpe implied, so the game Saturday should indicate very little as far as team play is concerned.

The team suffered its first cut this week. Twenty-three men remain on the team.

tin, Neal Prince, Gil Rosenberg, Jack Skull, Charles Stickels and Bill Wilson.

Eight men from the Frosh football team joined the team last week. These were Bob Reynolds, Ted Connor, George Paynich, Jack Ladds, Duane Huenecke, Kay Curtis, Ralph Meston and Faley Pickering.
