

NU Faces Heavy Vacation Schedule

There will be no vacation for the University of Nebraska cagers during the Christmas holidays.

The busy Huskers will play seven games, including three in the tough Big Seven conference tournament at Kansas City, while the rest of us are enjoying all the comforts of Christmas at home.

Boasting a 3-1 record, Nebraska will play their first game of the holidays Saturday, Dec. 17, against a formidable foe from Baylor college.

Always a front-runner for the Southwest Conference title, Baylor comes to Lincoln with a tall and speedy team. The only loss from last year's team is all-conference forward Jim Owens who is playing professional ball this year.

Don Heathington and Bill DeWitt are the offensive spark of the Bear attack which has been predicted to give Arkansas a spirited battle for conference honors.

Two days after the Baylor game in the second real test for the Huskers this season, Colorado college travels to Lincoln for a contest on the Coliseum maples.

Coach Charles F. "Cheerful" Finly will depend largely upon his high-scoring junior, Ellis Pritchett, when Idaho University plays the Cornhuskers at the Coliseum.

The 6-3 Pritchett topped his mates in the scoring column last year with 308 points in 32 games.

The Huskers will probably meet a lineup including Pritchett, George Rey, 5-9, Fred Stallworth, 6-6 center, and Joe Grove, 6-1 and Dick Geisler, 6-2 at the guards.

Weir Seeking Replacements In Mile, Shot

Ed Weir, head track coach, has two worries on his mind for the approaching indoor season. The first of these is where to find men to replace two of his key men lost from last year's championship indoor squad.

Dick Piderit and Bill Mountford, weight and distance men, respectively, have left a hole which the mentor finds hard to fill. The second of his problems is keeping the team as a whole from eating too much Christmas dinner and not getting enough real workouts.

Equipment with his boys may prove to be the added drive to keep them from gaining too much extra poundage. One bright note in the workouts of recent weeks was the outstanding performance of Sophomore Lee Alexander. Coach Weir states that Lee has run an anchor lap on the end of a 4 lap relay faster than any man since the great Red Littler. Unofficially the lap was run under 27 seconds, yes, 27 seconds.

Intramural Sportalk

BY BILL MUNDELL

Ron Clark, Husker varsity gridder, led the way in the low hurdles semi-finals Tuesday night, winning his heat for Sigma Phi Epsilon in the time of 7.7 seconds. Clark's time sets a new record for the 60 yard lows, breaking the old time of 7.8 held by four men.

Qualifying for the fraternities behind Clark were Frank Collopy of Alpha Tau Omega and Bill Henkle of Phi Delta Theta. Collopy was one of the four men who shared the old record.

Don Richardson, Alpha Tau Omega edged his team-mate Hobe Jones in the second heat of the fraternity lows, winning in 7.8 seconds. Qualifying third behind the two Taus was Dale Capek, Phi Delta Theta.

Presby Dominates

Presby House dominated the semi-finals of the Interdenominational low hurdles, qualifying four men for the finals. Record-holder, Glenn Beerline won the qualifying heat in eight seconds flat followed by two other Presbys, Chester Scott and Bob Shuler.

Bill Collopy, Newman Club, was the only man able to muscle a few Presbys out of the finals, coming in fourth in the qualifying heat followed by Presby Bill Mundell.

Dan Tolman, Dorm A speedster and holder of the Independent record, equalled his record and won his heat in 7.8 seconds. Following Tolman to the tape were Blake Cathro and Norm Scott both of the Student Union.

Jones Sets Pace

Hobe Jones, ATO, turned in the best time of the year for the one-lap run Wednesday night with an effort of 29.2 seconds, good enough to win the first fraternity heat. Bob Barchus of Sigma Chi and Irving Thode, Phi Delta

Pat Bussey, director of the intramural table tennis tournament, has again issued a warning to all quarterfinalists. Matches for the quarterfinals must be played before Saturday, Dec. 17. Failure to do so will mean a forfeit.

Theta followed Jones in that order.

Another ATO, Bob Hann won the second fraternity heat in the time of 30.1 seconds to give the Taus a decided edge in the one-lap run. Two Phi Deltas qualified behind Hann, Jim Lyle and Jack Anderson.

Chester Scott led five Presbyterians to the finals of the one-lap run, winning his heat in 30.2 seconds. Bob Shuler was less than a yard behind to take second place. Behind the two pace-setters came Glenn Beerline, Gerard Walton and Herb Lemon.

Blake Cathro won the Independent qualifying heat for the Student Union in 30.3 seconds. Two other Student Union men, Werner Kramer and Dale Schanackel finished second and third. Dorm A qualified one man in the person of Ken Nakagawa who finished fourth.

Delta Chi Wins

Delta Chi opened their basketball season in winning style Wednesday by topping Delta Sigma Pi, 27-19. Marion Sisley led the winners with 10 points while Schroeder of the Delta Sig Pi's had nine points to his credit.

Sigma Chi won their opening game with the Brown Palace by a score of 32-26. A second half spurt gave the Sig Chi's the win in a close game all the way. The half-time score was 13-12. Sig Chi, High point man in the game was Palacer Mel Williams with 10. Jim Abernathy led the Chi's with nine points.

One point separated ASME and Pershing Rifles in their game on Wednesday with the Engineers coming out on top, 19-18 after a half-time score of 12 all.
