BY RIMON KARABATSOS (Sports Editor, Dally Nebraskan) Hail to the Kings!

Pandemonium broke lose in the Coliseum Monday night as Maestro Harry Good's cagers staged the most daring upset of the 1950 Big Seven conference race as the Huskers dumped the Kansas State Wildcats 65-63 in an overtime Huskers sotput tussle that had the record crowd the south end of the court trying Pole vanit tussle that had the record crowd the south end of the court trying of 9,600 people standing practically the entire last half.

Bog Gates, with just three seconds left in the overtime, swished a spectacular 40 foot set shot to give the Huskers a well deserved, hard-fought victory that sent them into a tie with the Wildcats and Kansas U for the conference lead.

With 30 seconds remaining in the regulation time, Bus Whitehead pivoted around Clarence Brannum and swished a bucket to send the game into the extra period at 57 all.

Captain Brannum made the mistake of trying to stall out the remaining seconds and as the horn sounded Henry Cech tied the ball up. Rick Harmon drew first blood in the overtime with a drive in shot. Cech countered with the same after 1:15 had lapsed.

Langton potted a set shot to ve the Wildcats a two-point give the Wildcats a two-point edge. Whitehead passed to Joe Malecek who potted a jump shot. Harmon was fouled with 46 seconds left. Nervous as the proverbial "wet-hen", he strode to the charity line, shot, watched the hall roll around the rim and finally through the hoop for a point. Chuckling at his luck, he calmly sent the other gratis shot through the meshes to give the Wildcats a two point margin.

Brown Knots Score

Cech tried a long shot and failed. With just 20 seconds left and the Huskers two points be-hind, ole reliable Joe Brown entered the game. He passed the ball into Gates, took a couple of steps, received a pass and quietly netted a long shot to again tie the game,

Then came Gates' tremendous shot with just three seconds left. Kansas State took the ball out of bounds and Brannum tried a desperation shot from mid-court and failed

Whitehead again led the Huskers in the scoring column, get-ting 15 points-6 field goals and 3 free throws. Brannum was high for K-State with 14 Bob "Shorty" Pierce hit 5x6

field goals for ten points. He didn't do so hot at the keyhole, missing four free throws. Gates also hit 5x6, including the winning shot in the overtime

The lead changed six times the first half and eight the second and two in the overtime for a total of 16 times. Nebraska led 25-22 at intermission.

Whitehead gave the Huskers the lead as he sank his free after the game had gone for 33 seconds without a tally. Brannum netted a long shot and one far

Nubbins Lose 50-46

In the preliminary tilt, an injury-ridden Nebraska B team dropped a 50-46 decision to Nebraska Wesleyan B. Conspicuously missing was Context Al Blessing. The team felt the absence of Blessing un-der both backboards as Wesleyan controlled the rebounds. Two late spurts were not enough to catch the long shoot-ing Plainsmen crew. The Nub-bins trailed by eight points with the shotput. Jim McConnell opened the Husker point parade with a vic-tory in the shot. His winning effort, 46 feet 1 inch, was only two inches better than that of Charlie Toogood who copped second. Wayne Sees took third to give Nebraska a 9-0 lead, after which they were never headed. bins trailed by eight points with ten minutes left, then closed the gap to 38-41 with five minutes left. ## Bill and 'Gus' Vie.

An added attraction was shown the fans at half-time with head football coach Bill Glassford and Chancellor Gustavson doing the honors. The two had a kicking contest to begin the "March of Dimes" campaign. Chancellor "Gus," keeping his legs in shape by running for trains, treated the crowd to another upset as he beat Glassford. Yep, the Chancellor has a lot of hidden talents.

Opening the second half with tally was K-State, Stone hit long one and then Buchanan hit his shot from the charity-lane. Stone tied the ball game for the ninth time with two gratis shots. Whitehead captured the load for the Huskers with a free throw and Krone hit a long set

The Huskers hit 26 times from the field on 81 attempts while the Wildcats meshed 24x70. With just a few minutes left in the game, Brannum warmed up and threw, what perhaps was a new record for height, and hit the score-board dead center.
