Sunday morning the group will meet at First Christian church

By George Wilcox

National

tions subcommtttee of making the truth of McCarthy's statement that communists have in-

Taft also stated, "Whether Senator McCarthy has legal evi-unfortunate results of our China policy was climaxed by the news that all plans have been abandoned to remove some 2,000

Americans and other foreigners from Shanghai by sea. Secretary of State Acheson reported that efforts will be made to get com-tising in interstate commerce.

The proposal in effect would have banned liquor advertising from newspapers, magazines, ra-

State and Local LINCOLN.—The trial of David

Darlington, suspended University student, continued in district turbed. David is on trial on a filtrated the state department.

to determine the announcement by

tor McCarthy

in an effort to w hitewash

the senator's against the d emocratic

members of a senate

foreign rela-

"no real effort"

charge

The Daily Nebraskan

Intercollegiate Press FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as expression of students news and opinions only. According to article II of the By Laws governing student publications and administered by the Board of Publications, "It is the declared policy of the Board that publications, under on the part of any member of the faculty of the University but members of on the part of any member of the faculty of the University but members of the staff of The Daily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say of do or cause to be printed.

Subscription rates are $2.00 pc, semester, $2.50 pcr semester mailed, or $3.00 or the college year. $4.00 mailed Single copy 5c. Published daily during the or the college year. $4.00 mailed Single copy 5c. Published daily during the or the college year. $4.00 mailed Single copy 5c. Published daily during the or the college year. $4.00 mailed Single copy 5c. Published daily during the personal year except Mondays and Saturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Publications Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Conkress, March 3 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in Second III of Conkress, March 3 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in Second III of Conkress, March 3 1879, authorized September 10, 1922.

EDITORIAL

Editor Suppon

Associate Editor Suppon

Managing Editors Norma Chubbuck, Foochie Rediger,

News Editors Norma Chubbuck, Foochie Rediger,

News Editors Jerry Warren, Kent Axtell. Joan Krueger

Sports Editor Kimon Karabatso:

Jenn Fenster

Ag Editor Pat Wiedman

Society Editor Pat Wiedman

Feature Editor Hank Lammers

BUSINESS

Susiness Manager Reith O'Sannon

'Teenicide' ...

proportion between the total number of accidents and those involving drivers under 24. Last year 31 per cent of traffic fatalities in the United States involved young drivers.

Insurance companies, the National Safety Council and youth leaders are waging a constant war to prevent accidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. These interested groups are uscidents in this age group. ing constructive propaganda, traffic safety programs and increasing driver schools toward the elimination of "teenicide," the new word coined to apply to traffic fatalities in the 15 to 24 age group.

The Christian student lenow interest of the Roger Williams for breakfast and a worship the 15 to 24 age group.

the 15 to 24 age group.

But despite these increased efforts throughout the nation, the "eliminate teenicide" program is lacking one factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful. That factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful that factor that is needed to make the drive successful that is needed tor is support by young drivers. Drivers falling in the age group of 15 to 24 are those who are most affected and those who should be most concerned. It is mainly up to them whether the program succeeds or fails.

The University of Nebraska's share in the success of the conference are Calvin Raverscroft, Winifred Gilson, Alice Harms, Dick Fisher, Loraine Lagerquist and Gwen McCormack. it is up to a countless number of young drivers throughout the nation, it is up to the students at the University to promote safe driving.

Our University is not immune to "teenicide." The fatal accident on West O street a year ago in which two students were killed demonstrates this fact. During recent months other students have been fortunate to escape traffic accident injuries involving young drivers.

The responsibility for keeping Nebraska student drivers out of the fatal statistics column rests with the drivers. It is up to you, to me, and to the other guy to see that the elmination of "teenicide" is started successfully, continued successfully and ended successfully.

Editorial Briefs

The third in a series of four broadcasts of John Hershey's Hiroshima" will be presented tonight by mem
Kemp, Ruth Shinn and Jean bers of the speech department radio section. Six faculty members and two students will make up the cast in the "Authors of the Ages" show, reliving the August day in 1945 when the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima. One of the best stories to come out of the war, the testimony of six individuals who survived the blast makes better than average listening.

Graham.

One of the First Presbyterian church in Lincoln. He will tell of the vocation of the ministry. Dr. Webb, formerly of China, will speak of foreign missions. Miss Farrell, who is the national Baptist student leader, will tell of student work: Miss Shinn will represent the YWCA, Miss Graham. Christian education of the Senator McCarthy has legal evidence, whether he has over the ministry. Dr. Webb, formerly of China, will speak of foreign missions. Miss Farrell, who is the national Baptist student leader, will tell of student work: Miss Shinn will represent the YWCA, Miss Graham. Christian education of the will tell of the vocation of the will tell o bers of the speech department radio section. Six faculty Graham.

Last year Fortune magazine told the reading public tion and Kemp, the YMCA. that graduating college students were individuals who preferred ready-made security to a security for which they had to fight. One of the biggest obstacles standing in the way of progress seems to be this overwhelming fear of way of progress seems to be this overwhelming fear of On the agenda Friday are failure held by graduates starting out on their own. In registration in the afternoon and spite of the added risk, seniors desiring to go into busispite of the added risk, seniors desired and spite of the added risk, seniors desired and a Radio Faculty future so inviting as to give it a try.

Things are looking up for the masculine gender of To Dramatize humanity. A recent report of a life insurance company had this heartening news: In 1947, for the first time in history, the females outnumbered the males in the United States. And if the trend continues, by 1975 there will be only 985 males for every 1,000 females. It looks as though the coeds had better start hunting while the hunting's good . . . before the male animal becomes extinct.

The Daily Iowan recently commented appropriately on Maxime Trauernicht, and mew men's fashions. It told of Paris designers announcing The book is being dramatized a new line of spring fashions for men-short-trousers, lavender-colored tuxedoes, tomato-red dinner jackets, ruffled shirts and pointed shoes in assorted colors. The pleted new look for 1950, one designer said, consists of broad shoulders, absolutely no "tummy" and a very pinched-in waist. The designer, of course, was referring only to clothwaist. The designer, of course, was referring only to clothing style, not to men's shapes. Despite changes in clothing styles, the new look for men probably will be exactly like the old look—hunched shoulders, a paunch instead of Dempsey and Bob Askey, University students, are also mem-

This is not a "keep off the grass" bit as Daily Nebraskan readers have seen many times in the past. Rather, this is a "save the grass" notice. It should be everyone's inalienable right in the springtime to sit, sleep or otherwise enjoy himself on the grass. But there won't be much grass left it we don't try to curb the careless practice of walking on the grass-not out of any aesthetic pleasure, but rather out of laziness.

rather out of laziness.

According to Albert E. Wiggam, noted psychologist columnist, entirely for many young people who do not and columnist, entirely too many young people who do not possess a general knowledge of basic English are being graduated from our institutions of higher learning. The a widowed seamstress, a physimajor reason for this condition can be attributed to poor instruction below the university level. However, college text books are at least partly responsible. Too many of them are written in the vernacular of the verbal Einstein. For instance, students reading a typical text are confronted with "peregripations" which means travels are "formulated in immediately beare written in the vernacular of the verbal Einstein. For instance, students reading a typical text are confronted with "peregrinations" which means travels and "stylistic banality" which means triteness. Why do it the hard way? Ferhaps students would digest a little more practical infeading the show, consulted with Alfred Knopf, publisher of "Hiroshima" for permission to produce the book on the air. indeed a pity that college students today do not understand basic English; however, it is even more pitiable that the authorities and scholars who write college text books have

Med Students

NU Bulletin Board

activities building at 6:45.

Theta Sigma Phi meets at 5 p.m. Thursday, Ellen Smith hall.
Block and Bridle club meets at 7:15 p.m. Thursday in the Ag Union for election of officers.

IVCF meets at 7:30 in Room 315 of Union.

Letterip

To The Editor:

The following is in regard to the column entitled "Farber's Folly" which appeared in the Apirl 5 issue of your paper.

Upon reading the column today I was reminded of a child aged 5 to 7 who, when he couldn't think of a clever retort to some teasing, came back with some typical childish remarks such as . . nincompoop . . . pointed head . . . etc. (These may be familiar to those devoted readers of "Farber's Folly.")

Whether Mr. Farber honestly believes he is a gifted columnist or not- I have no idea. However, I have never heard or read of any columnist who became so very childish that it was necessary for him to resort to juvenile name-calling and ridiculing.

I doubt that Mr. Farber could comprehend that the article in the humor magazine was a satire—the author certainly resorted to no outright ridiculing of Mr. Farber, and consequently turned out a much more effective article than Mr. Farber's "retort."

Mr. Farber-I think it is time you grew up. If you can't think and made the of anything clever to say just don't say it. Personally-todays column left me completely flat.

Yours in the great movement toward maturity, Edward C. Lennword

Concern over the increased accident rate of drivers in the 15 to 24-year-old group has mounted throughout the nation in recent years. Statistics consistenly show a dis-Convention Opens April 14

The Christian and Baptist a party for the conference goers churches will jointly sponsor a in the evening.

The Christian student fellow-

Committee Named

On the general committee for Speaking at the Saturday morning sessions will be the Roy. Lowell Bryant, First Christian church, Lincoln; the Rev. Richchurch, Lincoln; the Rev. Richard Nutt, Methodist student pastor; Ruth Shinn, University Y.W. C.A. director; the Rev. Rex Knowles, Presbysterian student pastor; C. B. Howells, Baptist student pastor; Mrs. R. M. Benson, Christian student worker; and the Rev. John Lenke Constitution and the Rev. John Lepke, Congregational student pastor.

Saturday afternoon sessions will be held in the Union. Dr. Gordon H. Schroeder, pastor of First Baptist church in Lincoln democratic will be the leader of a panel discussion on Christian vocations to be held at 3:30 p. m.

Panel Members

Miss Graham, Christian educa-

Other speakers at the three-day conference will be the Rev. Forrest Haggard, Elza Hawkins and Dr. Ernest E. Smith.

'Hiroshima'

Six University faculty members are participating in the cast of the radio presentation of John Hershey's "Hiroshima" on the Authors of the Ages program. They are: Bill Dempsey, Ber-ling Jorgenson, Don Klein, Don

The book is being dramatized over four radio shows, two of which have already been com-

Thursday, April 13 at 9:30

bers of the cast.
"A great deal has been written about how the atomic bomb works. John Hershey, in his book, brings out the destructive quality of atomic blasts. The bomb has become a moral issue in the world today and is a timely topic with which all peoples are concerned," com-

Get Loan Fund

Students at the University Medical college in Omaha got good news Monday. Mrs. Lizzie Oltmanns and her 7:15 p.m. Thursday in the Ag Union for election of officers.

IVCF meets at 7:30 in Room
315 of Union.

Friday

Corn Shucks advertising staff meets Friday, at 3 p.m. in the Corn Shucks office.

Mrs. Lizzle Oltmanns and ner son, Frederick, of Belgrade, Nebr., established at student loan fund with the University Foundation. Perry W. Branch, Foundation director-secretary said that money from the fund will be for loans to Medical college students at low rates of interest.

been effectively applied to my injured ego. Two weeks ago I reported that one of the profs had embarrassed me by asking for a book I had reviewed without even seeing. much reading. day that prof stopped in following comment: "Any fool can review a book he's read. It takes Vennix a genius to review one that he hasn't even seen." Do you suppost he means a genius, junior

As evidence that somebody's been reading this column of literary levities, a student asked me to show him that long list of books about ships and sailors. me to show him that long list of books about ships and sailors. My surfirise was tremendous. I'm entirely amenable to further surprises of a similar nature.

So many people have been asking me about the new Collie mun (delivered on sabedula hy colling and contents and contents pup (delivered on schedule by the Easter Bunny last Sunday morning) that I think I'd better provide a bit of a sequel. My daughter no longer has illusions about from whence come the eggs and gifts of Poster time.

You should see my daughter's mother. She fusses over the pup more than she did over our first ten or twelve children. She (the pup) is as awkward and clumsy as an overgrown pup can be, and it amuses me to see her ram into the furniture as she gambols-or do only lambs gambol? -about on the waxed hardwood floors. But she (my wife) wor-WASHINGTON .- Senator Mc-Cirthy continued to occupy ma-jor portions of the headlines with ries that she (the pup) will injure herself permanently. Robert A. Taft that President Truman is "li-

She has made quite a change in my life—my wife did so many years ago, I spent all day Saturday building a large pen in the back yard and my hands and arms are scratched and scarred. Yesterday evening I put in several hours building a pen in our basement out of an old coffin case. Our Collie isn't yet 'housebroke' so we have to confine her somewhat

I wish someone would help me find a name for her (the pup.) The names of her dam and sire and their dams and sires, and theirs in turn, are all so impressive sounding that we can simply call this one "Sandy" or "Lassie" or anything else so common, Suggestions will be gratefully received at 301 Love Memorial library, either by personal visit or by a note in the

So much for the pup—almost.
Practically all of my reading Brininstool is no stranger to students of Western history, having about 'Man's Poet Friend.' Hence, I'm not in a position to review anything except Rowland John's "Our Friend the Collie," and Lilo Denlinger's "The Complete Collie." If you're planning on getting a Collie pup, though you might like to consult those helpful little volumes.

Five years ago this morning I awoke in a Red Cross Club in Belfast, Ireland, where I was on leave. O happy day! A home away from home! One of the munist permission to move the refugees to a north China port or to the British colony of Hong first things I heard that morning, after rattling the Guiness WASHINGTON.—The senate commerce committe killed a bill Franklin D. Roosevelt was dead. I was positive that had to be I was positive that had to be merely German propoganda. But now I'm convinced that it READING. wasn't. The number of books written about FDR will soon approach the number written about year old girl on March 18. Mrs. Darlington took the stand after Judge J. H. Broady had overruled a defense motion for dismissal. The motion charged court with the testimony of Mrs. George Darlington, his mother. Mrs. Darlington related to the that Darlington was "forced" Mrs. Darlington related to the jury incidents to prove her fears and contention that her accused inations had been completed and 19-year old son is mentally disdiscriminated against in that counsel for five other youths incharge of assault with intent to volved in similar charges had commit rape in connection with the alleged molesting of a 16- which to plead.

WARNER CERTAINLY CARRIES A LOT OF WEIGHT SINCE HE STARTED USING VITALIS!

> You'll be strong with the gels, tee—if you'use your head—and "Live-Action" Vitalis care. Just be sure to use that famous "60-Second Workout" topside. 50 seconds' scalp massage (feel the difference!)—10 seconds to comb (and will the gals see the difference!). You'll look neat and natural. Bye-bye loose, flaky dandruff and dryness, too. So be smart and look smart — get Vitalis soon at drug store or barber shop.

"Did you say something, dear?"

Abe Lincoln. They'll make a sizable library by themselves.

Reprinted from May 1950

issue of ESQUIRE

Out of the plentiful supply of new books which have arrived explains panic, tells under what circumstances it is likely to occur, and tells what to do about conquering panic. Despite the fact that he seems to be nis own best friend (eight of the titles in his bibliography of 47 items are written by himself), I can recommend "Patterns of Panic" as interesting, informative reading.

For those of you who are eager to learn about the relationships between the Americas, there is Laurence Duggan's "The Ameri-cas; the Search for Hemisphere Security." The author spent The author spent many years studying the prob-lems of Latin American countries and had almost completed this work before his death.

In three well-defined sections, the social background, the historical background, and the present and the future, "The Americas" presents a concise, lucid readable picture of inter-American relationships.

A little book with a title almost as long as the book itself is "Crazy Horse: the Invincible Ogallala Sioux Chief; the Inside Stories,' by Actual Observers, of a Most Treacherous Deed Against a Great Indian Leader." It is a biography of an Indian chief who figured prominently in Nebraska history, edited and arranged for publication by E. A. Brininstool.

Among other illustrations, there is an interesting picture of nearby Fort Robinson, recently taken over by the University in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture as an to "Crazy Horse "Land in California" by W.W. Robinson, is one of the volumes in the chronicles of California series. It is devoted to an interesting discussion of the history of the development and occupation of various parts of "the sunshine state."

There are sections devoted to the missions, to large ranches, to grants of land to railroads, to homesteaders and squatters, and so forth, and many descriptive charts and maps of land grants. To you who enjoy reading factual material simply for-the-fun-of-it I can recommend "Land in California" as WORTH

Campus Closeups Contest Begins

Copyright 1950 by Esquire, Inc.

The new Campus Closeups contest is underway in the Union

The voice of a "mystery" stu-dent may be heard on the Solatone record players in the Crib singing "In the Still of the Night." Students may enter the name of the person they believe to be the owner of the mystery voice by writing the name on ballots which will be handed out with every purchase of a "crib."

The name Campus Closeups was submitted by Jerry Warren, in the contest held to choose a name for the mystery voice contest. The winning contestant received $1 worth of free cokes in the Crib.

Each week, a new voice will be placed in the record players. This week's voice belongs to a coed who was recently heard singing the same song at a University show.

The winner of each weeks contest will receive free purchases in the Crib or other suitable

Canterbury Club To Give Dance

anterbury club will present a cabaret dance Sunday evening as part of their spring schedule. Atmosphere will be created with soft lights and card tables surrounding the dance floor. Records will provide music and refreshments will be served. Members of the club, their guests and friends are invited to at-tend from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

"Port of New York" 1:00, 3:44, 6:28, 9:12 "Boy from Indiana" 2:19, 5:03, 7:47, 10:31

"Lawless Code" 2:36, 5:10, 7:44, 10:19 Search for Danger"

rivets. Fine for work and play. Sizes 29 to 42 waist.

GOLD'S . . . Balcony

1:30, 4:04, 6:38, 9:13

