Vol. 50-No. 71

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Wednesday, January 11, 1950

Huskers Nudge Jays by 57-56

FIRE SURVEY-An experimental fire drill in one organized house revealed an astonishing ignorance of exit methods among the occupants. The four girls "escaped" from their house, via the fire escape, for the first time.

'Rag' Experiment Reveals Need for Fire Precaution

"false alarm." The results of the der would have to be held down drill, part of a Daily Nebraskan to the ground. fire safety campaign, showed an Interviews with the coeds re-"alarming" need for fire precau- vealed that none of them had ever five girls to leave their house by at least four months and some fire, 38 girls would have to make longer. their way out of the house.

thing was in readiness for their be cleared before the girls on the escape. Under normal conditions second floor could crawl out the the girls would have to open a window and gain access to the eswindow and remove a screen, cape, The ladder also proved dan-They would have to shove a bed gerous during the drill.

Five University coeds found a out of the way from its place in Rag, test fire drill to be no front of a window, Then the lad-been on he fire escape before It took two minutes for only They all had lived in the house way of the fire escape. In a real of them had lived there much

The Rag experiment showed During the Rag's drill every- that the third floor would have to

Selects 13 New Members

Thirteen students were recently initiated into Alpha Zeta, mens agricultural scholastic honorary at their fall initiation.

They were selected on a basis of scholarship, leadership and character. Any Ag man who has completed 1 and 1/2 years of his academic career, is enrolled in the College of Agriculture, and who is in the upper 2/5 of his class scholastically is eligible for consider-

The new members are Edwin Brunken, Keith Frederickson, Robert Hageman, James Mc-Dowell, Erick Nelson, Leroy Nelson, Arnold Nieveen, Paul Obrien, Clifford Quick, Elmer Remmenga, William Steinkruger, Norman Williams and Jack Wilson,

Alpha Zeta was originally founded as an agricultural pro-fessional at Ohio State University on Nov. 4, 1897. It spread from there to 46 land grant colleges in all parts of the country.

Nebraska, which was the seventh school to join, was chartered on Jan. 20, 1904. While some schools treat Alpha Zeta as a social fraternity it is considered a scholastic honorary at most,

The Nebraska chapter has a total membership of 61 including the 13 initiates. Officers of the group are Merle Stalder, president; Stan Lambert, vice president; Jack DeWulf; treasurer; Ed Stauter, secretary; and John Wilkinson, reporter.

The faculty advisors for the honorary are Dr. Ephriam Hixson, head of the entemology depart-ment, Prof. C. W. Smith of the agricultural engineering depart-ment, and D. D. Deane, assistant professor of Dairy husbandry.

To Name Big Stories of '49

A feature of next Friday's Daily Nebraskan will be a summary of the ten big cam-Daily Nebraskan staff will vote for the stories they consider to have been most significant and news-worthy in the past two semesters.

Ag Honorary Bus Scores 26 To Top Scoring

Bus Whitehead disappointed those fans who were looking for a battle of the giants Tuesday night as he poured in 26 points as Coach Harry Good's cages edged Kansas University and their much lauded Clyde Lovellette, 57-56.

Rosenlof Sees

Roll Decrease

semester enrollment is not expected to be much over 9,000.

According to Registrar G. W.

Rosenlof, graduating seniors and an unusual drop in undergradu-

this figure and the 9,400 enrolled graduate college have been heavy, registration in Temporary B.

ISA Elects New

Vice-President

Don Flesher, junior engineer-

Student association council at a meeting of the council Mon-

He succeeds JoAnn Leaming who resigned because of outside activities. Flesher will automati-

Flesher is steward of the

The resignation of Roberta

Flory, treasurer was announced.

Her successor will be named at Pioneer Co-Op House.

the next meeting.

for the first semester.

semester.

graduates.

The 6-9 center from Scottsbluff topped Lovelette in all departments as he held the Jayhawk sophomore to four field goals and four free throws for a total of 12, far below his total of 20.5 per game. Nebraska trailed only once in the game when Bill Hougland made a bucket and Lovellette added a charity toss to give the The University expects 200 new Jays a three-point lead in the students to join its ranks second first minute of the ball game. Tony Lawry and Joe Malacek Even at this, the total second each made a basket to put NU in the lead 4-3 before two minutes had elapsed. The Huskers were never headed.

Whitehead and KU's Claude Houchin traded field goals and then the Cornhuskers, with Big ates cause the difference between Bus leading the way, started a fast breaking type of game that was reminiscent of last year's cochampions behind Claude Rether-Applications for the University

Bus Scores Twice

but a drop is anticipated in under-Buster scored two baskets on quick trips down the floor to give Registration for these new stu-dents will take place Friday, Jan. Nebraska a 10-5 advantage but Kansas with Jerry Waugh scoring 27. After meeting with their adon a long shot and a free throw visers, the students will pick up numbers in the Love Library lobby, and then complete their plus a set-up from under the basket, punctuated by Lawry's free toss, brought Phog Allen's stalwarts to within one point of the Huskers. Junior Division students will meet their advisers in the East reading rom of the library. Upper division students will meet in their advisers' offices. Over half of the Cornhusker scoring in the first half was done by Whitehead, Nebraska's man of the half century, as he connected for nine field goals in 12 attempts for a .560 average.

The secret of the success of the whole Scarlet and Cream outfit that torrid first half was their ability to hit the hoop. As a unit, 50 percent record. ing student, was named vice-president of the Independent

Nebraska held a substantial 34-26 lead at half-time and two freethrows by Bob Cerv and one by Lawry right after intermission boosted it to 37-26.

13 Point Lead

The greatest advantage gained cally become president in Feb- by the Huskers came with nine ruary following the graduation of Bill Plank, present head. minutes left in the game when scrappy Jim Buchanan took a pass from Cerv on a drive toward the basket and scored a set-up to give Good's cagers a 48-35 lead.

The next scene in the script should have been the collapse of

See Huskers, Page 3.

and Annette Stoppkotte head the cast between the hours of 9 a.m. slate for the Home Ec club election to be held Thursday, Jan.

Mary Chace

Chace, Marcia Adams 12 in Ag Union. Ballots will be Upsilon Omicron, home economand 4:30 p.m.

> Nominees for president of the club, Miss Chace, Miss Adams and Miss Stoppkotte, are juniors in Home Ec college. All newlyelected officers will serve during the 1950 school year.

Other nominees for offices as announced by Gwen Monson, president, include Pat Hanlon and Barb Glock, secretary; Edna Kniffen, Donna Pearson and Joan Raun, treasurer. These candidates are sophomores and juniors in Home Economics college.

Filling the slate for the office of historian are Marlene Ander-son, Karolyn Burton and Jean Vierk, freshmen members of the Candidates' Activities.

Activities of the candidates for president are as follows:

Miss Chace is present treasurer of Home Ec club, member of Ag Exec Board and member of Phi ics honorary.

Miss Adams is a Carl Gray scholarship winner, member of ington her freshman year. She is also a Home Ec club council member, chairman of the service committee and member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Mareia Adams

Miss Stoppkotte is a member of BABW, member of Home Ec club council, chairman of clerical committee, and an AG YWCA cabinet member.

All candidates for historian are freshman club members and Ag YWCA members

All-Member Vote.

Only members of Home Ec club will vote in this election. The candidates were nominated at a recent club meeting.

Second high candidate for the office of president will be installed as vice-president and the third candidate will hold a council office, chairman of one of ten committees.

They will be installed at the Feb. 2 meeting of the club.

Present officers include Gwen national 4-H delegate to Wash- tger, vice-president; Vivian Fraiser, secretary; Mary Chace, treasurer; Janet Ross, historian,

Annette Stoppkotte