The Daily Nebraskan

Intercollegiate Press FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as as expression of students news and opinions only. According to article if of the 13 Laws governing student publications and diministered by the Board of Publications "It is the declared colicy of the Board that publications under its jurisdiction shades free from editorial ecasorship on the part of the Board, or on the part of any member of the faculty of the university: 'but members of the staff of The traily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say or do or cause to be printed. Subscription rates are $2.00 per semester, $2.50 per semiester mailed, or $5.00 for the college year. $4.00 mailed. Single copy 5c. Published daily during the school year except Mondays and Naturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the "ublication Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, starco 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1185, Act of Octobes Editor.

Editor.

Editor.

NU Calendars to Continue Sales Throuh Christmas

through the Christmas season, ac- Paine department store

cording to Nancy Porter, editor. The red and white memorandum and date book is being sold by Builders thru organized house visits, booths and campus book-

Deluxe Norcross Gift Wrap. Matching Tags, Seals, Ribbons

Goldenrod Stationery Store 215 North 14th Street

sales campaign will continue up town exclusively in Miller and

Priced at $1, the 28 page booklet, complete with fulf page photographs of familiar campus scenes has been designed to appeal to alumni, students and faculty of the University,

Miss Porter suggested that the publication would make a fine gift for Christmas. It is boxed, readyto-wrap for instant mailing.

Published for the first time last year, it is sold for the purpose of building up a scholarship fund, which will bring worthy students to the university, who might otherwise be unable to attend college.

Similar to last year's calendar, it measures six by eight inches, a handy desk size. In addition to campus pictures, there is a page Offer Scholarship devoted to outstanding Nebraskans. There is ample space for jotting down each days schedule,

VAN HEUSEN SHIRTS

Are Sold Exclusively in Lincoln at

Men's Store Street Floor

for your Christmas vacation ...

It's going to be a white Christmas in shirts and if you're going to do your home town up right, you'd better be well supplied. Popular daytime shirt is the wide-spread Van Britt with French cuffs. For evenings, it's Van Tux with French cuffs . . . white pique front and attached widespread or regular collar. Look your best this Christmas in Van Heusen shirts!

"the world's smartest"

PHILLIPS JONES CORP., NEW YORK I,

Sammannamann

Man of the

A tip of the hat to Ray Simmons, member of the Student Council and leader in the University party.

Simmons' letter to the editor, which appeared in Thursday's Daily Nebraskan, is the deed that singled him out for Man of the Week honors. An exposition of the University party's theory on campus politics, it is a credit to the party and the man who wrote it, whatever your views on the matter.

mittee of the council, of which Simmons is a member, also deserves credit. Its proposed Student Court is another indication something concrete.

The Daily eighth Man of the Week, Simmons follows: Dr. R. G. Rosenlof, registrar and director of admissions; Keith O'Bannon, business manager of The Daily Nebraskan; Prof. Karl Arndt, chairman of the convocations committee; Tom Novak, All-American center; John Connelly, editor of the 1950 Cornhusker; Prof. Don A. Lentz, director of the University band; and Roswell Howard, president of the Student Council

KC Organizations

The Kansas City, Mo., Board of Trade and the city's Chamber of Commerce have given the University a $50 scholarship to be awarded a college of agriculture student, it was announced Friday,

The presentation of the scholarship was in connection with the high placing won by the institution's crops judging team at the intercollegiate contest held at Kansas City last month. The team placed third in that event and won third placing in the recent competition in Chicago in connection with the international livestock show.

The team, coached by Dave Sander, assistant professor of agronomy, consists of James Mc-Dowell, Lloyd Wirth, Wayne Nielson, and Dale Flowerday, alternate. The boys competed against 27 students from nine colleges.

Classified

WANTED Ride to men-Call 5-9540.-FOR SALE Dark Moutest coat size 16.

Sacellest condition, Pair girls white shoe skates, Size 9. Fiber rollers, 4-3975, after 5, ask for Dorothy.

MEALS on Campus Special monthly rate, $30 Apts available soon for 2 or 3. 2-1458 or S. 2-4438.

ATTRACTIVE sleeping rooms for boys, newly decorated, innerspring mattresses, close in. Reasonable rates, Student's Hotel, 327 So. 11th St. 5-3020. ROOM and board for girl. Nice routs, breakfast, evening meat, laundry. Block from how line. Available now or Jan. 1. Call 2-5/2*.

FOR RENT-2 rooms, private bath, on campus, faculty, available Jan. 1, $12 per week, 2-4886.

WANTED Ride to Ran Francisco, Christ-mas, Call Elnine Roussin, 5-7532.

WANTED Bide back from Oregon, Call-forbia, or Washington at end of Christ-mas vacation, Oregon preferred. Call Lois Wild, 2-7971.

WANTED Bide to Wichita or Dodge City, Kansas, Dec. 16 or 17. Call Janice Bate, 2-7371.

WANTED Ride to New York City, will share expenses and driving. Call Mike 5-8085 YES, we have a targe assortment of quitted jackets, in gabardine, plaids, twills, etc. See them at AYERS, 1400 O St.

WANTED-Riders to Alabama, intermediate points, for Christmas vacation. Will share expenses. Ask for Herb, Phose 2-2506.

Nu-Med Cornhusker picture will be taken 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 12, in West Stadium,

MEET at the DIAMOND GRILL

A Right Step . . . The University Party, better of its own organization. This feel-come out into the open. In its letter to The Daily Nebraskan, the faction, which appeared in Thursday's isthe principles upon which it operates.

ways felt that a "sub rosa" organization has no place on the Nebraska campus. Such an or-ganization creates trouble and ill will. Now, however, the faction beyond the faction organization, cannot be labeled "sub rosa." It So, until some student or grou has told the entire student body its beliefs, proposals and dislikes concerning campus politics.

Many will still feel animosity toward the faction simply because in the student political scene. it can win elections as a result!

known as the faction, has finally ing, however, can only come from those who do not have ambition enough to organize and oppose

The write-in vote which won sue, that party stated completely Tuesday's election did not particularly show faction strength insofar as numbers voting is con-This step by the faction has cerned. Four hundred and sev-long been awaited. We have al- enty-one votes out of the entire junior and senior classes is no large number. It did show, however, that student interest in the election did not extend very far

So, until some student or group of students has the interest and ambition to organize and oppose the open faction, it has a perfect right to control whatever it can

FRITZ SIMPSON.

The work of the judiciary com- Six NU Coeds | Nearly 1,000 Gain Positions Will Register

Six University coeds have been named to represent Nebraska on Mademoiselle magazine's college board for 1949-'50.

They are Janet Kepner, Elizabeth Schneider, Nancy Porter, Emily Heine, Norma Chubbuck and Mary Webber. They are among 850 appointments from colcountry. Almost 4,000 students competed this year to join the B. college board.

The college board members will report campus news, fads and fashions in addition to completing three magazine assignments during the year. They will also compete for one of the 20 guest editorships to be awarded by the magazine next June.

The Nebraska college board appointees were notified last week of their appointments. Janet Kepner, a junior in arts and sciences was a member of the college board last year, Elizabeth Schneider was also a board member last year, She is a senior in journalism and president of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary.

Nancy Porter is a junior majoring in English and speech and is a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, radio honorary. Emily Heine, a senior majoring in journalism, is a member of Theta Sigma Phi. Norma Chubbuck is a journalism junior and a member of Theta Sigma Phi. Mary Webber, a new member of Phi Beta Kappa, is a senior with an English major.

Harvard Prof To Address

Dr. Kirtley Mather, professor of student group within the week. geology at Harvard University at 11 a.m. on the "Earth's Resources and Man's Needs."

Dr. Mather, who has six degrees from five colleges and universities, has been a geologist with the U. S. Geological Survey since 1919. In 1919 and 1920 he took part in explorations in eastern Bolivia. At present he is also chairman of the Scientific Book club, inc.

His other activities have included several positions in adult education work and as a member of the Newton School committee.

Books authored by Mather in-clude: "Fauna of the Morrow Formation;" "Old Mother Earth;" "Science in Search of God," "Sons of the Earth;" "Adult Education," "Dynamic for Democracy" (with Dorothy Hewitt); "Source Book in Geology" (with S. L. Mason); and "Enough to Spare."

Born in Chicago in 1888, he received his B.S. from Denison university in 1909 and his Ph.D from the University of Chicago in 1915.

Union to Sell Used Records

University students will be offered several second-hand records at low cost at a Union sale next Tuesday, Dec. 13,

The records, which are too scratched to be used on the loud speaking system at the Union or too fast to be used for dancing, include renditions by the Dorsey brothers, Stan Kenton, Sinatra and many others.

that the present Council is doing On Mlle. Board Today-Hoover something concrete.

About 800 to 1,000 students will go thru the first day of registration today, Dr. Floyd Hoover, assistant director of admissions, estimated today.

The second semester registration is scheduled to begin at 8 a. m. today beginning with numleges and universities all over the bers I to 100. All registration procedure will be held in Temporary

Dr. Hoover said that procedure will be much the same as it has been in the past. Filling out their class schedules and pulling their IBM cards constitute most of registering. Each student will register as his assignment card numbers are called.

The past week has been spent in issuing these assignment cards and meeting with advisors. Work sheets were also filled out during this preliminary registration, Fees will be paid Jan. 23, 24 at either the Military Science building or Grant Memorial hall, The definite site of the payments will be announced later.

Emergency Aid Expedited for Chinese at N

Emergency aid to Chinese students at this and other American universities is being expedited.

That was the word that Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, Registrar, received Saturday from the U.S. Department of State.

The awards are now being mailed, according to the department's communication. Dr. Rosenlof said he hopes to have the aids available to the local Chinese

The emergency aids were apwill speak at a convocation in the Union ballroom Tuesday, Dec. 13, ditional sum of four million dol-Linancial BESISTRICE undergraduate and graduate Chinese students in this country.

The State Department, in announcing the added grants, wrote: While the United States has no responsibility for the foreign students within its borders, the recent political and economic developments in China justify this aid, as originally requested by the Republic of China.

Block & Bridle

Twelve new members initiated into Block and Bridle, honorary husbandry club, Thursday night, according to Wilbur Pauley, president.

The new members are: David Armstrong, Roland Cooksley, Steve Eberhart, Dean Eberspacher, Bruce Guffey, Ralph Hild, Richard Hovendik, Roger Kreutz, Rex Messersmith, Frank Thimm, Jerome Warner and Clayton Yeutter.

Block and Bridle is a charter member of a national animal husbandry club which has 26 members in the United States. Every year the local club sponsors the animal husbandry department judging teams. In addition, it holds the Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben ball and livestock show, This show is a combination horse show and livestock showmanship contest. Over 2,000 pcople attended last year's show at the state fair grounds.