Biblical Easter Reading Tells Story of Crucifixion of Jesus

The Easter Story from the Bible

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

THEN SAID JESUS, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." And they parted His raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And the rules also with them derided Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save himself if He be Christ, the chosen of God." And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him, and offering Him vinegar, and saying, "If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself." And a superscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

AND ONE OF THE MALEFACTORS which were hanged railed on Him, saying "If Thou be Christ, save Thyself and us." But the other answering rebuked Him, saying, "Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou are in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deed; but this man hath done nothing amiss." And he said unto Jesus, "Lord, remember me when Thou comest into the kingdom." And Jesus said unto him, "Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise." And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

AND WHEN JESUS had cried with a loud voice, he said, "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit;" and having said thus, He gave up the ghost. Now that the centuries saw what was done, He glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all His acquaintance, and the women that followed Him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

AND BEHOLD, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and just; (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them; he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid. And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. And the women also which came with Him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how His body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

NOW UPON THE FIRST DAY of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, "Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spake unto you when He was in Galilee, saying 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'" And they remembered His words, and returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them which told these things unto the apostles. And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not. Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

Carillon Donor's Birthday Feted

A fifteen minute playing of the Carillon Tower bells Saturday noon commemorated the birthday of its donor, Ralph S. Mueller.

The concert, played by Myron Roberts, associate professor of organ and music theory, included numbers to honor the anniversary of the University alum. The tower, dedicated the weekend of Homecoming last fall, is a $85,000 structure. Musical numbers included in the concert were: "March of the Men of Harlech," "The London-derry Air," "Auld Lang Syne" and "Happy Birthday."

Africa Talk Scheduled For Wesley

Darrell Donald Randall, a specialist in social science and international administration, will be the guest speaker for Wesley foundation, at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, April 12.

Randall has spent the past three years in study and in missionary service in central and south Africa "tension points." He will tell of his work among the native peoples of interior Africa, where he was sponsored by the board of missions and church extension of the Methodist church.

DARRELL DONALD RANDALL—who will speak on his work among the native peoples of Africa for Wesley Foundation.

Worked in Johannesburg
Randal made studies in the southern and the central Congo, and in the republic of Liberia, but he spent most of his time in Johannesburg, Union of South Africa. Here many thousands of natives from the interior tribes go every year to engage in mining and other industries.

In Johannesburg he helped organize an international club. The club was formed as a social and cultural center where representatives of different national and racial groups could meet and learn to understand each other on a non-political and non-denominational basis.

Project A Success
"At first many people said it couldn't be done because of the deep prejudices," says Randall. "But by the time we left Johannesburg, we had about 600 members."

Study, Play To Occupy Students

By Glenn Rosenquist.
Easter vacation officially begins at 8 a. m. tomorrow for 8,000 University students who will be enjoying their first real vacation since the Christmas holidays.

The students will return to their homes, some to work for five days, others to take it easy and relax.

They will observe Easter at home, in churches all over the country from New York to Arizona.

Religion has played a great part in the lives of these students during the past weeks. On campus they have found their places in the many campus organizations and groups which have been observing the Lenten and Holy Week seasons.

Religious Activities
The Religious Welfare council, the YMCA, the YWCA, Interservice Christian fellowship, fraternities, sororities, residence halls and other campus groups have all participated in religious activities.

Sixty campus and Lincoln pastors and University professors Tuesday were the guests of organized houses, where they met with the students to discuss the meaning of Easter and the importance of religion in life.

Music has played a great part in the University's observance of the season.

Brahms' Requiem
Brahms' "Requiem" was presented by the University Singers Sunday at First Plymouth Congregational church. This work, under the direction of Arthur Westbrook, was the combined effort of 120 voices.

The University Cathedral choir, the music department and even the Carillon tower have contributed to the musical aspect of Easter. The tower called student worshippers to the vesper services which were held each Tuesday during Lent.

The student houses and chapels of the religious denominations on the campus have had many special services during this period.

Churches
The Christian church has held morning services at Cotner house and the Presbyterian church at the Presbyterian student house.

Lutheran groups have held vesper services. Episcopalians have participated in prayer services at the University chapel.

This morning at 10 a. m. Solemn Pontifical mass will be held by the Catholic church in observance of Holy Thursday.

Highlighting the week, however, was the all-campus communion service held Wednesday at Emmanuel chapel. The communion service was attended by students of all faiths.

After the students reach their homes they will find more opportunities for worship. Easter sunrise services, cantata presentations, Holy Week masses and other services are planned by home churches.

Union to End Travel Bureau Service Today

Last call to all points north, east, south and west! If you need transportation to your home town for Easter vacation, then you had better hurry and make arrangements with the Union's travel bureau.

Already transportation has been arranged for persons seeking rides to various points in Colorado, North Dakota, Wisconsin and Texas, besides the destinations in Nebraska.

According to Gene Grimm, Union activities director, the use of the service has been very enthusiastic during the four days it has been in operation.

A total of more than 100 persons have either asked for rides or offered transportation. Response Tuesday included more than 30 requests being taken from students and faculty members.

Jeep Driver
Wednesday, an order was filled asking for a person who would be willing to act as chauffeur of a new Willys Jeep all the way to Long Beach, Calif. Not later than two minutes after the request had been phoned in, it was filled.

All references which are required of both drivers and passengers are carefully checked by the Union committee. Besides asking for references, other data including name, phone number, destination, time of arrival and departure and desired financial arrangements are collected.

Senior Class Calls Meeting To Organize

The organization of the senior class will be discussed by representatives of 25 campus organizations at a meeting to be held in Union Parlor A at 7 p. m. Thursday, April 13.

The meeting was called by senior president Bill Mueller in an effort to promote a greater degree of class organization and spirit. Matters to be discussed at the meeting include:

The study of plans for the organization of the senior class.

The study of the possibilities of organizing all four University classes to provide a greater degree of "class consciousness." It has been said that the only time that the classes as a whole get together are in freshmen convocations and in the practice for commencement exercises.

Investigating the possibilities of holding a Senior Day, holding a picnic, or some other social event.

Such organization would aid the alumni in organizing the graduates of the University.

Letters were sent to 25 major organizations on the campus, asking them to send a senior representative from their organization to the organizational meetings. Groups invited include many of the honoraries, student pep groups, and religious societies, as well as leading independent and Greek groups on the campus.

Two Youths Deny Charges

Two of six Lincoln youths, former University students, charged in connection with alleged seizure and molestation of high school girls last month, pleaded innocent when arraigned in District Court Tuesday.

Arraignment of the other four was postponed until Thursday because the attorneys were trying other cases.

Those arraigned Tuesday were David Mark Darlington, 19, charged with participation in incidents on the nights of March 17 and 18, and Robert W. Fulk, 20, charged only in the March 17 incident.

Judge J. H. Broady set Darlington's case for trial Monday, April 10. Bond was continued for Darlington at $10,000 and for Fulk at $5,000.

Those to be arraigned Thursday are Don L. Eicher, 19; Alan Joseph Bayley, 18; Edward Everett Angle, 19, and James Elgin Beal, 19.

5 Debaters Enter Mo. Valley Meet

The University will be represented by five debaters at the three day Missouri Valley speech conference which opens Thursday in Wichita, Kas.

Don Chang, entered in the oratory division, will give a speech on racial prejudice entitled, "Camouflage." His coach is Donald Kline.

Eloise Paustian and Jack Solomon will enter the extemporaneous speaking contest. They will be given topics on current events in the political scene.

Taking the affirmative in the debate contest will be the team of Paustian and Lois Nelson.

Solomon and Rod Lindvall will take the negative on this year's debate topic: Resolved, That the Communist Party in the United States should be outlawed.

Thirteen schools representing 10 states will compete in the conference.

More than 500 students in the College of Agriculture were getting ready to provide entertainment for the public at the seventh annual Farmers Fair.

Council Haggles Over Committees

Louise McDill presented the plans for committee formation for future representation on the Student Council last night at Council meeting. A special order of business, the report consumed the entire time of the Council due to extreme disagreement by representatives of certain activities.

The plan calls for the formation of four committees, a representative of each to be a voting member of the Council. The committees are: Student spirit, religious affairs, activities and orientation and university improvements.

Iowa Jury Says Bednasek Not Guilty

Robert Bednasek, charged with the strangling of Margaret Amac (Gee Gee) Jackson in a University of Iowa off-campus rooming house Dec. 11, was found innocent Wednesday.

The acquittal means that the jury accepted the defense stand that the co-ed's death was a "tragic accident." The four men and eight women, who reached the verdict after 12 hours of deliberation, decided against the state's theory that the co-ed's death was "cold, calculated murder" motivated by jealousy.

Bednasek himself had appeared confident even before he received word of the verdict. Sheriff A. J. Murphy said that he had to awaken Bednasek to give him breakfast, so soundly had he slept.

Court Scene
Although the courtroom was only half-filled, it was taut with emotion as the verdict was passed. Shouts arose from the spectators when the verdict of innocent was read.

After embracing the defense attorney and shaking hands with each juror, Bednasek went into the law library where his Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity brothers were waiting.

One juror stated that 15 ballots were taken before the final verdict was decided. District Judge James P. Gaffney had given the jury a choice of four verdicts — first-degree murder, second-degree murder, manslaughter or acquittal.

Commenting on the trial after announcement of the verdict, the judge said that it had been conducted on a "fair and impartial basis."

Lutherans Hold Noon Services

Missouri Synod Lutheran churches are sponsoring noon Holy Week services this week continuing through Thursday and Friday. The services will be held from 12:05 to 12:35 noon in the Varsity theater.

The speaker for the services will be the Rev. L. C. Rincker of Concordia college at Milwaukee, Wis.

On Good Friday the Episcopal chapel for students will hold the Good Friday Altar service at 9 a. m. at the chapel. A joint service will be conducted at Holy Trinity church in the afternoon, and in the evening at 7:30 p. m., services will be held at St. Matthews church.

Nebraska to Host Science Meeting

Sixty scientists from Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska will convene on the Nebraska campus Friday, April 7, for the annual meeting of the Missouri Valley Branch of the Society of American Bacteriologists.

Guest speakers at the two-day meeting will be Dr. F. C. Bawden, virus authority from England; and Dr. E. F. Tiffany of the U. S. Public Health Service in Atlanta, Ga.

Nebraska University scientists who will read reports on research work include: Dr. T. M. McCallum, Dr. Raymond Borchers, Dr. J. Dr. Raymond Borchers, Dr. George Peltier, Dr. Walter Miller, Dr. Carl George, and L. Conzner, Dr. Carl George, and L. Conzner. Dr. George is also secretary-treasurer of the Missouri Valley Branch.

Definite Plans Announced For Kosmet Klub Spring Musical Revue

There will be a spring Kosmet Klub show.

In answer to numerous queries of various campus groups and individuals, the men's dramatic society has announced plans for a spring revue. To be titled "Half-Century Highlights," the all male revue will show its audience the events and special happenings of the years 1900 through 1950.

The revue will consist of a series of small skits and will be presented in the early part of May. At least one performance will be given at both city and ag campuses. Information about the time and place of the show is tentative. Definite information will appear in The Daily Nebraskan following spring vacation.

K-K Will Author
President Bob Sim has announced that the authoring and direction of the show will be handled by Klub members. Chairman of the show planning committee is Ted Randolph. Co-authoring the dialogue and scenes of the revue are Merle Stalder and Frank Jacobs. Aaron Schmidt will handle the music part of the production.

According to Randolph, "The revue will offer entertainment plus an opportunity for campus groups and individuals to show their talent."

Concerning the script, Jacobs stated, "Through the medium of a revue, Kosmet Klub will be able to work in a varied number and type of acts. We intend to embody all forms of entertainment—vocal numbers, dancing, and situation comedy."

Music
As to the music, Schmidt stated, "The music of 'Half-Century Highlights' will embody the tunes best representing the music down through the first 50 years. This will add variety to the revue."

Definite information about try-outs and sections of acts will be announced after vacation along with other pertinent information about time, place, and ticket price, according to Randolph.

As to Kosmet Klub being on probation, the organization definitely was lifted off probation last month, said Sim. Women are still banned from all Klub shows, he added.

Rag Feature
The announcement followed a large fourth-page Wednesday's Daily Nebraskan feature which asked if there would be a spring show.

Rumors of a Show, of the Klub on probation, and women appearing in a new type of show were encountered when Rag reporters investigated.

When questions were directed to several persons supposedly in a position to know about the plans of Kosmet Klub, little comment was obtained.

New Type of Show?
A hint was then submitted by Kosmet Klub about a new type of show. Reportedly the show will not contain the slapstick sort of comedy which has been present in past Kosmet Klub spring shows down through the years. Nevertheless all campus groups and individuals will be invited to offer their talent at the try-outs, according to members of the Klub.

Workers of the Klub will begin work soon after spring vacation in preparation for the show. They will compete with one another for points by selling advertising for the show's program pamphlet, and also help with
