

CORNHUSKER GOLF TEAM—Victorious in six of eight dual matches thus far, will meet Iowa State here Saturday at Hillcrest country club. Members of the squad include left to right; Doug Dale, Steve Flansburg, Dick Spangler, Joe Gifford and Coach Coach Bob Slezak's tennis team on Saturday also.

Golfers Seek Seventh Win Saturday

The Cornhusker golf crew will in nine dual matches when they go against the Iowa State Cyclones this Saturday at Hillcrest

Franklin can look orward to some bright golf records for the next two years if his men live up to the record they are making for themselves this year.

The team is almost wholly dominated by sophomores who have been seeing most of the traveling team is Steve Flans-burg. He is a returning squadman from last year. Joe Gifford has been leading the golfers so far this year. He shoots in the low 70's quite con-

Dick Spangler occupies the number two berth. He also shoots in the 70's.

These two men are followed by Flansburg and Doug Dale in the third and fourth positions to form a well-balanced squad.

up of Gifford and Spangler. They are closely followed by Dale and

Today's I-M Tennis Matches

led because of rain the next day's x

Kansas Has First Punting

New Tennis Team Meets Iowa State

Coach Bob Slezak will send an Magee.

In a challenge match last night, Radin moved into the top berth by taking the full measure of Curran in two straight sets.
The first set ended 6-3 in Radin's favor. He look the one spot, Curran at number two, field. Magee at the number three position, Bunten in the fifth position.

Retherford established a new school scoring record last year only to have it surpassed by ably challenge the losing team first conference crown in many for the number 2 doubles berth. years in 1949.

lansburg and Doug Date in the positions to aird and fourth positions to arm a well-balanced squad.

The first doubles team is made p of Gifford and Spangler. They re closely followed by Dale and lansburg.

Court 2 J. Hotwich. ZBT vs. J. Heck-court 2 J. Hotwich. ZBT vs. J. Heck-court 3. A. Aracha vz. Norton. SAE. Court 3. A. Aracha vz. Norton. SAE. Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 5: A. Borra, Theia Xi. vz. B. Fayman, Phi Deits.

Court 8. C. Bergotten vs. Harding. Delta Theta. Scheduled for 7:30 p.m. are: Court 1: Dudley. SAE vs. 1. Vietzer.

Eighteen tennis matches are on feck for today in the intramural tennis tournament,

Contestants are cautioned that anytime the matches are cancelled because of rain the next day's Lineman in Big 7 Circles Since Nebraska's Pesek Punting linemen have been that season for one of the nascarce in Big Seven football cir- tion's better marks. cles, but Kansas will come up with three next autumn when Missouri tackle-fullback in the Siki Sikes pulls the wraps off early '30s. his third Jayhawk edition.

has been shifted from fullback to suard. The newcomer is slammed the ball down with his George Mrkonic, the 207-pound freshman tackle from McKees- foot. Mace and Simons handled all Jaynawk punting last year, the conference end in the early '30s, former finishing fifth among was another lineman who shoul-Big Seven kickers with a 38.1 dered his team's pedal duties. average on 34 boots, Simons, who filled the breach left by Frank Pattee's loss in 1948 so capably, ranked 12th with a 31.7 mean. Mrkonic has been kick-ing loss of the state of t ing long and high all spring.

Hoag, the well-regarded freshman halfback from Chicago, will didates still were battling for see plenty of action Saturday first string jobs as the Hawkers when the Jayhawks collide in headed into their final week of their third annual spring game at 2 p. m. in Memorial stadium. Hoag's accuracy may earn him the club's No. 1 booting chores to that spot, however, he will be the first to carry the load for a Big Seven club since Ne-braska's Jack Pesek was booming tremendous spirais for the Huskers three seasons ago.

First Since Pesek.

The son of the famous Nebraska Tigerman, John Pesek, averaged 41.1 yards on 51 cracks last year against Arizona.

He was preceded by Percy Gill, Still the most famous of all Holdovers from last year are Dolph Simons, senior guard from Lawrence, and Bill Mace, rock tackle who earned allbulky Coffeyville convert who American acclaim in 1934. Gen-

Hood in Early 30's. Frank Hood, Iowa State's all-Kansas has had place-kicking has seen regular kicking action

All three, along with Charlie until Simons.

All four Jayhawk kicking canspring drills.

Simons is one of three holdover lettermen who are battling an influx of youngsters. Most prominent among these are Art Spratt, the madeover tackle, If one of the linemen ascend George Abel and Jack Luschen. Two of this gang must come through if the Jayhawks are to field guards of starting Big

Seven caliber next season,

Game Depends on Condition Says Good be seeking their seventh victory entirely rearranged tennis team kind of shape the Alumni will Varsity's scoring punch,

Both teams will have members challenge match last of championship outfits playing.

It will be a battle of "stars of"

of Curran in two straight sets, hopes, "stars of tomorrow."

The team is almost wholly ominated by sophomores who ave been seeing most of the ction this year.

The only upperclassmen on the traveling team is Steve Flans-

In the doubles Curran and Whitehead this year. For a lot of Bunten will play Radin and Ma- the first year students, it will Whitehead this year. For a lot of gee for the number one doubles mean their first glance at the antics of holster-shooting Claude, Redman and Delton will prob- who led the Huskers to their see Bus make his farewell appearance of college play at Nebraska. Whitehead, who recently turned down a profesoffer from the Chicago

Stags, will play for the National AAU champions Phillips Oilers.

Standing as a paramont obstacle to Whitehead will be the Varsity's Bob "Shorty" Pierce. The ex-Lincoln High whiz has improved a great deal over the past year and could make it a long evening for Whitehead if he At one of the guard spots for Good will be Jim Buchanan, who

At one of the guard spots for Good will be Jim Buchanan, who like Retherford, is from Indiana. Several days later.

They are also asked to watch the Daily Nebraskan sports page and the intramural bulletin board to find out the pairings.

The following matches are scheduled to be played tonight

The following matches are scheduled to be played tonight

At one of the guard spots for Good will be Jim Buchanan, who like Retherford, is from Indiana. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan hit his peak for the 1950 season against Colorado and reports for Good will be Jim Buchanan, who like Retherford, is from Indiana. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan hit his peak for the 1950 season against Colorado and reports for Good will be Jim Buchanan, who like Retherford, is from Indiana. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan hit his peak for the 1950 season against Colorado and reports for good will be Jim Buchanan, who like Retherford, is from Indiana. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience under his belt and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan has one year of varsity experience and won wide acclaim in the Big Seven with his long-shots from mid-court. Buchanan h from mid-court. Buchanan hit his peak for the 1950 season against Colorado and reports from spring drills have him better than ever. Two "B" team members who are up from the ranks for their remaining competition, also con-stitute a threat to the favored Two 'B' Members against top-notch players for the "It will all depend on what first time, but should add to the Norm Wilnes, a substitute for-ward on the 1950 varsity squad, should also add a few points for the Vasity. Wilnes, even though he did not see too much action last season, has shown definite promise and improvement thruout spring drills. Leading the pack of Freshmen who hope to make good in the Varsity circle next year are Roland Rivers, Joe Good, Bob Mercier, Ted Connors and Jim Sny- Sigma Nu's.

Jess Sell, a 6-3 forward, and Harry Paul Kipper will be going Good.

year, was one of the Freshmen highlights during the past season. He stands six feet six inches and packs enough weight to give him plenty of authority around the backboards. Coach Good's son Joe has also shown plenty of skill in the back

Bus in Farewell court. An expert on the long in Whitehead, the crowd will shots, young Good is one of the better ball-handlers on the team. Snyder Adds Height

> Varsity is six-four Jim Snyder. Snyder, another Malacek when it come to re-bounding, is good on both set shots from the corners as well as slashing drive-ins. Ted Connors, three-sport star at Hastings high school, uses his > 190 pounds to good advantage under the boards. He stands 6-212 and can work from either the pivot or forward spots.

will have to watch from the bench. Graves Holloway has been the hospital ever since Spring vacation. He had his ankle operated on then to remove a chipped bone. Good said that he will probably be seeing plenty of action for the Vasity next season. The Varsity will have to overcome a lot of height as well as experience to beat the Alumni who might be a litte out of shape for the contest, so a fast running game will be in store as the two teams who have been trained by Harry "run-em-in-the-boards"

Press Box Views

By Kimon Karabatsos

Students are funny, thousands turn out for University football and basketball games, but just a few take time out to watch America's number one sport-

Perhaps it would be different if the Husker's baseball team was losing most of their games, but they are resting in second place with a very good chance of re-capturing the baseball crown that they lost last year to Kansas

University.

Every team needs it's fans to give them a boost when they are down and out and every team needs loyal supporters to cheer them on to victory.

It's not that I'm asking you

It's not that I'm asking you to go out to a game which would bore you to death or the like, the brand of ball played in the Big Seven and by Nebraska is excellent as far as colleges go. You will see the same double plays and the same home runs that you would in any major league baseball park.

baseball park.

Hits and plays that bring thousands of people to their feet in near crowd hysteria are not restricted to the majors. In fact. Nebraska has three power hitters who are just as apt to knock one out of the park as

Howie Powley, Bob Cerv and Ray Mladovich have all connected for circuit blows, In Lin Vrbka and Bob Camp. Coach Tony Sharpe has two good

For a sport that has made the hot-dog famous throughout the world, baseball is given a poor rating by students. You can see plenty of Nebraska students at Sherman field when the Lincoln A's are in town, but a lot of those faces can't be seen on the baseball field west of the Coliseum when the Cornhuskers are home.

Friday and Saturday, Nebraska get it. s host to Kansas University in

Jayhawk '9' Here In Two-Game Stand

This Week's Schedule May 5-6 Kansas at Nebraska Missouri at Kansas State

Coach Tony Sharpe's baseball team and the Kansas University Jayhawks will provide the fire-works in Big Seven conference play this week end.

Two excellent games are in the making and may prove to be deciding factors when the final tabulations are turned in at the end of the season for the Big Seven crown.

The Big Seven's champ will play the winner of the Missouri Valley conference for a spot in the NCAA tournament to be held the NCAA tournament to be held in Omaha next month.

Jays Defend

Kansas is defending champion and is currently tied for fourth with Missouri and Kansas State, Nebraska, tied for second with Oklahoma, was the 1948 champions Getting the starting nod on the mound for Nebraska will be Lin Vrbka, the Huskers number one moundsman. Tom Novak will handle his regular catching chores. Sharpe has indicated that he will use Bob Camp on the hill for the second game. This is the same battery that Sharpe used against Missouri when the Huskers took a clean sween at Co-Bob Cerv is currently leading

Two Home Runs
Rightfielder Howie Powley gave notice to all power hitters that he was after the Big Seven's home run record as he pounded out two against Oklahoma—one through you will they be able to

Maybe it isn't exactly right to two important games — games plead with the students to go which might decide the confer- to baseball games, but if this is ence championship. Nebraska the only way that we can get baseball players will be needing plenty of support and only desk will continue to do so.

I lowa State is at Lawrence for a two-game series with the Jay-hawks on Monday and Tuesday.

(Courtesy The Lincoln Journal) Bob Cerv

with the bases loaded in the first game.

In the second game, Powley sent one over the center field fence with one man on to ac-count for two of the Husker's three runs, three runs.

Colorado, leading the league with one lonely win, holds off their league play until Monday and Tuesday when they are host to fourth place Missouri.

Colorado has held first place

Bob Cerv is currently leading the Huskers on safe hits as well as extra base blows. He has knocked out 26 hits in 54 times at bat for a .484 average.

His .484 puts him way ahead of the batters in the Big Seven conference.

Two Home Runs

Prophylicidar Howis Powley rado baseball game.

rado baseball game.
Missouri and Kansas State tangle this Friday and Saturday and both teams will be after a clear claim to fourth place. Kansas State, having split with Nebraska and Oklahoma, rate as a slight favorite to clip the Tigers. The home field also helps in giving the Wildcats a slight this Saturday. The team seems to pack more balance than Slezak had anticipated. At the start of the seal season of the season season season of the season The team warmed up for their Big Seven match by thoroughly trouncing Creighton University Monday afternoon 25-3. Coach Marvir "Preacher" Coach Marvir

Kappa Sigma roared into a second place tie in League I of intramural softball Tuesday night by slapping a 16-4 shellacking on Alpha Tau Omega. The Kappa Sig win was definitely of the upset class as the Taus were winners of three games and loser of only their contest with the league leading

As it was, the win was a gift to the Kappa Sigs as the ATO S 12 bases on safeties pitchers gave up balls and advanced three men to first base by hitting the batter.

The league leading Siga Nu's had a close squeak in racking ners was quickly swallowed up Adding more height to the leaders took a hard fought 6-5 second frame as the first three arsity is six-four Jim Snyder. Victory over Sigma Alpha Epsimen at bat, walloped mighty the mound for the victors, al- while the hit by Johnson was a lowed the SAE's only four hits, bit doubtful, touching the glove one of which was Hale's home of the Delta Sig left-fielder. run in the first inning with a Tho ruled as an error, Johnson mate aboard which gave the came all the way home to score. SAE's a temporary 2-0 lead. Wallick, chucking for the

The Nu's in turn, clouted losing pitcher Burris for ten safe trol after that big inning, and al-One member who would probably be seeing plenty of action Friday night with the Varsity

Goes Ten Innings

In the longest game of the season, Tau Kappa Epsilon upset Brown Palace, 4-2 in ten innings. The Tekes, winless up to Tuesday's contest, scored two runs in the top of the tenth to Successive singles by McDole and Bahde and then with one out, a base cleaning double by Anderson, were the blows that broke up a fine pitcher's duel by Williams of Brown Palace and Soder of the Tekes. The Tekes were outhit, 7 to 9, slugged a four-bagger.

Theta Xi took over undisputed position of first place in league III as the TX boys had dropped Sigma Alpha Mu, 7-2, behind the one-hit pitching of Torczon. The win now gives TX a record of three wins and one less and coupled with the Brown less and coupled with the Brown less and coupled with the Brown less and coupled with the Brown.

loss and coupled with the Brown two hits and sent six down Palace loss, breaks the tie be- swinging.

Delta Sigs Roll

Delta Sigma Phi cilmbed into With all these men on base the second place in League III Tues-Kappa Sigs needed only four day, taking Farm House in stride hits to run away with the game. 7 to 3. A four run last inning was The losing Taus batted out six needed by the Delta Sigs, howsafeties off the efforts of win-ning hurler, Wagner. ever to notch their second win of the season. of the season. A three run lead of the win-home runs. The blows by Lam-Weibles and and Altman on bert and Watson were legitimate Wallick, chucking for the winners, kept the Aggies in conlowed only two hits from then on. Longest blow by the victors was Arter's first inning double to right.

Pioneer Co-op remained in a first place tie in league IV by downing Theta Chi, 4-1, for their fourth straight win. One-hit pitching by Pioneer Holmes took the spotlight. Lead-off man Holling for the Theta Chi's got the only safe hit off Holmes in the third frame. Max Hanson led the Pioneer seven hit attack, getting three hits in three trips to the plate. Four Straight Cornhusker Co-op rolled to in the contest, but were behind their fourth straight victory and only the first two innings after remained in a tie with Pioneer.

Another two-hit performance The winners, rallying behind the chucking of Torczon, touched Sammie hurler, Madid for nine Sig Pi's rolled to a 9-1 win over Acacia, Hinkley, superb in the clutches, struck out seven, five of these were with men on base. The D. S. Pi's hitting grabbed eight safeties from Menefee, the Acacia hurler. Phi Delts Rally Phi Delta Theta rallied for two runs in the last inning to grab a 5-4 decision from Delta Upsilon Tuesday night. The contest, close all the way, was eventually decidde by the 11 bases on balls given up by DU pitcher, Britt. The six Phi Delt hits were used primarily to bring the men in from third.

Bloomer, chucking for the win-ners, allowed the DU's only three safe hits. The win was number three out of four starts for the Phi Delts and moved them into a tie for second in USKER "San Antone Ambush" 1:15, 4:11, 7:07, 10:03.

"Adventure in Balitmore"

2:27, 5:23, 8:19.

IMAGINE!! BOOKS BY THE POUND

WE HAVE A GOOD SELECTION OF BOOKS WE ARE NOW OFFERING FOR 5c PER POUND 6 POUNDS FOR 25c

"BRING YOUR SHOPPING BAG AND BUY A FEW POUNDS"

