Jim Walsh Is Top Scorer Of I-M Basketball Season

Edges Bohn and Heiss in Winning Both Scoring Titles

By BILL MUNDELL
Acting Sports Editor

Jim Walsh of the Sigma Phi Epsilon is the scoring champion of the 1949-50 intramural basketball season. Walsh topped the All-University scoring in both divisions, the total points scored and the point average per game. An average of 18.9 markers per contest won him the All-U honors in that division while his 189 counters were good enough for first place in the other.

Walsh netted over ten points in eight of his ten games and in four, he made 21 or better. His greatest scoring spree came in the Phi Psi contest in which he set an all-university scoring record of 36 points in one game.

Walsh's Record Short Lived
His record, however, was short lived as Elwood Bohn of the Lutheran Student Association topped the mark to 38 points.

Bohn finished the season in second place just a shade behind Walsh with an average of 18.86 points per contest. He, too, was consistently high in points at the end of each game, never getting less than 11 in any of his contests. In points scored, however, Bohn finished in eighth place with 132 points, competing in seven battles.

Another Denominational flash holds down the number three spot. Jack Wallentine of the Newman Club sports an average of 18 points.

His total markers, numbering 180, also gives him third in that branch.

Darrell Heiss of the Farm House finished the season as the number four man with an average of 16.6. He was holder of the university single game record for a year and a half until Walsh and Bohn snapped it. Scoring 183 points gave him the runner-up spot in total points scored.

Lucht is Fifth
Gordon Lucht of InterVarsity finished fifth with a 13.2 average. Lucht's total of 145 awarded him sixth in the total points scored department.

Behind Lucht, the men with the best averages were in order: Mack Robinson, ATO; Jack Carroll ATO; Herschel Kemnitz, Theta Xi; Jack Yelkin Sigma Gamma Epsilon; and Clark Betcke, Delta Sigma Phi.

Filling in the first ten in total points scored were Carroll in fourth, Robinson in fifth, Elmer Vandel of Delta Tau Delta in seventh, Randy Renken of Phi Gamma Delta in ninth, and Lyle Altman of Sigma Nu in the number ten spot.

Waldermath Tops Bees
Arian Waldermath of Alpha Gamma Rho topped the fraternity "B" league scoring with an average of 11.14 markers per contest, good enough for 14th in the All-U standings, also. His point total of 78 was second best in his league. Don Coups of the ATO's taking first with 89 counters.

Coups' average of 9.9 took third honors in the averages. Tom Reht, Sigma Nu, was second in the averages with 10.3 and took third in total points with 72 to his credit.

Number four and five spots went to Don Richardson ATO with 9.3 and Bill Russell of the Sig Eps with an average of 8.17. The same positions in the total scoring were earned by Jim Schleiger, Phi Gam, and Al Curtis, Kappa Sig, with totals of 62 and 61 respectively.

Yelkin & Fenske High
Jack Yelkin and Paul Fenske were the top men as far as the Independents were concerned. Yelkin of the champion Sig Gams led with an output of 12.3 points per game and Fenske of the Ag YMCA topped the league with the highest total, 100 points even.

Yelkin took second in the same division with 98 markers and Fenske earned third in the averages with ten per game.

Bob Kroenke of Celtics finished as number two man in the Independents with an average of 11.2. Dick McCormick of the Lilies finished fourth with 9.67 and Vern Welch of Dorm C was the number five scorer with a per game average of 9.22.

Welch's 83 points was also good enough for third in the totals. His team-mate, Lee Korte took fourth with 71 points and Chuck Nunley of the Sig Gams earned the fifth spot with 69 counters.

Knowles Shades Johnson
Behind Bohn, Wallentine, and Lucht in the Denominational scoring came Rex Knowles of Presby with an average of 10.71 points per game.

The Fraternity "A" scorers were practically all included in the All-U listings.

First Alumni-Varsity Grid Game to Be Held Saturday

By Bob Banks

Before the alumni-varsity football game is over Head Football Coach Bill Glassford may wish he had taken up debate coaching as a means for earning his livelihood. He and Sam Vacanti, who will quarterback the alumni had a verbal duel over how many passes Vacanti will complete.

Slingin' Sam has made predictions that he will connect on at least nine of them.

However, "Wild Bill" seems to think that Sam is slingin' more bull than ball. He retaliates by saying that Mr. Vacanti won't even get a chance to throw nine passes.

The game will be played this Saturday in the Stadium at 2 p. m. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and faculty. The profits from the game will be placed in the grants-in aid fund for tuition for athletes.

First Attempt

This will be the first attempt at holding an Alumni-Varsity game for Nebraska. It will be held as a climax to the spring football drills which are now in their sixth week. Several other schools have been successful in having an annual game between old varsity players and their present varsity.

Ray Prochaska will serve as coach for the alumni squad. He started his men drilling last Monday.

Under-rated?

The Alumni squad is being entirely under-rated according to Prochaska. He points out the fact that many members of his team are still in school. He states that his boys still have a lot of spirit in them and should give a good account of themselves.

No matter what the scoreboard shows for a final recording the game will bring back many of the colorful players of by-gone days. It will give Husker fans a chance to recall their old heroes and compare them with the present varsity.

The squad which will play against the varsity will include: ENDS: Jack Bryant, Jack Pesek, Mark Dittman, Jack Hazen, Ralph Damkroger, Bob Schnieder, Jesse Sell.

TACKLES: John Sedlacek, Vic Schleich, Ted Doyle, Fred Golan, Lowell Neilson, Bruce Villars, Lorenz, Fred Hawkins, Darwin Jack Lliteras.

GUARDS: Ardie Means, Fred Salestrom, Mike DiBiase, Jerry Jacupke, Buck Buchanan.

CENTERS: Bob Costello, Tom Novak, Joe Partington, Dick Short.

QUARTERBACKS: Sam Vacanti, Ken Fischer, Del Wiegand.

HALFBACKS: Jack Carroll, Citus Fisher, Jerry Moore, Frank Collopy, Randall Salisbury, Alex Fink, Don Schneider, Bill Moomey.

Badminton, Handball, Squash Competition Moves Along

The intramural badminton, handball, and squash competition rolled nearer completion Tuesday as players in all three sports advanced to the next round of the tournaments.

The handball finals were set-up Tuesday with the elimination of two of the four semi-finalists. Jack Andrews of the Y Boys Club defeated Harry Megginis, Phi Delta Theta in one of the semi-final matches by the scores of 21-10 and 21-7. Andrews' opponent for the All-U championship, Cozy Kline of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, also advanced by downing Doug Dudley, SAE, by scores of 21-10 and 21-19. The finals will be completed before spring vacation begins.

Phelps to Finals
Bob Phelps of Phi Delta Theta has advanced the farthest in the squash sport, gaining the finals of league III already. Others who have advanced in the sport to date are: Tom Ludwick to the semi-finals of I and Don Wahl, Bill Pomeroy, and Tom Hurley to the second rounds of their leagues.
