

Kenton's 'Innovators' To Sound Off Tonight

Concert Starts At 8 O'Clock

This is the night!
Kenton enthusiasts will finally hear the maestro and his new 40-piece orchestra in their "Innovations in Modern Music for 1950" at the Coliseum at 8 p. m. tonight, Feb. 22.

Reduced student tickets selling at $1.20 were taken off sale at campus booths Tuesday and will be on sale only in the Union business office until 5 p. m. tonight. General admission at the door will be $1.80 per person.

A delegation of University students were among those meeting Kenton when he arrived in Lincoln early this morning. At 9 a. m. Lincoln newspapers held press interviews with Kenton. The Daily Nebraskan, Corn Shucks and high school reporters will interview Kenton at a press conference in the Union at 10 a. m., and Lincoln radio stations will interview Kenton on the air during the afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

Eleventh Stop

Kenton's concert at Nebraska is the 11th stop on his itinerary of 70 or more cities in his 1950 tour. From Nebraska, he will present a concert at Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.

Those who have heard recordings from Kenton's new album, have heard "something new in impressionistic modern music," according to Rod Riggs, publicity committee member.

Of the 40 musicians that Kenton is taking on tour, Kenton followers will have a chance to see some of their favorite musicians back with the bandleader. They will also see Kenton conducting an orchestra with a string section, the first time Kenton has ever introduced a string section with his orchestra. He has assembled 16 in this section—ten fiddles, three violas and three cellos.

Former Kenton Players

Those musicians making the new tour with their old bandleader include Shelly Manne on the drums, Bob Cooper and Bob Gioia in the reed section and Laurindo Almeida on the guitar. The fine fluting trumpets Buddy Childers, Chuo Alvarez, Maynard Ferguson, Ray Wetzel and Shorty Rogers will also be working with Kenton's new music.

Kenton's prize package of the concert, however, is June Christy, former vocalist for Kenton, who is making the 1950 tour as "featured vocalist for the maestro."

Featured Vocalist

Miss Christy, who has been embarking on a career of her own since Kenton disbanded last year, agreed to make the 1950 tour with the band, but will resume her independent career following the three month run. She is receiving $1,000 weekly plus traveling expenses during the tour. Christy fans will have their last chance at hearing the vocalist with the Kenton band when she appears here tonight. Coliseum doors will open at 6 p. m. tonight for the 8 p. m. concert. Admission at the door will be $1.80, tax included.

Colo. A and M DP Goal Short

Student donations for the Colorado A&M Displaced Persons drive fell short in a recent campaign to raise funds for two displaced persons to attend that school next year. Only $750 of the $2,000 goal had been received according to the preliminary account made Feb. 15.

Under the sponsorship of the National Student Association and the Student Council, plans have been made for one boy and one girl to attend Colorado A&M for one year.

Sigma Phi Epsilon is providing board and room for one student for the full year. Three other fraternities, Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, have offered board and room for one quarter each.

According to Miles Davies, student chairman of the project, the amount collected from the students and faculty to date should cover the necessary expenses of the two students, but the additional amount of $1,250 would lessen the burden upon the student and provide for emergencies.

"Almost all the students on the campus had a chance to contribute to the drive, but only about one-half of them did," Davies stated. However, two students definitely will attend this school under the auspices of the Student Council.

Electronic Jobs Exam Announced

The U. S. Civil Service commission has announced an examination for laboratory electronic mechanics, to fill positions paying up to $5,400 a year.

No written tests will be given. Qualified persons must show appropriate experience, ability and education in theory and principles of electronic mechanics work. The work would be in the vicinity of Washington, D. C.

Information and application forms are available at most post offices or from the Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D. C. March 14, 1950, is the deadline for applications.

UN Builders To Choose Officers Today

Officers of the executive council of University Builders will be chosen by outgoing Builders board members Wednesday from a slate of candidates chosen by the senior nominating committee.

Officers to be chosen include president, two vice presidents, a secretary, and treasurer.

Applications for the remainder of the Builders board will remain open until Monday, March 6, according to Jeanne Sampson, president.

Board positions which will be chosen include: directory editor, directory business manager, editor of Scarlet and Cream, Bulletin editor, conventions and parties, membership and mass meetings, new projects, campus tours, art and publicity, and two office managers.

Members of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes who have taken an active part in Builders activities are eligible to apply for board positions. Applicants must have a 5 average and be carrying at least 12 hours.

Application blanks may be picked up in the Builders office, Room 308, Union, any afternoon 1 to 5 p. m. They must be returned to the Builders office or to Jeanne Sampson, 426 No. 16 by Monday noon, March 6.

Business Frat Hears Grocer

Speaking at a Delta Sigma Pi sponsored dinner at the Union Monday night was H. W. Probasco of Grainger Bros.

Probasco discussed wholesaling in the grocery business and the professional commerce fraternity.

'Spiritual Training' of Lent Draws Pastors' Comments

BY JACK SAVAGE

As the sun rolls out earlier each morning, and the football team prepares for spring training, another sort of spiritual training is also approaching.

It is Lent the season that the Very Rev. Msgr. George Schuster in charge of Catholic student work, terms "a season of penitence and mortification."

He said further that just as the rugged footballers need their physical training to play next fall, all people need the "spiritual training" that Lent offers.

Catholic Services

Special Lenten Catholic services will be held on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and there will be special student masses at 7:05 a. m. at the Union during Lent.

Rev. John R. Lepke, university Congregational pastor, explained the Inter-Denominational Vespers services as "well planned services for the campus to meet the general religious problems of students."

The services will be held at Love Library on Tuesdays at 5 p. m. during the weeks of spiritual devotion.

Nut's Comment

"Lent is a period of forty days not counting Sundays, that precedes Easter. All thought during

Phi Delt's Win Christy Contest

Members of Phi Delta Theta fraternity will have a blond guest in their midst this noon.

As a result of winning the Union ticket selling contest for the Stan Kenton concert, the fraternity also won the privilege of entertaining June Christy, Kenton vocalist, at luncheon today.

The ticket selling contest was sponsored by the Union as promotion for the concert. It was open to all men's organizations, the group selling the most tickets getting the privilege of the luncheon guest.

Turning in 188 returns from the sale of tickets at the deadline Monday night, the Phi Delt's won the contest over a close margin from the Alpha Tau Omegas. Seventeen organizations entered the contest.

Featured Vocalist

Miss Christy, billed as a "vivacious blond," is featured vocalist with Kenton's 1950 "Innovations in Modern Music" tour. This is not Miss Christy's first tour with Kenton. She was also vocalist for the bandleader for four years previous to his disbanding last year.

However, she will only make the 1950 tour with Kenton. Following the three-month run, she will again embark on an independent career.

Miss Christy arrived with the Kenton orchestra early this morning, and previous to her luncheon engagements she will attend press interviews with Kenton.

Wendy Gauger, chairman of campus ticket sales, had charge of the contest. Bob Axtell is general chairman in charge of ticket sales.

New Course To Study Classical Arts

Classical literature, art, history and music will be discussed at the second meeting of the humanities series, which will begin at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 23, in Morrill hall art gallery.

Discussion leaders will be S. T. Vandercall, classics; Gail Butt, art; C. H. Oldfather, history; and Myron Roberts, music.

At the first of the extra-curricular meetings, which are planned for twice monthly, the group discussed methods of correlating the four fields.

Common Ground

Ideas brought out included E. N. Anderson's: "We are all human beings. Therefore, we must have something in common."

Benjamin Boyce, English, pointed out that unity cannot be attained by placing the arts side by side because given periods vary. For example, he said, the Renaissance did not come in all fields at the same time.

In commenting on the lags in music, Arthur Murphy explained that, although man could draw with the charcoal he had discovered, music remains dependent upon instruments.

Correlation Point

An attempt to correlate literature and music was the point that literature of early times was sung. One of the members of the audience, also brought out another idea that perhaps rhythm could be said to be a common element to all the arts.

Anderson noted that while there is great diversity in every age, there are common reactions in all ages.

Here To Stay

On the lighter side, Rev. Rex H. Knowles, University Presbyterian pastor, quipped, "Lent is here to stay."

Seriously, however, stopping to think of the history of Lent, one can see just why it is "here to stay." It did not establish its deep spiritual feeling without long centuries of men giving their lives to Christ, spreading His word to all the world.

"Since early centuries, Christian people have set aside the season of Lent for reverent and penitential study and appreciation of the suffering and death of Jesus Christ for man's salvation

'Virus' Attacks Colorado Aggies

A virus infection is believed to be the cause of a widespread influenza epidemic at Colorado A. & M. college. Over 1,400 Aggie students have been treated for the disease since Feb. 1.

Infirmary facilities have been increased to meet the emergency; however, classes have not yet been discontinued. The Student health supervisor has advised students to avoid crowds, drink fluids, obtain more rest, and to report any symptoms of a cold or influenza.

NU Grads Top Nebraska List In 'Who's Who'

University graduates are not without representatives in the 1948-49 World's Who's Who. A recent study of the list reveals that over 60 percent of the Nebraskans listed are either graduates or faculty members of the University.

Especially noteworthy is the fact that all political figures listed are graduates. Those listed are Senator Kenneth S. Wherry, Governor Val Peterson; Congressman Howard H. Buffett; and State Senator Roy B. Carlberg.

The list includes Guy N. Henninger, Earl J. Lee, Frederick L. Wolff, former U. S. Congressman Harry B. Coffee, Robert Ferguson, Leonard Hurst and former Governor Dwight P. Griswold. Others are Dr. Alfred J. Brown, professor emeritus of the College of Medicine; Dr. Russell Best; Dr. J. Dewey Bisgard; Dr. Edwin Davis and Dr. Frank L. Dunn.

Educators

Nebraska educators listed: John Jensen, Nebraska Wesleyan; Thomas J. Adams, Joseph E. A. Alexis, N. A. Bengston, W. W. Burns, dean emeritus of the College of Agriculture; William L. DeBaufre, H. G. Filley, Frank Z. Glick, and Dr. Robert W. Goss, dean of the Graduate College.

Dean Roy M. Green, of the College of Engineering; Norman L. Hill, Frank D. Keim, Frank A. Lundy, James C. Olson, George L. Peltier, James M. Reinhardt, Dr. George W. Rosenlof, Director of Admissions; and Dr. David D. Whitney.

Completing the list of famous Nebraskans are George W. Holmes, Ralph C. Lawrence, W. W. Putney, T. B. Strain, Arthur C. Travis and Walter R. Johnson, former state attorney general.

Fine Arts Dean To Attend Meet

Dr. Arthur Westbrook, dean of the School of Fine Arts, will attend the National Association of Schools of Music convention in Cleveland, Ohio, the rest of this week.

Dr. Westbrook is a member of the association's graduate commission, which sets up the requirements for accredited music schools.

The five-day convention will be spent in discussing the association's official business. The commissions will meet Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 22 and 23, and the other three days will be spent in general sessions.

The N.A.S.M. convention has been held annually, and is now in its 25th year. The University and Hastings college are the only two accredited music schools in Nebraska.

The graduate commission has many prominent men in the music field as members. Among them are Howard Hanson of the Eastman School of Music; Wilfred Bain, University of Indiana; Earl Moore, University of Michigan; Paul Oberg, University of Minnesota, and Quincy Porter, of Yale.

Dr. Westbrook was a member of the undergraduate commission for 2 years prior to his appointment as a member of the graduate commission.

New Plans Made To Pick Ivy Queen

NU Professors Give Reports On Grad Work

"The Graduate Student and College Teaching" was the topic of a panel discussion before members of the American Association of University Professors Monday night at the Union.

Dr. R. W. Goss, dean of the University graduate college spoke to more than 80 members on preparation of graduate students for college teaching. He emphasized the importance of prospective college teachers working with the staff in their own field, and reported on graduate students combining preparation for doctor of philosophy degrees and college teaching.

Borgmann Talks

Dr. Carl W. Borgmann, dean of faculties, told of the number of graduate students at the University doing part-time and full-time teaching.

A method used to aid graduate students in chemistry to prepare for teaching was described by Dr. B. C. Hendricks, professor of chemistry. Students, who are laboratory and quiz instructors, work together and have meetings to plan tests.

Dr. E. N. Johnson, professor of history, explained graduate work in his department. He told how graduate instructors at- tended lectures along with students and then taught quiz sections.

Chairman for the discussion was Dr. C. H. Oldfather, dean of the college of arts and sciences. A 20-minute group discussion followed the panel.

AUF Board Position Filings To Open Today

Filings for All-University Fund board positions will open in the Union Feb. 22 and 23. Interviews will be held February 25 and March 4.

Hours for filing are 10 a. m. to 12, and 1 to 5 p. m. Wednesday and Thursday. Applicants may sign up for interviews for director and divisions board on Saturday, Feb. 25. Solicitations board interviews will be held March 4, from 9 a. m. to 12 and 1 to 3 p. m. The advisory board and the director of AUF will be in charge of filings and interviews.

Ag Applicants

Ag campus students should file applications with Mary Frances Johnson at Love Memorial hall for Ag College solicitor or for the divisions board. She will personally contact applicants.

According to Mary Helen Malloy, advisory board chairman, all division heads of last year should file for director. The remainder of the group will become advisory board members.

Any freshman or upperclassman may file for a position on the solicitation board. This board includes the following positions: heads of organizations, organized houses, unorganized students, fraternities and sororities, faculty, denominations, honoraries and booths.

Dinner to Honor Foreign Students

The second International Friendship dinner of the 1948-50 school year will be held March 2 in the Union ballroom.

Designed primarily to promote good will and friendship among nations, the dinner also has been planned to give impetus to the model United Nations general assembly.

The combined sponsorship of NUCWA and the Religious Welfare council will head the affair, to which all foreign students will be invited.

House representatives to the mock assembly are being urged to ask the students from the countries they represent to the dinner.

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, registrar, will serve as master of ceremonies. The menu will consist of Ukrainian dishes and the program of various entertainment representative of foreign nations.

Campfire Girls Seeking Leaders

Miss Lucille M. Kardux, regional field adviser of Campfire Girls inc., will interview junior and senior girls in the University who are interested in Campfire work as a profession.

A meeting will be held for all interested women Thursday, Feb. 22, at 4 p. m. in Social Science 101. Personal interviews arranged at that time, will be held Friday, Feb. 24.

Miss Kardux is the representative for Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming and Colorado. She has had wide experience in college and university circles and in Campfire work, and will be able to answer questions concerning the professional aspects of such employment.

Senior Candidate Filings Open Today

A new system will be used this year to choose the senior woman who will reign over the Ivy court as May queen, May 6, according to Mortar Board, which is in charge of the Ivy court.

Filings will be open Feb. 22 to March 1 for senior candidates for the honor. However, there will be only one election this year. The candidate with the highest number of votes will be chosen Ivy Queen. The second highest candidate will be the maid of honor in the court.

No Primary

There will be no primary election this year as in previous years. The Queen and her attendant will be chosen by junior and senior women in the women's spring elections March 15.

Under the system used last year, there were no filings, junior and senior women nominated seniors from a list of all university women eligible for the honor. The top eight candidates were then voted on in a special election.

Applications this year may be filed in Ellen Smith hall and in 202 Ag hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Feb. 22 to March 1. Blanks will be provided, and should be placed in boxes provided by Mortar Board.

Qualifications

Qualifications outlined by Mortar Board include a 5.5 average, senior standing, enrollment for at least 12 hours, and active participation in campus organizations.

Candidates for Queen will be announced in the Daily Nebraskan at the same time as the election slate for AWS, BABW and Coed Counselor officers. Election results will remain secret until the Queen appears to begin the Ivy day ceremonies.

The remainder of the Ivy Day court includes two seniors, four juniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen, and two pages. It will be chosen by present members of Mortar Board from activity women of each class.

Last year, the Ivy Queen was Betty Aasen, and her maid of honor was Marian Crook.

'Joy Scouts' Will Smile March 6-11

Here's a date you can face with a smile.

National Smile Week has been scheduled for March 6 to 11, the theory being that anyone CAN smile—and too few do.

Joe E. Brown, generally ac-

JOE E. BROWN—Who's famous broad grin is boosting National Smile week, March 6 to 11.

knowledgeable as proprietor of America's broadest smile, is the booster and guiding light of this campaign.

"The idea is simple," says Joe. "It is just a week in which everybody is asked to concentrate on smiling and making someone else smile."

"Be a Joy Scout! Try bringing a smile of happiness each day to someone who is weary, who is troubled, who is ill or feels forgotten."

Top Comedian

Brown, top ranking among the world's dispensers of happiness, can speak with authority about the power of a smile. During the war, Joe's grin helped bring relief from pain to thousands of servicemen all over the world. He seriously backs this special week out of a conviction that smiling is good for the people who do it, and for the people who see it.

"Smile when you say that, 'garden'" will be the main response that week. At the traffic cop, the landlord, the howling children, the clerks and conductors, and—with nine days leeway—even at the income tax collector.

Union Bridge Meet Enters Final Play

Student participants in the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament will meet in the Union Friday and Saturday, Feb. 24 and 25 from 2 to 4 p. m. The play-off is to determine Nebraska's entry into the Western zone of bridge competitions.

Nebraska university entries are group into four teams. They are as follows: Team 1, Neil Atkinson and Steve Flansburg; team 2, Sam Leasher and George Corey; team 3, Walter Simon and Ajon Farber; and team 4, Pat Black and Suzie Pecha.

The contestants will be given prepared hands and the players will rotate until a winning team has defeated the other four teams. Tourney director, Bill Tyson, will be in charge of the contest.

The colleges are divided into eight zones with approximately an equal number of colleges in each zone. The Western zone includes 14 states with 45 colleges.

Winners to Chicago

The two winners of the Western competition will meet for the final round in Chicago sometime in April.

The N.I.B.T. is sponsored by the Association of American Playing Card Manufacturers. They pay all expenses to the tournament finalists who gather at Chicago but have no interest in the tourney other than to create an interest in the game.

The N.I.B.T. was founded in 1940 with 12 colleges in the East. The association branched out in 1947 to include all 48 states but had to resort to mailing bridge hands because of the friction with student class attendance.

The tournament is only open to colleges and universities accredited by the Association of American Universities.

Twelve Juniors Plan Joint Musical Recital

Twelve School of Music Juniors will present a joint recital Wednesday, Feb. 22, at 4:00 p. m. in Social Science auditorium.

The participants include six voice majors, three pianists, a violinist, cellist, and a flutist.

Featured on the program are a piano ensemble and a voice duet, Edward Bender, and Suzanne Koehler will sing "Rosemarie" by Friml, and Carolyn Waters and Gretchen Hemminger will utilize two pianos in one of Beethoven's concertos.

The complete program is as follows:

- "Rosemarie", Friml—Edward Bender, Kazko; Suzanne Koehler, Geneva.
- "Evening in Granada", Debussy—Martin Grosse, Turman.
- "Die Meistersinger", Brahms—Robert Wallace, Omaha.
- "Hora Staccato", Dariusz-Beltz—Kathleen Forbes, Lincoln.
- "Husman, Husman", Anders—Lloyd Lotenski, Lincoln.
- "Sonata in G Major—Grave", Beethoven—Kathleen Forbes, Lincoln.

- "My Heart is Woe—Nadereida", Thomas—Bonnie B. Blum, Miller, 5.
- "Cancero, Op. 37 (1st Movement)", Beethoven—Carolyn Waters, Council Bluffs.
- Gretchen Hemminger, Des Moines, D. D.

Two Ex-Huskers On Rotary List

The list of officials of Rotary International for 1949-50 includes two graduates of Nebraska.

Dr. Ben M. Cherrington, a graduate in 1911, is a member of the Rotary Foundation Fellowships Committee. The other Rotary official is Frank B. Morrison, a graduate in 1932, who is a district governor.

Dr. Cherrington, professor of international relations at Denver University, is a former Chancellor of the University of Denver, member of the executive committee of the U. S. Commission for UNESCO, a trustee of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. He is also a member of the executive council of the American Society of International Law and of the executive council of the American Political Science Association and president of the Colorado-Wyoming Academy of Science.

Morrison, a McCook attorney, is a past president of both the Curtis and McCook Rotary clubs. He coordinates the activities of thirty-four clubs in one of the four Nebraska districts.
