Only Daily Publication For Students At The University of Nebraska

Vol. 50-No. 118

Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben ... ChampionShowman Honors to Lundeen

Lundeen was named Gav Grand Champion Showman at the annual Junior Ak-Sar-Ben NU To Offer show Saturday night. He was chosen from five class champion showmen by Ed Janike, state 4-H 502 Courses club leader.

Lundeen placed first in the sheep showing and fitting class. His sheep, "W. P. Pride," won him the top honor given in the Four Different show. Lundeen's name will be engraved on a trophy presented by the Nebraska Live Stock Breeders and Feeders Associa-

Reserve Champ

Claton Yeutter was honored as Reserve · Champion Showman, having won first place in the beef showing and fitting class. showed a Hereford named "Martha Bocaldo 2d."

Other class winners and competitors for the Grand Champion Showman honor were Bev Shuman in horse showing and fit-ting, Ralph Hild in hog showing and fitting, and Bill Moore in dairy showing and fitting.

Second place winners in each class were Paul Stokely, horses; Dean Eberspacher, sheep; Dean Linscott, hogs; Marvin Paneitz, dairy; and Delmar Wittler, beef. Winners in the Coed Riding Western Style class were Jean McNaught, first; Virginia Baskin, second. This class was not judged on showmanship.

Alexander Honored.

Junior Ak-Sar-Ben is pre-sented annually by the Block and Bridle club. Prof. and Mrs. M. A. Alexander were honored by the club on their 16th annual presentation. Prof. Alexander served as faculty advisor of the Nebraska chapter from 1931 to 1941 and is also serving as national presi-dent of Block and Bridle. Present advisor of the club is Prof. C.

Adams.

Also presented at the show were the meat judging team, senior livestock judging team and junior livestock fudging team.

Taking the highlight in specialty acts were the trick horses, cialty acts were the trick horses, King of Diamonds and Queen of Hearts, owned by Ed Pillar, and ridden by Austin Smith, both of Scotland, S. D. Dancing to organ Scotland, S. D. bancing to angle and singly and music, they performed singly and together.

Four Different Sessions Listed

An extensive 1950 summer session offering 502 subjects has been planned by the University. The fifty-sixth session of its kind, the program includes four different types of sessions. Eight, six and four weeks sessions are offered concurrently. A post ses-sion in health education is also offered. offered.

Major emphasis is placed on the eight-weeks session during which students may register for eight or nine semester hours. The eight-weeks session be-gins June 6 and ends July 28.

The six-weeks session begnis at the same time and is completed July 14. Information revealing the courses offered was published last month and may be obtained by writing to the Di-rector of the Summer Session, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Courses in the summer pro-gram are equivalent in method, character and credit values to school year. The curriculum ranges from undergraduate courses to graduate courses lead-ing to the master's and doctor's degree. The work offered has been especially planned to meet the needs of all types of students.

Registration

Registration procedures are simple. Students are urged to complete the registration prior to June 7.

All undergraduate students en-tering the University for the first time should apply to the Office of Admissions for proper appli-cation forms. It is desirable to Housing facilities for both men and women students during the session will be available. The Residence Halls for Women will Another of the specialty acts was a working Border Collie, Lad. Lad, owned by Prof. Alex-ander and handled by W. T. Ezry, worked together with Su-sie, another Border Collie, get-tion the sheep through a gateway cerning cooperative dormitories and other types of housing, wo-

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS—Wearing the uniforms of the Con-federate army, Scabbard and Blade pledges open the Union doors for students as a part of their initiation. Pictured are: to r.) George Wilcox, Jerry Warren, Marilyn Stark, Fritz Picard and Jim Rosenquist. (Rag photo by Hank Lammers.) Wilcox, Jerry Warren, Marilyn Stark, Fritz

Medical College Admits those offered during the regular 84 Students for Fall Term

The University College of nango; Elwin K. Connor, Omaha; Medicine's first year class for the 1950 fall term is already completely filled. Eighty-four students, all but three of whom reside in Nebraska, have been selected.

The students accepted:

Allen J. Alderman, Chadron; Lee Bob Anderson, Grand Is-land; Phillip D. Anderson, heim, North Bend; Carl G. De Belly, McGrew; Robert W. Dela-plane, Omaha; Keith F. Deubler,

selected. According to Dean Harold C. Lueth, all of the students have accepted their appointments. The 84 students were chosen from 284 applicants. The selections to the Omaha school were made on the basis of high school and pre-medical scholarship, personal interviews, character, and scores in admis-the students accepted: The students accepted: The students accepted: The students accepted: The selections to the Omaha school were made on the basis of high school and pre-medical scholarship, personal interviews, character, and scores in admis-tion admission a neta; Lawrence L. Hyde, Com-stock; James S. Jeffrey, Gretna; O. Guy Johnson, jr., Omaha; Thomas E. Johnson, Alliance; Phillip H. Jones, Central City; Frank Kapm, Platta Contra Omaha; Alyce L. Bezman, Phillip H. Jones, Central City; 18. Omaha; Samuel F. Blattspieler, Frank Kanm, Platte Center; James E. Beal for Tobias; Edward A. Brewer, Edward A. Kantor, Omaha; Max identical with the Ogailala; William H. Bunstock, C. Karrer, Wilmington, Dela; against Darlington.

Faculty-Student Committe Airs Teacher Rating Plan Group to Examine Similar Junior Men Programs at Other Colleges Three students, one adminis-tration member, and two faculty members met Friday to deter-mine the nature of the requests by students for teacher-rating at the University. The faculty and administra-tion men were appointed by the liason committee between the faculty and administration. They are: Ephriam Hixson, associate director of resident teaching at Ag college; E. Roger Washburn, professor of chemistry, and Carl W. Borgmann, dean of faculties. Mayer Moskovitz, chairman of the scholarship committee of the

RI

LINCOLN 8. NEBRASKA

Junior Men All junior men with activity points are requested to sub-mit their names, addresses and telephone numbers to Merie Stalder, president of the Innocents Society, by 5 p. m., Thursday, April 13. This information should be left in the Innocents mailbox in the Union basement. Requirements for junior standing are defined by the registrar as follows: Colleges of Pharmacy and Law, at least 64 and no more than 100 credit hours completed; recredit hours completed; re-maining colleges, at least 53 and no more than 88 credit hours completed.

Youths Waive Hearing; Pay $40,000 Bond

The six former University students who have been charged with assault with intent to commit rape, waived preliminary hearing in Municipal court Fri-day and furnished a total of $40,000 bond for trials during the current jury term of Lancaster county's district court. County Attorney Frederick Wagener dismissed the first count of a two-count complaint originally filed against David M. Darlington and James E. Beal.

Darlington and James E. Beal. Fresh complaints were filed im-mediately against the two youths. Both pleaded not guilty and waived preliminary hearing. The effect of the new charges was to raise the bond required from each of the two youths to $10,000. It had formerly been $7,500 from each, $5,000 on the first count and $2,500 on the second. 300 University students were polled and 294 of them were in favor of teacher-rating. They were asked whether they would rate instructors objectively if a system were established, whether they thought teacher ratings should be carried out to a defi-they thought teacher ratings should by carried out to a defi-nite scale or on the basis of gen-eral criticisms in the student's own words, and whether they thought instructors would consider rating valid criticisms and as a result atempt to improve their with suggestions.

preliminary hearing on separate state complaints charging of-fenses against two 16-year-old Lincoln girls on March 17 and definite scale and 62 percent be-lieved that instructors would carry through their part of the system. Two hundred and ninety-four said they were in favor of objective rating. A majority of those polled felt that teachers would eagin her such a system James E. Beal faces charges identical with those brought Alan J. Bayley is charged with an offense on March 17.

would gain by such a system. In a poll of 43 instructors made Edward E. Angle is charged

University To Obtain Art Works

The Weather

Temperatures ranging from 60 tto 65; turning colder Monday; light showers Tuesday

Sunday, April 2, 1950

and Wednesday.

Mayer Moskovitz, chairman of the scholarship committee of the Student Council, was appointed by that body to head the sub-committee which met in Dean Borgmann's office. Betty Green and Bruce Kennedy, both Coun-cil members, volunteered to at-

Several art works which have been on exhibit at the 1950 Ne-braska Art Association show have been recommended for purchase for the Hall collection of the University. Trederick A. Sweet, from the Art Institute of Chicago, and Otto Karl Bach, of the Denver Art museum, made the recom-mendations. They are subject to approval of the Chancellor and the University board of regents. Paintings recommended are: John Heliker, "Mediterranean Landscape," oil; Everett Spruce, "The Desert," oil; Theodoros Stamos, "Scar Thread," oil; Mark Tobey, "Icon,"-tempera. Drawings Paul Klee, "Seeking Balance," watercolor and ink; Henry Moore, "Draped Reclining Fig-ures," watercolor and ink. Prins tend the meeting. Those present agreed with a suggestion by Dean Borgmann that a teacher-rating system should be on a voluntary basis if one is developed at Ne-

It was decided at the meeting that other schools would be con-tacted in order to determine the nature of various teacher-rating systems in use currently. A new meeting between students and faculty is planned for some time in the future. In the meantime, the committee will look over material gathered and try to de-Prints John Sloan, "Memories," etch-ing; Jose Clemente Orozco, "La Bandera," lithograph.

Sculpture

Gaston Lachaise, "Head of Marin," bronze; Marino Marine, "Horseman," bronze; William Zorach, "Adam," granite boulder. The Art association is also purchasing two maintened purchasing two paintings from this year's exhibit. One is "Church Above the River," by Raymond Breinin, and the other is "Noiraude," by Miss Cornelis Ruhtenberg.

Easter Holiday teaching in accordance Travel Bureau 64 Favor Scale Sixty-four percent favored a definite scale and 62 percent be-Open in Union

Are you wondering how and when you will get home for Easter?

Perhaps your worries are over if you use the Union's "Travel Bureau." The service recently established by the Union Activities office makes it possible for drivers wishing passengers, or persons desiring rides to make and into a designated spot.

Jumping Horses.

A j mping horse exhibition was highlighted by the perfor-mances of Ed Ackerman, Clyde Henson and Anita Ackerman.

The last specialty performance was a cutting horse exhibition by Jim Monahan and Jim Curtis. The cowboys separated a calf already announced, there will be from the herd leaving the work to the horses. Each rider was given three minutes for his cut-part of interested students, or ting horse exhibition.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Robert Raun. Show Manager was Stan Lambert. Lambert and Wilbur Pauley acted as co-ring masters.

Opening the show was Richard Hudson as he presented the United States flag, riding Dixie from the Colonial Court Stables in Lincoln.

The show was held at the 4-H arena on the state fair grounds.

'Career Days' Talk Monday

the Home Ec social parlors. The meeting is open to all students interested in a Home Economics career.

The meeting will be in the The meeting will be in the form of a report from those stu-dents who attended the HEIB's "Career Days" in Chicago April 24-25. Students who attended the conference were Lois El-well, Jean Fenster, Carol Hig-gins, Delila Holstein, Peg Mc-Geachin and Janet Pierce.

All five students are clothing and textiles majors. They plan to put special emphasis on the job opportunities in the fashion and textile world. Worcester's Men Fine Pranksters Worcester college has solv

National Organization *

HEIB is the national organization for Home Economics women in business. The "Career Days" conference is an annual program presented by HEIB in the larger cities throughout the country. Students from colleges all over the country may attend the con-ferences to get a better idea of the job opportunities available in the various phases of flome Economies nomics.

Leading women in each Home Ec field presented the picture of jobs in their field to the some 250 college students who attend-ed the Chicago conference. Such noted women as Martha Logan and Mary Mead were among the meakers

Students also were taken on students also were taken on tours to business houses perti-nent to their interests. Nebraska students visited the J. Walter Thompson Advertising Agency, the Chicago Daily News, Mer-chandise Mart, Elasnberg's, Mar-shall Fields. Aldens, Sears Roe-tack & Co., and others.

oratory schools, especially for teachers, and the Fine Arts All State course, especially for high school students. The laboratory schools pro-vide nursery, elementary and practice teaching. The All-State program offers a University ex-The show was held at the 4-H arena on the state fair grounds. Ag Coeds Plan Coeds Plan tions, programs in music, dra-matics and art featuring some of the nation's finest artists.

Bulletin Planned

"Home Economics in Business" will be discussed at a meeting Monday, April 3, at 4 p.m. in the Home Ec social paylors. The The Union in cooperation with and an outline of the University entertainment program such as plans of the physical education department.

The bulletin will be published in the early part of May. A complete picture of the sum-mer session may be obtained by asking for an announcement pamphlet at the Administration building, Registrar's office, or Teachers College building, Room 305.

Worcester college has solved the problem of what to do when college property gets damaged as a result of water fights, room battles and other dertruction. Fines will be assessed the stu-dents on the basis of a table of values. Thems damaged as a re-

Thes will be assessed the stud-dents on the basis of a table of values. Items damaged as a re-sult of prankish action will be replaced from a "kitty," which consists of the fine money and the damage replacement funds. Thus if a student should, in which in the forehead, break a chair, he shall not only pay into the "kitty" the cost of the chair, but also a fine. The college will from the funds available. The action was taken by the the college. The new plan in be-ing substituted for the college plan to assume control on all fining and property damage as-sessments, has been formulated so that the men's self-govern-ment council may better be able to maintain self-government and encourage more self-responsibil-ity.

Observance of the Holy Week will begin Monday night, when approximately sixty pastors lead discussions at campus houses and organizations. Other houses will be visited by religious speakers on Tuesday night.

Wednesday, the annual allcampus Communion service and pageant will be held in Em-manuel Chapel, 16th and U streets at 7:30 p.m. Students of all faiths have been invited to attend the service. Ministers and students planning the service have emphasized the fact that have emphasized the fact that students are invited even though they will not be able to take part in the Communion service. The Communion will be ad-ministered congregational style, (at the seats), by Jack Lepke, Rex Knowles, C. B. Howells, and Chuck Kemp. Ag and city cam-pus YM and YW members will assist in serving the Communion. Beninging the meditation pe-assist in serving the Communion. Replacing the meditation pe-riod at the service will be a pageant presented by the Wes-ley Players. The pageant, "Chai-lenge of the Cross," is a religious drama built around the meaning of the cross to all men. Each disciple represents a different attitude in the pageant.

attitude in the pageant. Students who will take part in the religious drama include Carol Joyce, Carl Howe, Greta Faye Mix, Paul Rundle, Molly Brittanham, at 4 Beatrice Smailes. The players are being directed by Richard Nutt, Meth-odist student pastor.

Alabama U Plans To Kill Cheating

The University of Alabama is going all out to try to "kill" cheating on their campus.

The new system, which has received unanimous approval of the college president and college deans, will try to eliminate cheating on examinations by al-ternating seating arrangements, by using alternate sets of ques-tions more grading on effort and tions, more grading on effort and less emphasis on final examina-tions, and generally trying to improve the personal honesty of all students on the campus.

un students on the campus. Under the new plan, students would take an anti-cheating pledge and would report all non-observance of the rule. Vicla-tors to the cheating han would be placed before the new student-court.

E. Lee, Lincoln; Harold L. Lei-tel, Omaha; Kenneth O. Leon-ard, Bassett; George E. Lewis, cerning cooperative dormations of the session are lab-reatures of the session are lab-cerning cooperative dormations of the session are lab-cerning cooperative dormation of the session are lab-cerning coopera

Omaha, Marvin M. Overholt, So. Sioux City; Clyde E. Penner, Benkelman; Byron E. Peterson, Inavale; John W. Porter, Ne-braska City; Leslie C. Potts, Ox-ford; Thomas T. Powell, Lin-coln; Stewart F. Richardson, Lincoln; Jacob D. Samler, Haig-ler; Charles J. Saults, Gordon; Allan F. Scheuneman, Swede-burg; Herman Shyken, Omaha; Gene T. Slichter, Omaha; Kayo Smith, Bayard; Glenn O. Sobeal-avsky, Clarkson; Robert C. Speckhals, Nebraska City; Wes-ley F. Springer, Omaha; Har-low D. Standage, Phillips; Clar-ence H. Swanson, jr., Columbus, Mont; Otto S. Troester, Hamp-ton; Hiram R. Walker, O.leans; Vernon G. Ward, Pallsade; Jack D. Welsh, Sidney; Gerald D. Young, jr., Lexington.

with an offense on March 18. It is also charged that the two affairs took place in his home. Don L. Eicher is charged with an offense on March 17. Robert W. Fulk is charged with an offense on March 17. Those who came later than 9 a.m. Friday to watch the proceedings were turned away be-cause of the crowd already in the courtroom. The county attorney says he expects to file information against the group in district court Saturday and hopes to ar-raign them Tuesday.

NU Alum to Head Infantry Division

Major James F. Kudrna, grad-uate of the University college of Business Administration in 1939, has been assigned as G-3 of the 10th Infantry Division, replacing Lieutenant Colonel Albert But-

Major Kudrna, who will be in charge of plans and training for the Division, has been assistant G-3 since November, 1948. During the war he served two and one-half years in the southwest Pacific area, his stations includ-ing Hawaii, New Guinea and the Philippines. He later was as-signed to Korea. His awards include the Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster.

by The Daily Nebraskan a week later 85 percent were in favor of teacher-rating. The scale most favored was the Purdue teacher rating scale which appeared in The Daily Nebraskan on Feb. 28. Many of them opposed having such a system campus wide.

Contact Other Schools

velop a plan. During the first part of March,

Teachers in some departments are alerady being rated by one means or another. Teachers college instructors favored rating courses instead of teachers.

E-Week Banquet Tickets on Sale

Engineer's Week banquet tick-ets are now on sale through rep-resentatives of the individual engineering societies. The 1950 banquet will be held The 1950 banquet will be held April 28 in the Union ballroom. The dinner dance plan, which proved successful last year, will again be used. Fizz Powell's band will play. Tickets will be sold by couple only and total cost is $4.80. Sales basin early in order to give ev-begin early in order to give ev-eryone a chance before the end of the month.

Highlight of the evening will be the giving out of awards to engineers for outstanding achievements and to depart-mental winners in displays and field day. The "Sledge" is also distributed at this time.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the dance at 9 p.m.

In his spare time he enjoys fishing and following baseball, football and basketball on a national scale.

arrangements through the "Bureau." Completely new to Nebraska, the program is provided to ex-pedite matters for both parties. Any University student is wel-come to use the service. Each day, too, information about pos-sible rides and passengers will be posted on the bulletin just outside the activities office.

outside the activities office. Cards for both parties will seek the following information: name, phone number, the de-sired destination, time of de-parture, time of arrival and whether the passenger would be willing to share expenses. Also, the driver will be required to include the make and model of his car. References will also be necessary for both parties his car. References will also be necessary for both parties. The program is not only open to students — faculty members may also use the new service. Those wishing to take advantage of the free service are urged to make their arrangements now. Before announcements are post-ed the applications must be ap-proved by the office.

Nebraska SDA Chapter Formed

The Nebraska chapter of the "Students of Democratic Action" was organized by a group of Uni-versity students at the Union Thursday night, Audrey Rosen-

Thursday night. Audrey Rosen-baum was named temporary chairman, with Paul Wieck as vice-chairman and Ben Wall as secretary-treasurer. The organization is the student branch of the "Americans For Democratic Action" group. In a statement announcing its formation, the chapter declared itself to be "a liberal group back-ing cooperatives." Its stated ideals are "academic freedom for professors, a strong civil rights program, and the FEPC (Fair Employment Practices Commit-tee)."

tee)." At a meeting next Thursday night, the SDA group will adopt a constitution and formulate plans for future activity, Pro-posed activity includes work in the fall elections on state and local levels. The group states that it will take no action in stu-dent politics.

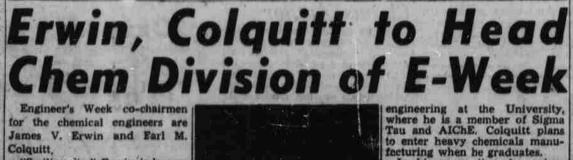

Study Hall 'In,' Date Rate 'Out'

Freshman coeds at the Univer-sity of Alabama who are on the honor role aren't getting an extra date night any more. The' office of the Dean of Women at the school has discon-tinued the practice of excusing girls from study hall. Under the new dormitory regulations, a first year coed will be able to date only on certain nights. Under the former plan, if a girl received # 1.0 everyon (equivalent to an 8.0 at NU), me had the opportunity to step out

ne extra a

EARL COLQUITT — chemical engineer who is one of his de-partment's Engineer's Week co-chairmen.

sion in mind earolled at the Uni-versity. Before he finished his freshman year he was called into the army and for the next 41 conths he piloted single engine fighter plane.

for the chemical engineers are James V. Erwin and Farl M. Colquitt, "Smiling Jim" Erwin is known almost as well for his "jokes" as amost as well for his jokes as for his high scholarship. Be-sides belonging to the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, Erwin is a member of three hon-orary societies—Sigma Tau (en-gineering), Pi Mu Epsilon (ma-thematics) and Phi Lambda Up-silon (chemistry).

Before entering college Erwin spet three years in the army, one and one-half years of which were on Guam. During this time he was an air corps hydraulics instructor instructor.

Erwin claims Falls City as his Lowin claims rais City as his home, but for the presence is set-tled in Huskerville with his wife and two children. He finds time, too, for sports (he is AIChE sports director) and music (he played trumpet during high school and in an army bund.)

Colquitt from Mississippi

Earl "Chocolate" Colquitt calls ickson, Miss., his real home, at for the present he lives with a wife and child in a Husker-