

St. Nick to Perform For Union Parties

Santa Claus will appear in his full glory Wednesday, Dec. 13, at the Union when the old-fashioned Christmas spirit is scheduled to prevail.

This was the announcement of the special activities committee which stated the old man will be present at the two events of the day.

A Christmas Open House will

Cosmo Paper Editor Hits Asia Politics

Walter Willi, editor of the U N Cosmopolitan, bears the major responsibility for that publication.

In his editorial, "Lest We Forget," which appears on the first page of the November issue of Cosmopolitan, Willi points out that "political indifference and unawareness have to a great part opened the way for political systems directed against the essential freedoms of mankind."

Let this serve as a reminder to those who would shirk their political responsibilities in pursuit of personal pleasures.

Hindu-Moslem Conflict.

In an article on "Kashmir and the Cow," also appearing in the current issue of the Cosmopolitan, the editor remarked that the Kashmir conflict "is a conflict between the Hindu and Moslem, which, in other words, means that the Hindu wants to worship and adore the cow while the Moslem wants to eat it." This is followed by a more detailed discussion of the hows and whys of the strife.

Cosmopolitan of the month is Sonia Sookdeo, a Hindu girl from Trinidad in the West Indies. Of Lincoln, Sonia says she likes it "especially its neatness. 'People,' she says, 'are always very friendly and show a great interest in improving their knowledge about other people and their customs.'"

NUCWA Explained.

Other articles include an explanation of NUCWA by Susan Reed, publicity chairman of the group and a managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan. Vladimir Lavko, in an article entitled "Night Over Prague," discusses incidents in Czechoslovakia relative to the theme of this month's Cosmopolitan.

Articles by Dean Krasomil and Claude Hannezo, a feature of Pandit Nehru, and various miscellaneous items complete the edition.

NU Cosmopolitan is a monthly publication of the Cosmopolitan club. Subscriptions may be procured from members or by writing the club in care of the Union. Subscription rate is $1 per year.

Law Hopefuls to Take Tests Friday

Aptitude tests for admittance into Law College will be given Friday and Saturday of this week. The examinations are being given mainly for those students who will graduate in January.

Students who are interested should report immediately to the Dean's office, Room 208 of Law College, to get their application blanks.

be in order from 7:30-10:30 p. m. The theme will be "an old-fashioned Christmas party."

Bob Russell, chairman, explained that a varied program will be presented in different rooms of the building.

Music By Mayburn

Jerry Mayburn and his orchestra will offer music for dancing in the ballroom. In another room, movies, including several shorts, will be shown.

A special vaudeville program may be seen in Parlors A, B, and C. Directly above, in Parlors X, Y, and Z, Santa's laugh room will be located. For music lovers, special entertainment will be given in the music room.

Refreshments will be served in the main lounge while background music is provided by the organ. Later in the evening, Christmas carols will be sung.

The other big event of the day is the Kiddies' Christmas Party presented earlier in the afternoon from 4-5 p. m. Children of all faculty members and students are invited to attend.

Youngsters' Show

Slated to keep the youngsters busy is a "fun-filled program," according to the committee.

Movies, a magician's act, a Christmas story-teller, songs and a gift exchange are the activities in their order. Santa will be on hand to distribute the gifts. Each kiddie is asked to bring a gift worth not more than 15 cents.

Parents are also invited to be present. Coffee and cookies will be served. For those who live in Huskerville, special transportation will be provided to and from the Union.

M.B.'s Will Offer Ticket Special

"Now Is the Hour" will be the slogan announcing "bargain hour" Wednesday when Mortar Board ball tickets will sell for $2.95.

"Bargain hour" will take place sometime Wednesday at the ticket booth in the Union lobby. A sign will announce the hour during which the ticket price will be reduced from $3 to $2.95. Four Mortar Boards will run the booth at that time.

Mortar Board ball tickets will be on sale at the regular price all week in the Union. Jimmy Dorsey will play for the annual dance Friday night in the Coliseum.
